COUNCIL WARS ON CITY BANKS

EAT YOUR WAY INTO LONG LIFE, DOCTORS ADVISE

Diet Is Stressed at A. M. A. Meeting.

BY JOHN BOETTIGER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Portland, Ore., July 10.—[Special.]—Eat yourself into a long life, is the advice given today by speakers at the convention of the American Medical association being held in this city.

One physician revealed that a great majority of his ailing patients had failed to eat proper foods and that after their diets were corrected most of them became well. Another added that years may be added to one's life by observing a good diet. Then they described their views of what is a good diet.

The day of the pill vending doctor is passing, and the day of the physician-dietitian is dawning, the physicians declared. They said that the diet has come to be recognized in late years as one of the physician's greatest aids.

Message to Man of 50.

Especially the man at 50 should listen to the message of Dr. Morris Fishbein of Chicago, editor of the Journal of the American Medical association.

"At 50," said Dr. Fishbein, "the average man may look forward to living just past 70. But if he watches his diet, and observes the simple rules of hygiene, he shall live from five to seven and a half years longer. If you would live until 78 instead of 70, watch your dinner plate."

Study of 501 Persons.

Dr. Lovell Langstroth of San Francisco, prominent in dietary research, presented the results of his study of 501 persons who came to him with a variety of complaints. The study, said Dr. Langstroth, represented a typical cross section of American life. Included in the group were many cases of high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, rheumatism, diabetes, heart disease, and a number of cases of unexplained headaches. Telling of the foods these patients had been eating, Dr. Langstroth said:

"Bread, meat, potato, all forms of sweet dessert, and the accessory foods, butter, cream, sugar, and mayonnaise, form the bulk of the average diet, actually 79 per cent. Bread and butter were the largest single items, 16 and 11 per cent, respectively. For the most part, these foods are naturally or artificially concentrated and free from residue, and at least the bread and meat have an acid ash. With exception of butter and cream, they are vitamin poor.

Protective Foods Neglected.

"The protective foods formed 12 per cent of the average diet. The commonest of these are eggs, milk, fruit, vegetables, and lettuce. The vitamins which they contain so abundantly have been shown by animal experiments to be necessary for growth, reproduction, and the prevention of the common degenerative diseases mentioned."

Primitive peoples generally are free from many of our chronic diseases, Dr. Langstroth pointed out. The white man's diseases have come with the white man's foods, he said.

Dr. Langstroth took his 501 patients who had been taking only 12 per cent of protective foods and, by radically rearranging their diets, increased this percentage to 70. The results he gave strongly impressed his audience. Of thirty-five patients with high blood pressure, 74 per cent were improved or completely relieved by the corrective diet. Similar relief was given to forty-eight out of sixty-five patients suffering from degenerative rheumatism. In fifty-five cases of chronic stomach-intestinal disease 67 per cent were much improved or completely relieved of their symptoms.

Many lectures were given today by leading physicians, which were, for the most part, technical discussions intended only for the education of the medical audiences. Tomorrow the house of delegates will meet in its final session. A new slate of officers will be elected. On Friday more meetings of the scientific sessions will be held.

Home on Wilson Avenue Is Damaged by Bomb

A bomb was exploded in the doorway of the home of Edward Young, 2153 Wilson avenue, late last night. The damage was light. Young is employed by a clothing manufacturing company. He knew of no reason for the bomb. Patients of the Ravenswood hospital, about a block away, were undisturbed by the explosion.

ALDERMEN VETO 40 MILLION TAX WARRANT SALE

Inquiry on 'Finance Trust' Ordered.

BY CARL WARREN.

In the face of warnings that its action would prevent the opening of schools in September, the city council last night refused to consent to the school board's sale of $40,000,000 worth of tax warrants to a banking syndicate headed by Halsey, Stuart & Co., under terms described as "outrageous" and "impossible."

Rejection of the deal was preceded by an oratorical assault on the bankers of the city which kept the council and its finance committee in turmoil all afternoon and until nearly 9 p. m. Leading aldermen, charging that the "banking trust" has a strangle hold on municipal finances, joined in a demand that responsibility for the present dilemma be placed at the door of the banks instead of upon the alleged waste and extravagance of the city administration.

Move to Probe the Banks.

At the climax of the session the council not only threw down the school board tax warrant sale but unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an investigation of "the entire banking situation as it pertains to the city of Chicago."

"The time has come when we can no longer endure the intolerable gouging by the big bankers," declared Ald. Jacob Arvey [24th], leader of the fight on the school board ordinance and author of the investigation resolution.

"We are told that the schools will close if we don't approve this deal with Halsey, Stuart & Co. Well, if it's come to that, let them close. But first we are going to call attention to these Jesse Jameses who are to blame; these highbrows, these directors of civic uplift groups who are willing to wring out the last cent of the school children's money to line their own pockets."

The Bankers' Proposal.

The proposal of Halsey, Stuart & Co. was to buy the $40,000,000 in warrants at 6 per cent interest and with the stipulation that the cash be deposited with the Central Trust company and withdrawn gradually, the school board meanwhile receiving 2 per cent interest on the balances. Because of the expiration of the release of an option on purchase of the warrants by another Chicago syndicate at midnight last night President Caldwell of the school board told the council its approval at yesterday's meeting was absolutely necessary.

In substance, the aldermanic objections were that the bankers in the Halsey, Stuart syndicate were charging the board 6 per cent interest, at the same time keeping a large part of the principal at 2 per cent and relending it to customers at 6 per cent or more, thereby making a profit of 10 per cent, as the aldermen figured it. The bankers' conditions were that the whole 40 millions be borrowed at once, thus leaving large balances in the banks. The schools would need the money only gradually.

Under the schedule of withdrawals proposed, Ald. Arvey and others estimated, this would amount to a "gift" of between $400,000 and $500,000 to the syndicate on the $40,000,000 loan.

The final vote of the council against approval of the loan, after several preliminary votes on procedure, stood at 27 to 17, nearly all of those in the minority being administration aldermen. At the outset the Thompsonites had put on pressure for approval but the opposition became so unexpectedly strong that lobbyists were withdrawn from the floor, allowing several Thompson members to switch over.

The tide turned when Ald. Oscar Nelson [46th], during an attack on the bankers, agreed to let the ordinance go back to the finance committee for a hearing.

For Calling in Bankers.

"Perhaps the best civic lesson that could be taught would be to close the schools," Ald. Nelson said. "But I agree with Ald. Arvey that first we should call in these holdup bankers and show how they are stealing from the taxpayers."

The aldermen did not blame the bankers for getting the city into the financial hole; only for what they called taking advantage of its distress.

The resentment against the banks has been smoldering for months, growing more intense as the municipal agencies, deeper and deeper in

U. S. Atlantic Flyers Reach Rome

Fight for Life of Wilson Girl, Auto Victim

A blood transfusion was performed last night by physicians in an effort to save the life of Miss Dorothy Wilson, debutante daughter of Milton Wilson of Santa Barbara, Cal., a director of Wilson Bros., manufacturers. While the doctors described the girl's condition as "grave," they said that she was holding her own after the operation.

Miss Wilson, who is 20 years old, was injured at noon yesterday when the automobile in which she was riding was struck by a car driven by Miss Helen Hertz, 19 year old daughter of John D. Hertz, sportsman and retired head of the Yellow Cab company. Miss Hertz was arrested on charges of driving through a stop light and assault with a deadly weapon. She was released on her own bond by the Evanston police magistrate. Chief of Police Freeman of that suburb said that if Miss Wilson dies he will bring a manslaughter charge and compel Miss Hertz to give an adequate bond.

Specialist Attends Girl.

Miss Wilson suffered a fracture of the pelvis, two fractured ribs and internal injuries. She was attended at the Evanston hospital by Dr. Marcus H. Hobart, who called Dr. B. C. Corbus, Chicago specialist on internal injuries, in consultation. When the blood transfusion was decided upon Dr. Hugh G. Bridegroom of Evanston was also summoned. Dr. William Cummings, an interne, was selected from several who volunteered for the transfusion and the operation was performed at 11:30 p. m.

Autos Crash in Evanston.

The crash occurred at Davis street and Judson avenue in Evanston. Miss Wilson, riding in a car driven by Chauffeur Helge Ahlstrom, was going from the home of her grandmother, Mrs. E. Crane Wilson, at 1331 Forest avenue, to the Chicago and North Western station to attend a luncheon in Chicago. She has been visiting Mrs. Wilson, who is the widow of the brother of the late Milton H. Wilson, founder of the manufacturing firm.

Miss Hertz, at the wheel, was driving south on Judson avenue, accompanied by a chauffeur. She passed through a stop signal, according to the police, to crash into the side of the other car. Both machines were overturned and Miss Wilson's car was wrecked.

Take Girl to Hospital.

Ahlstrom, who was flung clear of the car by the impact, extricated Miss Wilson from the wreckage with the help of passers-by. She was taken to the hospital by the Evanston police. Ahlstrom suffered minor bruises.

Miss Hertz, was placed under arrest and arraigned immediately before Justice of the Peace John Russ. Justice Russ set her bond at $800 cash, which she was unable to supply immediately. Later, through the intercession of State Representative Ralph Church and Chief of Police Freeman, she was released on her own bond by Police Magistrate Franklin. Her hearing was set for July 20 before Justice Russ.

Cousin of Golf Star.

Miss Hertz gave her address as Leona farms in Cary, Ill., her father's summer home. Miss Wilson made her debut last winter in north shore society, but, with her parents, has her residence in Santa Barbara. She is a cousin of Miss Virginia Wilson, a golf champion.

Mr. and Mrs. Hertz were notified of the accident at the Arlington races, which they were attending with Albert Lasker, former chairman of the United States shipping board. They left for the hospital to offer their aid to the Wilson family and Mr. Lasker went to the Evanston police station to inquire about the accident for them.

FATHER IS GIVEN 2 MONTHS TO WIN DAUGHTER'S LOVE

Richard J. Reining, 6723 North Maplewood avenue, yesterday was given two months to win the affection of his daughter, Marilyn, 5 years old, by Superior Judge Eller. If Reining is successful by September he will receive permission to take her from the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Lena Langstrom, 6404 Dorchester avenue.

The girl was taken to her grandmother's home in 1925 when her mother separated from Reining. Last February Mrs. Reining died and the husband petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus for the custody of his daughter. Reining charged that Mrs. Langstrom had brought about the separation against the wishes of her daughter. He also declared that his wife wished him to care for the daughter.

THROW BRIDEGROOM IN LAKE; HE DROWNS; TWO FRIENDS HELD

After an investigation police today arrested William Wright, 25, and James Farmer, 27, both married men with families, as the instigators of the fatal prank.

Hughes had married about a month ago, but the marriage was not announced until this week. After the serenade the party threw him in the lake. He sank and did not come up.

Several of the serenaders dived and the body was recovered. All efforts to revive him failed.

U. S. LEADER OF THEOSOPHISTS DIES IN SWEDEN

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Thursday, July 11.—(AP)—Mrs. Katherine Tingley, noted American Theosophist leader and lecturer, died this morning on the island of Visingso, where she had been under treatment while she has been ill. She was 79 years old. She was seriously injured in an automobile accident at Hanover, Germany, on May 31 and had been ill since.

Mrs. Tingley was born in Newburyport, Mass., the daughter of James P. Westcott, and married Philo B. Tingley, an inventor, in 1889. Her early womanhood was spent chiefly in New York, where on the east side she established the "Do Good Mission." She attracted the attention of William Q. Judge, leader of the Theosophical movement, in 1893, and he interested her in theosophy. At his death in 1896 it was found he had appointed her his successor as leader of the movement. She thereupon went around the world on a tour of organization.

She was founder of "Lomoland," at Point Loma, near San Diego, Calif., a large estate on which are situated the International Theosophical headquarters and the Rajah Yoga college, and Theosophical university.

Mexican University Freed of Government Control

MEXICO CITY, July 10.—(AP)—President Emilio Portes Gil today issued a decree making the national university an autonomous institution, free from government control and to be managed by a mixed committee of teachers, students and graduates. The measure will become effective within a day or so and probably will mark the end of the seven week students' strike.

Dense fog was encountered from 3:15 to 4:30 p. m., Greenwich mean time [11:15 to 12:30 New York time]. We are flying at 300 to 700 meters [975 feet to 2,250 feet], at a speed of 150 kilometers [about 94 miles] an hour. We have just sighted ice fields.

Pursued by Bad Weather.

New York, July 10.—[Special.]—Capt. Ahrenberg and his two companions started from Sweden on June 9 to blaze an air mail and commercial route across Iceland and Greenland between North America and Europe. From the beginning their expedition was dogged by bad weather and some bad luck but they kept on.

Leaving the Scandinavian peninsula at Bergen, Norway, their Junkers seaplane ran into rain and head winds forcing them to land in the sea short of their Iceland objective but fortunately close in shore. After replenishing their fuel supply they proceeded to Reykjavik and on June 11 they tried three times to get away and were forced each time to return to the waters of the harbor.

Ahrenberg, however, was not discouraged by these misadventures and at once set to work to get ready for another start, with his precious mail and express load for the United States.

Capt. Ahrenberg's flight was planned to demonstrate the usefulness of a northern air route between North America and Europe. His plane is accredited as a mail carrier by the Swedish postoffice and he expects to carry mail bound for Sweden on a return flight from New York.

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, July 10.—Capt. Lewis A. Yancey and Roger Q. Williams, piloting the trans-Atlantic Bellanca monoplane Pathfinder, dropped out of the darkening skies to Littorio field at 9:45 this evening (3:45 p. m. Chicago daylight saving time). The reached the Eternal City 56 hours after their hop from Old Orchard, Me., yesterday morning. They are estimated to have flown about 4,700 miles. They completed the 500 mile hop to Rome from Santander, Spain, where they were forced down last night when they ran short of gasoline, in 10 hours 25 minutes.

"Hello, every one! How are you?" cried Williams as the Italian mechanics tore open the door of the cockpit and dragged out the two pilots, frantically sounding the Fascist yell, "Alala!" and hoisting the two Americans on their shoulders.

Flyers Fresh and Happy.

The setting for their arrival was dramatic, and if the pilots did miss their coveted goal of reaching Rome from the United States in a single hop, they nevertheless won the distinction of having made Premier Mussolini wait for them an hour and a half.

Only a scanty crowd began to gather at Littorio field at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The Pathfinder was expected to arrive about 7. Mechanics had prepared big flares at all corners of the field, which when lighted up at nightfall gave the field the appearance of a series of small volcanoes. Toward 7 o'clock a loud speaker announced that the flyers had been sighted over Pisa and were expected to reach Rome in an hour. Shortly afterward it announced that the flyers were over Civitia Vecchia, which is only a half hour's flying distance from Rome.

Try to Conceal Duce's Arrival.

As it turned out, neither of these reports proved accurate and were a blind for concealing the arrival of the Duce. Several companies of soldiers took up positions all around the field towards 7 o'clock and at the sight of the elaborate arrangements rumors ran through the crowd that Premier Mussolini would be present.

Premier Mussolini, wearing an ice cream suit and straw hat, stopped his car before the hangars to the east of the field at about 8 o'clock and for an hour and a half stood chatting with Italian and American officials while more people began to arrive and police had difficulty in crowding them back from the circle which was formed around the Duce. As no sight of the flyers was had and evening grew on, officials grew restless, for it was an unprecedented event for Premier Mussolini to wait so long. For a time it was figured that the Pathfinder might have decided to land at Centocelle field.

Gen. Italo Balbo, undersecretary for aviation, who was in the group around the Duce, shortly after 9 o'clock, said to the premier, "You see, the Americans are making even you wait."

"I am sorry, I can wait only five minutes longer," replied the Duce, and at the end of that period he got into his closed car and left the field. Hardly had he left when the whirr of a motor was heard in the skies and an instant later the big monoplane was seen in the path of a big searchlight.

The Pathfinder, flying at an altitude of 900 feet, swept southward over Rome, then returned and circled the field a couple times and glided down along the beam of light.

A frantic quarter of an hour followed the landing, during which the crowds tried to grab anything they could from Williams and Capt. Yancey as souvenirs. One man seized several papers sticking out of Capt.

Yancey's overalls pockets. The soldiers were unable to hold back the crowds, which swept around the plane. In the swirling jam Gen. Balbo managed to force his way to Williams, who shook hands with Premier Mussolini's representative from the shoulders of half a dozen admirers.

"Fine Boys, Welcome to Rome."

"You are fine boys. We are glad to welcome you to Rome," said Gen. Balbo.

"All right," replied Williams. "How are you?"

Shortly afterwards Commander Patrick N. L. Bellinger, naval air attaché of the American embassy, who was a member of the N-C-4 flight across the Atlantic 11 years ago, congratulated them.

While Williams and Yancey were being dragged on shoulders through the crowd to a waiting automobile, Williams, shouting above the din, told some details of the flight.

"I am sorry we couldn't make Rome sooner. But the wind was unfavorable on the hop from Santander, especially the last part of the trip. From Corsica to Rome we only saw one island and when we really got a sight of Rome, we were not sure it was Rome. From Corsica on we went at a speed of only 20 miles an hour for quite a while."

Avoid Mountain Range.

"We were delayed somewhat in arriving here because we decided to fly north of the Pyrenees over France, and then swing down across the Tyrrhenian sea, rather than cross south of the Pyrenees.

"Tonight's arrangements here for our landing were perfectly handled. No, we are not tired a bit and are very happy to be here. We really wanted to leave last night from Spain, but were compelled to wait longer for refuelling."

After the police had cleared the way through the crowds, Capt. Yancey and his companion got into an automobile with Alexander C. Kirk, first secretary of the American embassy, Commander Bellinger, Gen. Balbo and other Italian and American officials, and were taken to a brief reception.

May See Mussolini Today.

Among those who crowded around the aviators were Prince Boncompagni, governor of Rome; Michele Bianco, undersecretary of the interior; Commander Francisco De Pinedo, the famous Italian aviator, and Secretary Giunta, as well as Maj. James L. Collins, secretary of the American embassy; Maj. William Shipp, U. S. military attaché; and Commander W. H. Sholes, air attaché; Consul General Leon Dominian, and Consul F. C. Gowen.

Following the reception the aviators were taken back to the automobile and rushed to the Hotel Excelsior, where they will be guests of the Italian government. They probably will see Premier Mussolini tomorrow evening.

"Sure, you fellows come right on in," said Williams to newspapermen. He seemed in excellent spirits.

The flyers said that despite the fatigue of the trip they made the entire flight almost dry, only resorting to one small glass out of a quart of home-made whisky they had on board.

"It's Good to Be in Rome."

"Well, it's good to be in Rome after having tried to get there for the last two years," said Williams, and Yancey remarked he would have tried until he was 75 years old if he had not made it this time. Commander Bellinger will have charge of the aviators' arrangements during their sojourn here.

The first message received by the flyers was a cable from A. R. Martin of the Aero Club of America, arranging that the flyers have privileges of membership in the Italian Aero club while here.

Perfect Takeoff From Spain.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SANTANDER, Spain, July 10.—Capt. Lewis A. Yancey and Roger Q. Williams took off in the Pathfinder from Albericia beach at 11:20 a. m. (about 5:20 a. m. Chicago time).

A crowd of more than 5,000 people was present at the seaside to cheer the Bellanca monoplane as it rushed over the smooth sands and took the air easily. The weather was clear and the crowd was able to see the plane for a quarter of an hour after it took off as it sped above the low mountains that line the coast.

A small leak in the feed-pipe was easily repaired this morning, and the flyers experienced no trouble in securing a sufficient quantity of high grade gasoline to insure their reaching Rome.

BATTLE TO SAVE BOWLER FROM ICE CRUSH IN ARCTIC

Plane Nearly Dashed on Rocks by Rough Weather

BY ROBERT WOOD.

[Copyright: 1929: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PORT BURWELL, Ungava, July 10.—[Via Louisburg Radio N. S.]—The battle to save the 'Untin' Bowler from the ice and tide continued today while the crew awaited good weather for the first long water hop from here across Davis strait to Mount Evans, Greenland. Several times it appeared certain that the ship would be dashed to pieces on the crags.

Flying was impossible today. Weather reports showed that rainy, overcast skies and poor visibility prevailed over the route to the north along the coast of Baffin Land and across Davis strait in the path of the Bowler. Yesterday's sunshine lasted only eight hours. Last night the barometer dropped suddenly, a drizzling rain set in and a heavy arctic fog drifted in across Hudson strait, lowering over the snow capped hills.

Eskimos Haul Fuel to Plane.

All day long an endless line of Eskimos swung across the mountain which stands between the harbor where the fuel is stored and the fjord where the Bowler is anchored. Each native bore ten gallons of gasoline on his back.

It was a rough and hard climb up a steep cliff across the jagged mountain, up and down another precipice to the shore of the fjord, but the little brown men went about their task cheerily. Chesley Ford, factor of the Hudson's Bay post here, will give them each a portion of tobacco for their trouble and they will be well satisfied. Money is unknown to the Eskimos.

Fight Off Icebergs.

The work of fueling the Bowler has to be suspended frequently to fight the icebergs and to keep the big amphibion pushed off the rocks. Last night the ice pack wormed in a circle around the ship, preventing it from going out with the tide.

Bob Gast and Shorty Cramer let down the plane's retractable wheels. Eskimos piled rocks on its long nose and pushed ice cakes under its tail to keep it from slipping tail first into the water. For two hours it hung perilously in this position until the tide came in, broke the ice up and set the ship afloat at midnight. It appeared that one wing would be hung over a bowlder as the tide receded. Gast directed that the ship be cut loose from its mooring, jumped into the cockpit, started its motors and taxied into midstream. He dodged the icebergs and moved out to sea. Off shore a wind came up and the Bowler rode safely at the end of its mooring throughout the rest of the night.

Ready for Hop Early Today.

Tonight 600 gallons of fuel were aboard the plane and ready for the takeoff tomorrow. With favorable weather we will leave early for the 700 mile flight. The course from here will be over the Button islands across a 50 mile stretch of water to Resolution island and along the coast of Baffin island to Cape Walsingham.

There the course turns eastward across more than 200 miles of water to Greenland. In Greenland we will land at the end of a long fjord that leads up from the sea to Mount Evans. We hope to find clear water at the end of it where the Bowler may be safe from the crashing icebergs.

(In the fjord at Mount Evans the crew of the 'Untin' Bowler is assured of an excellent mooring place, according to William S. Carlson of Prof. Hobbs' Greenland weather observatory there, who is acting as adviser here on Greenland conditions. The ice never reaches the upper end of the fjord, Mr. Carlson said, and the water always is clear and calm.)

FEW SHIPS IN PATH.

New York, July 10.—[Special.]—When the 'Untin' Bowler starts flirting with icebergs on its hop to Greenland from Port Burwell, ships in its path will be as scarce as Eskimos in Chicago.

"There may be two or three vessels around the southern tip of Greenland at this season," said a representative of Lloyds shipping register here this afternoon, "but we never hear from them in America.

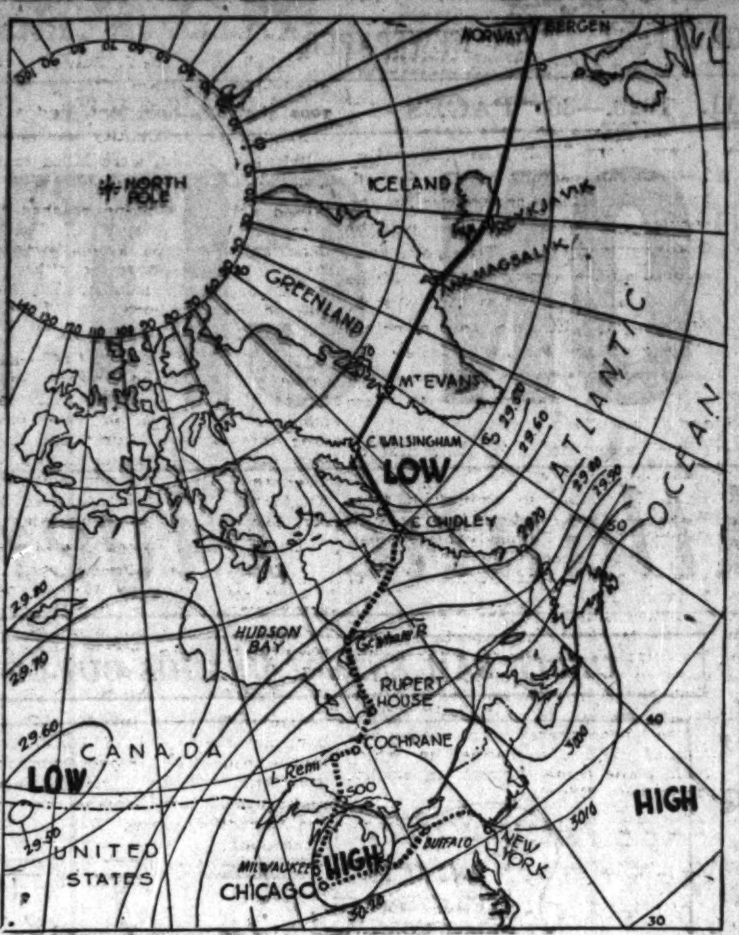
"We have not had a Greenland bound ship listed this year," declared one of the editors of the New York Maritime Register, which lists the sailing vessels of the world every Wednesday. "Information concerning the trawlers and fishing boats in that part of the world does not get to New York."

Nevertheless, there are at least two steam vessels either headed for or somewhere in the vicinity of Greenland right now. One is the Hobby, which flies the Norwegian flag and is own by J. Austad. It plies the northern seas carrying supplies to remote trading stations.

The second vessel is the schooner Bowdoin, the McMillan expedition ship which sailed from Wiscasset, Me., and arrived in Battle Harbor July 8. Word of the Bowler's flight was transmitted to the Bowdoin, now en route to Baffin Land, by radio operators at Battle Harbor, Labrador. Mr. McMillan was requested to have his operator watch for THE TRIBUNE plane's signals en route, and to communicate direct with Chicago any messages intercepted.

Once past the Faroe islands, the Bowler will be flying over British, Norwegian, Danish, and Swedish steamers and trawlers all the way from the Shetland islands to the coast of Norway.

Flight Possible Today, Is Forecast



The official United States weather bureau forecast map, showing the present location of the 'Untin' Bowler at Port Burwell. The barometric depression, which had centered at Port Burwell, advanced eastward, and the center yesterday apparently was over the southern portion of Davis strait. The forecast states it is likely visibility conditions at Burwell will be improved by this morning so that a takeoff for Mount Evans via Baffin island will be possible. However, unfavorable weather may be encountered near Greenland. Between Greenland and Iceland flying conditions will be unfavorable today.

Poverty Stricken Farmers of Schleswig Toss Bomb

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, July 10.—Unable to get relief for which they are clamoring and driven to despair by poverty, the farmers of Schleswig-Holstein threw a time fuse bomb into the house of the governor of the district of Niebull near Kiel, smashing the walls. The son of Gen. von Buelow, who marched through the village with a group of "steel helmet" men, was attacked by communists.

TAKE NO CHANCE, 'UNTIN' BOWLER FLYERS ORDERED

Told to Wait Until the Weather Clears.

The slow, sure policy of proceeding on their way only when the conditions favor them was called again yesterday to the attention of the three members of the crew of the Berlin bound TRIBUNE plane, 'Untin' Bowler, fogbound at Port Burwell, Labrador.

From them came a message stating that weather conditions were extremely poor, but that the ship and crew were ready and would continue at the earliest opportunity. In reply THE TRIBUNE notified Pilot Robert Gast as fololws:

"Wait for Clear Weather."

"Wait for clear weather. Haste is no object on this trip. It is indispensable to get through safely in order to show the practicability of the route. It is only less important to have good visibility to establish the location of landmarks for those who will follow you."

Messages of the same tenor have been broadcast daily since the trip began. All the laps, with the exception of the short one from the shore of Ungava, were started with fairly good conditions prevailing. When things grew worse, Gast, Co-pilot Cramer and Robert Wood, their reporter, followed orders by choosing and landing on the nearest available places of safety.

Visibility Grows Better.

The low barometer reading of 29.18 at Port Burwell had changed to 29.42 last evening. The night flying weather forecast, issued by C. A. Donnel, junior meteorologist of the weather bureau at Chicago, indicated conditions there might be much improved today. Visibility probably will be better, it was stated, for the takeoff. Near Greenland, unless the depression moves rapidly, it was feared the flyers might meet unfavorable weather. The center of depression was apparently over Davis straits, which must be crosed to reach Mount Evans.

Aviation Notes

Curtiss Flying Service yesterday accepted delivery of a new Sikorsky amphibion, a plane of the same type as the 'Untin' Bowler, TRIBUNE ship now en route to Berlin. This is the second Sikorsky to be operated by the Curtiss company, and was allotted to the Chicago branch following a survey of the local flying activities of the concern. More planes are to be placed in service by Curtiss in the near future, according to Casey Jones, president.

Work will start within the next thirty days on $1,500,000 worth of new buildings and hangars at the new 500 acre St. Louis air terminal. The most expensive drainage equipment at any field in the world is being installed.

Boeing Air Transport, Inc., yesterday announced plans for a thirty hour transcontinental air and passenger service to be inaugurated shortly. The planes will fly day and night over a fully lighted route.

The Mahoney-Ryan Aircraft corporation, manufacturers of Col. Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis, has been renamed the Ryan Aircraft company following its acquisition by the Detroit Aircraft corporation. Edward S. Evans, president, and Lieut. James Work, vice president, are the Ryan company's new officials.

A fleet of twelve eighteen passenger tri-motored planes will operate over a new twenty hour Boeing passenger route between Chicago and San Francisco, according to an announcement yesterday. The route will be flown continuously night and day.

FOG THREATENS TO END WORLD'S LONGEST FLIGHT

BULLETIN.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 10.—(Special.)—At 11:15 o'clock tonight the endurance plane Angeleno had been in the air 207 hours and 45 minutes. The motor was running smoothly.

Culver City, Cal., July 10.—[U. P.]—The record breaking plane Angeleno at 7:30 tonight entered its 205th hour in the air with low hanging fog threatening to force it to land.

Loren Mendell and R. M. "Pete" Reinhart, who passed all former endurance records at 2:30:29 p. m. yesterday, were forcing the Angeleno through the heavy fog blanket, which hung within 900 feet of the earth.

The Angeleno took on 85 gallons of gasoline at 7:30—the final refueling for the night.

The supply pilot said Mendell appeared weary as he handled the hose for the refueling and that he dropped a sack of food that was lowered after the gasoline had been transferred. The bag fell into the cockpit of the endurance plane and was recovered.

Nearly Down at 5:30.

Lack of gasoline threatened to end the flight summarily shortly before [illegible] p. m. Mendell and Reinhart signaled desperate for fuel. The plane's tanks were nearly dry when the supply plane made contact.

At 1:30 p. m., when they passed the 200 hour mark, the two Californians, self-styled "tough hombres," circled their Buhl biplane over the airport and acknowledged the cheers of a great crowd.

The aviators then dropped a note which read:

"If the crowd down there is waiting for us to land it might as well go home and come back next Tuesday. We'll be glad to see everybody, but not for a hundred hours more at the very least."

The aviators also reported one of their plane's doors had blown aff and asked that another be sent up to them.

Beat Record Tuesday.

Mendell and Reinhart, who became the new endurance champions of the world at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, when they exceeded by an hour the mark of Byron Newcomb and Roy Mitchell at Cleveland, put in a lazy day in the air. They refueled early, then cruised slowly about their base in wide circles.

A. E. McManus, who with William G. McAdoo Jr. backed the flyers, said he was convinced the Angeleno would add many hours to the Cleveland record, which was bettered by 26 hours when the plane passed the 200 hour mark.

A verdict of accidental death was returned yesterday at an inquest into the death of Miss Margaret Hofer, 51 years old, who was killed on Tuesday in a fall from the second floor window of her home at [illegible] Jackson boulevard.

COL. H. H. ROGERS, MILLICENT'S FATHER, AND WIFE DIVORCED

New York, July 10.—[Special.]—Word was received here today that Col. Henry Huddleston Rogers and Mrs. Rogers were divorced in Utrecht, The Netherlands, on June 26, last.

Friends here tonight said they "undestood it was true." Official confirmation of the divorce is said to have been given out in Holland.

Rumors of a divorce in the Rogers family have been current for more than a year, and late in May it was reported Mrs. Rogers had established a residence in Paris for the purpose of petitioning the French courts for a decree.

Col. Rogers has spent much of the last two years on the continent. He did not return to the United States last winter for the wedding of his son, Henry H. Rogers Jr.

Col. and Mrs. Rogers are father and mother of Mrs. Arturo Ramos, whose marriage as Millicent Rogers to Count Ludwig Salm Von Hoogstraeten in January, 1924, was a social sensation. The couple was divorced later and Countess Salm married Mr. Ramos of the Argentine.

SOUTHERN CROSS REACHES LONDON; SETS A RECORD

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—King George tonight sent congratulations to four airmen, led by Capt. Charles Kingsford-Smith, who this afternoon landed the plane Southern Cross at Croyden airfield after a record breaking 12,000 mile journey from Australia.

The elapsed time of the trip from the Australian coast to the English coast was 12 days 21 hours and 13 minutes. Forty-five minutes more were required for the machine to reach Croyden. The best previous mark for the journey was the 15 days 1 hour and 7 minutes from the Australian coast to Croyden, established by Bert Hinkler in February, 1928.

There was a wild scene of welcome when the plane touched ground at Croyden. Women raced with men across the airdrome to meet the flyers and cheer them to the echo.

"We had a lot of minor troubles," said Capt. Kingsford-Smith, "but it was a good trip taken all around. Between Rangoon and Bagdad the heat was terrific, forcing us to cut down the number of revolutions at which our motor was running. Because of this we were unable to carry as much petrol as we would have liked."

JAYWALK LAW IS REPEALED BY COUNCIL VOTE

Chicago Too Busy for It, Aldermen Decide.

The city council yesterday repealed the jaywalking ordinance, which was designed to regulate pedestrian traffic. The action, without a dissenting vote, was on recommendation of the committee on traffic regulation and public safety, headed by Ald. Thomas J. Bowler [41st].

The ordinance was passed two years ago. The first efforts to enforce the measure were started a month ago by Police Commissioner Russell. The enforcement was not popular, according to the aldermen, and they concluded that an unpopular law should be repealed.

"Chicagoans Too Busy."

"Chicagoans are too busy to be held on street corners, waiting for the lights to change from red to green," said Ald. Bowler. "Pedestrian control may work satisfactorily in other cities, but Chicagoans are in too big a hurry to tolerate unnecessary delay.

"The month's experiment in enforcement was not satisfactory. Maybe the automobiles moved through the loop a little faster, but this speed wasn't worth the time it cost the users of the sidewalks.

Sees No Benefit to Safety.

"Nothing is gained in safety by the pedestrian control. The police department records show that the loop is comparatively free from traffic accidents under the old system of letting pedestrians look out for themseves. With the walkers held for the green lights, both the motorists and the pedestrians are given a false sense of security that leads to mishaps at the intersections. With no regulations on the pedestrians, every one looks out for himself."

Commissioner Russell favored a continuation of the experiment. There was no echo of his sentiment when the aldermen voted the repeal. The commissioner was not in the council chambers.

HUNT 2 GUNMEN FOR SHOOTING OF POLICEMAN

Police of the west side districts and west suburbs last night were trying to pick up the trail of two gunmen who early in the day shot and seriously wounded Policeman John Nerad of Cicero when he sought to question them. Nerad, who lives at 5403 West 25th street, Cicero, while driving with his wife, Bessie, noticed the two gunmen emerge from an alley carrying a heavy bundle.

Both the men began to shoot as Nerad sprang from his car and approached them. Three bullets struck the policeman.

The police suspect the gunmen to be a pair of bandits who shortly before the shooting held up and robbed the Altman Shoe store, 4111 Madison street, obtaining $175 in cash.

FIRST AIR-RAIL LINE PASSENGERS CROSS NATION IN 46 HOURS

New York, July 10.—[Special]—Two air-rail passengers, the first to travel east from Los Angeles on the regular scheduled service of the Transcontinental Air Transport, Inc., stepped off the Airways Limited of the Pennsylvania railroad at 10:35 o'clock, Eastern daylight time, this morning.

Although the service is called "48 hours from coast to coast," the initial eastbound trip was made in 45 hours and 50 minutes.

The passengers who came first by plane, then by Santa Fe train, and again by plane to Columbus from Waynoka, Okla., and the last leg from Columbus on a Pennsylvania sleeper, were Albert Hichen, Los Angeles insurance broker, and Turner Wills of Netcong, N. J.

Hichen sailed tonight for England on the Majestic and expects to make the complete journey from the Pacific coast to Great Britain in eight days, probably a record for regular passenger travel.

The passengers were especially pleased with the manner in which their plane came through an electric storm over Illinois.

FREE JACK WHITE, ONCE CONVICTED IN POLICE KILLING

William J. [Three Fingered Jack] White, whom the police from time to time have charged with many robberies, was finally freed yesterday of a charge of murdering Policeman Edward Pflaume of Forest Park. The policeman was killed on Dec. 13, 1925, when he tried to question White and a companion, in a Forest Park roadhouse.

White was convicted by a jury and was sentenced to life imprisonment. After reviewing the case for two years the Supreme court recently entered a reversal order, and indicated that White committed manslaughter if he was guilty of any crime at all.

"In view of the Supreme court decision it would be useless for the state to go through the motions of another trial," said Assistant State's Attorney Charles J. Dougherty. He had an order entered in Judge Jacob Hopkins' court striking the case from the dockets.

FIND NEW COURT BUILDING LACKS ADEQUATE HEAT

Council Votes $164,000 for Addition to Plant.

The new Criminal Court building lacks adequate heating facilities. This was revealed yesterday when the city council appropriated $164,000 to correct the deficiency and prevent the closing of the institution when cool weather arrives.

Members of the county board appeared before the council finance committee to urge the appropriation to make necessary additions to the municipal heating plant at 29th street and Sacramento avenue, which supplies the heat in accordance with a contract between the city and county. An appropriation of $160,000 for the same purpose had been made by the committee in the 1929 budget.

To supply the heating requirement the aldermen feared they would have to dip into the $12,000,000 to be obtained from the sale of water certificates which was authorized by the council. In this they were forestalled at first by an opinion from the controller's office, but surmounted that difficulty by the transfer of money from other water funds.

"It would take a year to construct a new plant to furnish the heat," said County Commissioner Boutell. "The only alternative is to make the necessary additions to the municipal plant. If this committee doesn't act we will have to return to the old building as the new one couldn't be used. You have $400,000 tied up in the additions now which will be a total loss unless you finish the work."

Commissioner Boutell referred to the cost of the tunnel which was built to carry the steam heat from the municipal plant to the court building. With the $324,000 to be invested in additions and the $300,000 cost of the old heating apparatus the total investment of the city will be $1,024,000, the committee was informed.

Would Be Forced to Close.

"This is an emergency matter," pleaded Commissioner Harry A. Newby, when the aldermen indicated that they would take the proposal under advisement. "The county board thought that everything was all right until this cropped up. We find now that the building will have to be closed within sixty days unless this committee makes an appropriation for the additional facilities."

Complaints of the ventilation, the height of the judges' benches, the seating arrangements and the lack of cuspidors were made when the court building was opened several months ago.

ALDERMEN LASH BANKERS; VETO $40,000,000 LOAN

Last April representatives of the syndicate of banks including the First National, Continental Illinois and Foreman's, saying they were loaded up with "frozen" warrants, announced they would buy no more except on their own terms. Subsequently, the city sold to them $30,000,000 of warrants and the school board sold them $20,000,000, giving them as a part of the contract an option on all other school warrants for 1929.

Caldwell Goes to Syndicate.

A short time later the city sold $15,000,000 in warrants in New York and itself purchased $13,000,000 worth from the school board.

Then came the authorization by the legislature of a boost in the educational fund tax rate to $1.47 for 1929. Seeking to take advantage of this new anticipated income, President Caldwell went to the First National syndicate with the $40,000,000 issue. The syndicate refused to buy, but agreed to release its option until midnight, July 10. Mr. Caldwell then received the proposition of the Halsey-Stuart syndicate which the council last evening rejected.

As a part of the contract offered, Mr. Caldwell explained, the syndicate demanded that the council pass an ordinance designating the Central Trust company as depository and agreeing to the 2 per cent interest payment.

Makes Plea for Approval.

Mr. Caldwell appeared before the council finance committee with the ordinance on Tuesday, again yesterday, and finally last night before the council itself with a plea for its acceptance.

"This is not a good bargain," he said. "We admit that. But beggars cannot be choosers. We must take what we can get.

"We have $8,000,000 worth of debts outstanding and contracting concerns are literally going into bankruptcy because we cannot pay them. In the educational fund we have only enough money to meet the Sept. 20 teachers' payroll but nothing for other expenses. In order to open the schools this fall we must have this money and I am convinced that the only way to get it is to accept the terms of the Halsey, Stuart syndicate."

After a debate which held up the council meeting two hours, the finance committee recommended the ordinance by a vote of 9 to 7.

The ordinance then was carried to the council session where Thompson followers made several parliamentary moves, attempting to obtain consent for immediate consideration. This was blocked and the ordinance then was introduced as new ward matter and an effort made to suspend the rules. This was defeated, then agreed to, and the final vote was taken, rejecting the plan.

Between parliamentary moves there was a running fire of discussion.

"I am warning you," declared Ald. McDonough [13th], "that we had better take our stand right now and fight it out. These bankers used to charge us 4½ per cent on tax warrants. Now they charge 6 per cent. It won't be long until they will be getting 8 or 9 per cent."

Calls Bankers an Oligarchy.

"These bankers are an oligarchy," shouted Ald. Govier [9th]. "On Sundays you will find them on the front pews of Lake Forest churches singing 'Lead Kindly Light' and on week days mulching the taxpayers."

Ald. James B. Bowler [25th] proposed that Albert Brunker, chairman of the Civic Safety commission, be paged to use his influence with the bankers.

"Where are Brunker and the other reformers who shout so much about the taxpayers' money during aldermanic campaigns?" he demanded. "Where are they in a crisis like this? I'll tell you. They are touring Europe."

Only two voices were raised counter to the trend of the debate, those of Ald. Eaton [5th] and Ald. Albert [43d], both of whom reminded the council that the bankers might not be so much to blame as the administration itself.

Albert Gives a Reminder.

"I am not surprised that nothing has been said about the waste and graft of the city government," Albert said. "That all is forgotten, it seems. Although I have no love for the bankers, I think it might be well not to direct all our fire at the king of England, the international bankers, and others and to direct some of it at the city hall."

On the roll call the aldermen voting for the Caldwell ordinance were: Coughlin, Anderson, Jackson, Cronson, Guernsey, Zintak, Byrne, Moran, Coyle, Pacelli, Cepak, Toman, Konkowski, Kaindl, Nusser, Taylor, Ross and Frankhauser. Opposed were Eaton, Nance, Meyering, Govier, Rowan, McDonough, Morris, Northrup, Arvey, J. B. Bowler, Sloan, Van Norman, Maypole, A. J. Horan, Clark, Smith, Rozcynialski, Seif, Ringa, T. J. Bowler, Albert, Loescher, Feigenbuth, Nelson, Hoellen, Massen, and Mellin.

Bank Quiz Vote Unanimous.

Immediately after the defeat of the ordinance, Ald. Arvey submitted his resolution calling for an investigation of "the banking situation" and it was adopted with a roar of votes, both sides agreeing unanimously.

The investigation is to be conducted by the finance committee. Chairman Clark [30th] indicated that it will start within the next few days with the summoning of representatives of the bankers to a meeting of the committee for questioning.

FARMER DOLLAR' MAKES ITS BOW TO PUBLIC PURSE

Goes Into Circulation with Little Difficulty.

About $35,000,000 of new money, already known in this region as the Farmer Dollar, went into circulation yesterday in this federal reserve district of five states with little or no trouble and a few humorous incidents. Most persons were eager to get one or more of the new smaller sized bills, and enterprising shopkeepers who had new currency to give in change profited thereby.

At the Lake Shore Trust and Savings bank tellers reported that some of their callers, unaware of the changed size of paper money, regarded suspiciously the bills tendered them, and some were of the impression they were getting cigar coupons. Workers cashing pay checks objected to receiving "short money" for a full week's work, and some demanded payment in old bills. A number of women refused to take new bills.

"Doesn't Feel Right."

Bank employés all over the city experienced difficulty in becoming acquainted with the "feel" of the new bills, their sense of touch not being accustomed to the smaller size. But at the close of banking hours it was generally reported that the strangeness had worn off and fingertips had become just as sensitive to the new bills as to the old.

At the Federal Reserve bank officials said the magnitude of the currency movement of yesterday has never been equaled in the history of this country. Railroads and express companies were complimented by government officials for the manner in which they carried out their part in the distribution of the new bills.

Moves in Armored Cars.

About 100 additional policemen were assigned to protect money shipments and armored cars were scurrying about the city all day. The State Bank of Chicago had a call for an additional supply of new bills from the State Bank of Peoria, Ill., and dispatched Vice President Gaylord S. Morse there with a bundle of it in a chartered airplane.

The new bills are issued only in denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10 and $20, at present, but those of larger amounts will make their appearance within a short time.

NEW YORK GETS ITS SHARE.

Schipa's Guest

A career in the movie world has no lure for 14 year old John Guglielmi, nephew of the late Rudolph Valentino. The boy, who passed through Chicago yesterday with his host, Tito Schipa, grand opera star, declared that he will make no effort to follow his uncle's footsteps as a movie star. He wants to be an American engineer. Young Guglielmi and Mr. Schipa, upon their arrival on the Twentieth Century from New York, were guests at the home of William Bertini, 535 North Wells street. Then Mr. Schipa inspected the new Civic Opera building.

NEW ORLEANS FEARS STRIKE BATTLE TODAY

New Orleans, July 10.—(AP)—The street car strike smouldered today while negotiators were struggling to ward off a general labor walkout.

Decisive action was promised for tomorrow by all sides. The government and civic conciliators were preparing to get down to business tomorrow around the conference tables; the New Orleans public service planned to start street cars and labor leaders were arranging an open air massmeeting to decide on the proposed sympathetic strike.

Union leaders have been successful in calling the strikers off from acts of violence against the company, but tonight expressed doubt that they would be able to hold down the men and their sympathizers if another attempt is made to operate street cars tomorrow.

Demands Damages for His Remarks Since Trial

While Ann Livingston was rehearsing her dancing preparatory to appearing in vaudeville, her attorney, Benjamin Ehrlich, yesterday filed a second suit in her behalf against Franklin Hardinge, wealthy manufacturer. The new action is the praecipe of a $200,000 slander suit and came four days after a jury in Judge Charles Miller's court had awarded her $25,000 in her famous $250,000 breach of promise suit.

Attorney Ehrlich announced that the suit is brought in answer to published statements made by Hardinge—such as a remark about her being a home-breaker—after the verdict was returned. He said that he would issue a statement today justifying the suit. A declaration enumerating the offending statements will be filed next week.

Calls Hardinge "Poor Sport."

"Mr. Hardinge and his attorney have proved themselves to be poor sports," Attorney Ehrlich said. "Since the trial Hardinge has consoled himself in making slanderous statements against my client, tending to injure her in the opportunity presented to her since the trial. Twelve men have judged her and found her to be worthy of her claim. Yet he insults her after he has lost.

"Had we lost the case, Miss Livingston and I would have been willing to shake hands and call it quits. She has never made any statement with the slightest malice against Mr. Hardinge. He and his attorney have announced that they will fight to a finish, and I intend to give them a battle.

Not "An Empty Threat."

"This slander suit is not an empty threat. We have a good case and I intend to push it. If they want a fight, they will surely get it in this case. No woman could let pass unchallenged the remarks Hardinge has made since the trial."

Mr. Hardinge said that he did not know what the suit is about. His attorney, John A. Bussian, labeled it as "a ridiculous action."

MRS. COLBY TO START DIVORCE ACTION IN RENO

Reno, Nev., July 10.—(AP)—Efforts to obtain a divorce in Paris having failed, Mrs. Nathalie Sedgwick Colby has come to Reno to file divorce papers against Bainbridge Colby, former secretary of state in the cabinet of Woodrow Wilson. The Colby decree was denied by the Paris courts in March, 1928, at which time there was considerable stir over the granting of divorces to Americans.

Summer comfort at Henrici's

¶ Henrici's is an institution of long living, and growing, traditions based upon an ideal of service which its founder originated upon a plane higher than was elsewhere known in his day.

* * *

¶ Down through more than three-score years, ever developing and widening, have come the standards of service which today distinguish Henrici's from all other restaurants so definitely that the designation "restaurant" is hardly adequate to its purpose when applied to the establishment at 67 Randolph, West.

* * *

¶ The glowing heat of summer is the severest test to which a restaurant is subjected. In the July and August days service stands or falls before the strain of temperatures that are inimical to wholesomeness of foods and evenness of tempers.

* * *

¶ The dank, appetite-dispelling scenes too common in summer operation of restaurants have never been known in Henrici's. Upon the contrary, regardless of outside temperatures, you will always find Henrici's, even in the height of the luncheon period, calm, serene, unruffled and efficient.

WITNESSES NAME LITZINGER AS PAL OF MAIL ROBBER

Partial Confession from Flannery Alleged.

Four important developments in the Litzinger-Flannery mail robbery trial before Federal Judge Lindley appeared yesterday. They were:

1. Two surprise witnesses for the government took the stand and pointed out Virgil Litzinger as an habitué of the home of Charles "Limpy" Cleaver, leader of the $133,000 Evergreen Park mail train robbery of February, 1928, both before and after the crime. They knew him, the witnesses said, as Bill Collins, Litzinger's alias at that time, according to the government.

2. Frank Meccia and Lawrence O'Brien, Leavenworth convicts who were brought back to identify Litzinger and John [Red] Flannery as their companions in the robbery, testified that the defendants on trial are not the men whom they knew as Litzinger (or Collins) and Flannery. A third convict, William Donovan, so testified on Tuesday.

3. First Assistant District Attorney Cassius Poust began the impeachment of Donovan's testimony, tending to show that Donovan several times had looked at pictures of the present defendants and said they were members of the gang.

4. Flannery, according to testimony by policemen and postoffice inspectors, made a partial confession admitting participation in the robbery.

Jury May Get Case Tomorrow.

Mr. Poust expects to close his case by noon today after calling four or five postoffice inspectors, including Chief K. P. Aldrich, to the stand. At least one of the defendants, Flannery, will take the stand in his own defense, according to his attorney, Miles J. Devine. State Senator James J. Barbour, Litzinger's counsel, was undecided whether he would call his client. The case may go to the jury tomorrow.

Meccia was the first witness yesterday morning. Like Donovan, he was positive that neither of the defendants was among the gang of eight men that stopped a Grand Trunk train at Saint Marie, a flag stop at Evergreen Park, and blasted the mail car open, threatening the passengers and train crew with guns and escaping with two mail sacks, one containing money and the other registered mail.

Surprise Witnesses Appear.

Then came the surprise witnesses. Assistant District Attorney Allen Healy called Joseph M. Lamm to the stand. Lamm said he is now a cigar salesman but that he formerly operated a poolroom at 1313 West 103d street, only a block from the Cleaver home.

He was operating the place during January and February, 1928, he said.

Q.—Do you know a man named Bill Collins? A.—Yes.

Q.—Did you ever see him at the home of Charles Cleaver? A.—Yes, many times.

Q.—Did you see him elsewhere. A.—Yes, in my billiard room on two occasions.

Q.—Do you see Bill Collins in this courtroom? A.—Yes

Q.—Is that the man? [Poust pointed to Litzinger]. A.—Yes, that's the man I knew as Bill Collins.

On cross-examination, Lamm nervously twisted in his chair, but repeated his testimony that he had seen Litzinger, or Collins, in the Cleaver home during January and February, 1928, when he had gone there to drink the Cleaver home brew. The defendant had also been in his place twice, the witness said, but was not then, as now, wearing a mustache.

To corroborate this testimony, John Ballwanz, 10234 Charles street, a former employe in the pool hall, testified that he had met Litzinger as Collins in the place. He pointed to the defendant as the man he met. The government thus laid the ground of circumstantial evidence that they hope will send Litzinger to the penitentiary for twenty-five years.

O'Brien took the stand at the beginning of the afternoon session. Called as a court's witness, like Donovan and Meccia, he was questioned at length by Judge Lindley. His testimony differed but little from that of the others, save that his answers to Poust's cross-examination questions were invariably, "I don't remember," instead of the abrupt "No" of his companions.

Attack Flannery's Defense.

Flannery's defense was attacked in the testimonv of Policeman Thomas Curtin, who captured him in the home of his sister at 6641 South Hamilton avenue in May, 1929. After charging up a barricaded stairway, Curtin said he found Flannery hiding in the attic.

"What's the use of arguing?" Flannery was quoted as saying. "You've got me. I'll take what the government gives me—they can't hang me for it anyway." This statement was corroborated by three other members of Curtin's detective bureau squad.

Thomas Rowan, the first of the postoffice inspectors the government will use as witnesses, was next called to the stand.

Rowan said that after Flannery's capture the prisoner confessed that he had been in the conspiracy, entering it three days before the robbery. It is understood Flannery will repudiate this confession on the stand.

E. J. ABEL LEAVES HIS FORTUNE TO ORPHAN ASYLUM

Will of Chemist Disposes of $500,000 Estate.

The will of the late Edward J. Abel, retired manufacturing chemist, filed yesterday before Edward S. Scheffler, assistant to Probate Judge Horner, leaves almost his entire estate of $500,000 to the Uhlich Orphan Asylum at 3730 North California avenue. Mr. Abel died on July 1 in his home at 429 Surf street, at the age of 72.

Under the will his sister, Minnie Abel, 60 years old, is to receive the income of the estate during her life. At her death $250,000 is to be given to the asylum for the construction of a building to be known as the Edward J. Abel building. The remainder of the trust is to be devoted to the upkeep of the building.

$33,000 to Other Charities.

The will includes bequests totaling $33,000 to other charities and $8,000 to cousins in Germany. The charities, which receive amounts varying from $3,000 to $5,000, are the German Old People's Home of Forest Park, the Shriners' Home for Children, the Waisenhaus-Godesheim in Germany, the Masonic Old Peoples' Home, and the Illinois Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. Orphanage.

Mr. Abel came to Chicago from St. Louis in 1885 at the age of 28. He founded the E. J. Abel company, manufacturing chemists, and retired 18 years ago. During his life he gave freely to the Uhlich Orphan Asylum. Each Christmas he gave $1,000 to be distributed among the children, and from these gifts each child in the asylum now has a bank account of more than $50.

Mrs. Eddy Divides Estate.

The will of Mrs. Clara Hall Eddy, widow of Morris Riley Eddy, also filed yesterday before Assistant Scheffler, divides her estate between her children, Oliver Hall Eddy, Augustus W. Eddy, and Mrs. Elizabeth Eddy Rowe. The estate is estimated at $500,000.

Mrs. Eddy died in her home at 1332 Forest avenue, Evanston, on May 17. She was 81 years old. She had lived in Chicago for 45 years and was a daughter-in-law of the late Rev. Augustus Eddy, pioneer Methodist minister of Chicago.

DIES OF INJURIES FROM FALL.

Oscar Nalor, 55 years old, 4542 Cottage Grove avenue, died in the county hospital yesterday of injuries suffered when he fell from the fire escape at his home on July 2.

RECORDS SEIZED

Complaints by motorists that a speed trap racket is being maintained at Wauconda in Lake county by Justice of the Peace H. C. Stedfelt and Deputy Sheriff Frank Suhadolink, resulted in the seizure of the books and records of the pair by Lake county officials last night.

Col. A. V. Smith, state's attorney, procured the records on subpœnas duces tecum following representations by Joseph H. Braun, general counsel of the Chicago Motor club. The books will be analyzed and records investigated immediately.

The situation was brought into the limelight by a complaint to Mr. Braun that a motorist had been arrested and heavily fined for driving at a rate in excess of eight miles an hour around a curve on the state highway. The complainant admitted to ten miles an hour but when the fine was levied decided that the penalty justified inquiry.

Shoots a 76
...but can't get in a club

Shoots a 76 regularly. Charming company. Nice looking. A thorough sport. Yet no one will propose him for membership in a club. You'd know the reason why if you ever got close to him. But he doesn't know!

Only those blind to facts assume they never have halitosis (unpleasant breath). Actually 1 out of 3 offends this way, surveys show. That is due to the fact that everyday conditions, such as pyorrhea, defective teeth, fermenting food particles between teeth, and minor infections of the nose and throat cause it.

Why offend others, when you can keep yourself beyond suspicion by using full strength Listerine three times a day, as a mouth wash?

Being an active germicide,* it attacks the cause of odors and then, being a powerful deodorant, destroys the odors themselves. Write for our free book of etiquette. Lambert Pharmacal Company, Dept. H 7, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

HIGHEST BRITISH PRELATES WOULD DEFY PARLIAMENT

Urge Church to Use New Prayer Book.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 10.—The question of the disestablishment of the Church of England came to a head today when the convocation of Canterbury met with no less a person than the primate of all England himself offering a resolution in favor of employing the revised prayer book in defiance of the former parliament's refusal to approve the new book last year. Fuel was added to the flames when the second most important church dignitary, William Temple, archbishop of York, seconded the stand taken by Cosmo Gordon Lang, archbishop of Canterbury, at a meeting of the York synod today.

"We are, all of us, more or less lawbreakers," the archbishop of York said in referring to deviations of services as contained in the revised prayer book of 1928. Calling the refusal of parliament to accept the new book a refusal to act rather than a prohibition to employ it, the archbishop said "there is sometimes a spiritual necessity to go beyond legal limits."

Calls Deviations Loyal.

The resolution offered by the archbishop of Canterbury points out the fact that the national assembly of the Church of England approved the revised prayer book, therefore the convocation "cannot regard as inconsistent with loyalty to the principles of the Church of England the use of such additions or deviations" from the old book permitted by the new book.

"For the same reason they must regard as inconsistent with such loyalty the use of any other deviations from or additions to the forms and orders contained in the book of 1622."

The defiance to parliament is expressed in the clause reading, "Bishops in the exercise of their legal or administrative discretion will be guided by the proposals set forth in the book of 1928, and any endeavor to secure practices which are not consistent either with the book of 1662 or the book of 1928 shall cease."

The blow was softened somewhat by the statement which says that "bishops in the exercise of their authority may only sanction the ordinary use of any forms or orders contained in the book of 1928 if they are satisfied that such use would have the good will of the people represented in the parochial church council."

The fact remains, however, that the intent of the resolution is to set up the revised prayer book as standard, although parliament twice failed to approve it.

Church and State May Part.

That this means a virtual, if tacit, disestablishment, unless parliamentary attitude changes, is implied in the archbishop of York's comments on the primate's resolution. Although insisting there was no defiance to parliament intended, he said, "It is most necessary that we recover the reign of law in the church.

"Some whose judgment is entitled to most serious consideration urge us to regard the adverse vote in the house of commons as one of the dividing watersheds of history and regard the anomalies of establishment as now so serious as to require us to ask the state for freedom, which, it is held, only disestablishment can secure. To say we may come to that I fully recognize."

ALABAMA NEWSPAPER DENIES DE PRIEST'S STORY OF LYNCHINGS

Florence, Ala., July 10.—(AP)—The Florence Times-News today published a series of interviews with pioneer residents of Lauderdale county which it contends refuted charges recently made in Cleveland, Ohio, by Oscar De Priest, Negro congressman from Chicago, that he witnessed the lynching of three Negroes in Florence shortly before oppression by white persons forced the removal of his parents to Kansas.

J. J. Mitchell, former probate judge of Lauderdale county, said three white robbers were lynched near Florence in 1872, six years before the date De Priest said his family removed to Kansas. C. H. Price, superintendent of the municipal sanitary department, said only one Negro had been lynched in Lauderdale county. Price identified the victim as George Ware, who killed a white youth for robbery. The date of the lynching was fixed by Price as the year after the De Priest family left Alabama.

Mrs. T. B. Ingram, daughter of a former owner of Congressman De Priest's mother while she was a slave, declared the De Priest family was well liked and denied they ever had been persecuted. She did not recall the lynching of any Negroes while the De Priests lived here.

U. S. MAY SEND EDGE TO PARIS, WILLYS TO ROME

Many Seek Appointment to Diplomatic Posts.

Washington, D. C., July 10.—[Special.]—President Hoover is experiencing no difficulty in finding candidates for appointment to the American diplomatic service abroad. Inquiry at the White House today disclosed that scores of names of applicants for the liminted number of diplomatic posts to be filled this year have been received in the last few weeks.

Five diplomatic appointments are to be announced within the near future.

Indications at the White House are that the new ambassadors to Rome, Madrid, and Tokio will be the first named. It is possible the French post also will be filled during the summer congressional recess.

John N. Willys, Toledo, O., automobile manufacturer, has been urged by Ohio senators for either the French or Italian ambassadorship. Should Mr. Willys be appointed, it is considered certain he would be sent to Rome. Senator Walter E. Edge [Rep., N. J.] is considered certain to go to Paris, although no definite announcement to this effect has been forthcoming.

President Hoover is giving close consideration to the appointment of a successor to Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt, retired assistant attorney general in charge of dry law prosecutions.

Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the W. C. T. U., called on Mr. Hoover today and it is understood the department of justice appointment was one of the subjects discussed.

JULIAN ELTINGE HURT WHEN AUTO CRASHES INTO A POLICE CAR

Los Angeles, Cal., July 10.—(AP)—Julian H. Eltinge, 46, famous female impersonater, and three others were injured today in a collision of their automobile with a car of the police traffic squad. Besides Eltinge those injured were Mitchell Harris, 40, an actor; Mrs. Lenore Casanova, 25, screen actress, and Mrs. Belle Spottswell, 25, stage actress.

Eltinge was the most seriously hurt, suffering a slight concussion of the brain, severe scalp lacerations, and body cuts and bruises. Both automobiles were wrecked. A woman in the police car, Miss Margaret Baxter, 23, was bruised.

H. B. Rich, driver of the police car, declared the Eltinge automobile was traveling at a high rate of speed.

40 INJURED IN DERAILMENT OF PULLMAN CARS

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 10.—(AP)—Forty or more persons were injured, fourteen of them seriously, by the derailment of five cars on the East Florida-New York passenger train No. 84 of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad near Enfield, N. C., today.

A truck under the dining car broke, W. B. Darrow, superintendent of transportation for the Rocky Mount division, said, causing the rear end of the diner to leave the rails. Five Pullman cars were dragged over the ties for 75 yards and then overturned into a swamp, down a six-foot embankment.

ALDERMEN WORRY NO LONGER ABOUT WHAT YOU WEAR AT BEACH

The city council yesterday relinquished its supervision of the length of limb and amount of chest that can be exposed lawfully to the sun's rays on the beaches. It repealed the antiquated bathing suit ordinance and left censorship to the discretion of the police. The conventional ideas of men and women bathers are expected to keep the bathing suits within proportions which will not offend spectators.

Ald. Rowan [10th], in charge of the council's effort to revise the old code to conform with modern dress customs, sponsored the repeal ordinance. He described the provisions of the old ordinance as obsolete and practically unenforceable as the attire prescribed was "popular in the days of the World's Columbian exposition."

SEVEN DIE AS NEW YORK HEAT WAVE CLINGS ON

New York, July 10.—(AP)—The death toll from heat along the Atlantic seaboard mounted today as the mercury continued to cling to the high figures of the thermometer.

New York, like other cities caught in the wave, reported scores of prostrations, and seven deaths in the metropolitan area were laid to the heat.

Twenty persons were overcome while walking in the streets. Four men collapsed at work and died before medical aid could reach them.

The mercury reached its peak at 3 p. m. when it touched 86, nine degrees under the record for July 10, set in 1911. The average heat for the day is 76.

Another death was reported in Wilmington, Del. The mercury went past 90 in Washington, Philadelphia, and Baltimore. The forecaster promised cooler weather tonight.

DAWES, GIBSON CONFER AGAIN ON NAVY CUT PARLEY

British Labor to Curtail Tory Naval Program.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 10.—Ambassador Dawes and Hugh Gibson, American ambassador to Belgium, who arrived in London last night, spent the whole of today discussing the subject of the naval disarmament problem. Ambassador Gibson did not call on any of the British ministers and according to present arrangements will leave London Thursday morning.

Diplomatic circles here did not expect any further announcement from Washington for sometime yet regarding the progress of the naval convention, but Prime Minister MacDonald may make a statement in the house of commons within the next few days.

Labor May Cut Naval Program.

It was stated in political circles tonight that the Labor government had decided to carry out severe cuts in the naval program of the last conservative government. It is understood that the prime minister will make an early statement concerning the matter and will announce the decision not to continue with construction of the proposed six submarines, while construction of the parent ships will also be dropped.

Although the decision will mean unemployment of many dockyard workers, the view is taken that the value of the move as a gesture in international affairs and the promotion of peace will make the sacrifice worth while.

France Agrees to Conference.

It is understood the French note concerning the reparations conference reached the foreign office in London today and immediately occupied the attention of the cabinet ministers and departmental experts. A reply will probably be dispatched tomorrow night. It is understood the French reply expressed satisfaction with the agreed date of the meeting, Aug. 5 or 6, and then proceeded to express, with guarded acquiescence of the British view that there should not be three conferences but only one, at which all political as well as financial economic issues could be dealt with simultaneously by the ministers and experts. The French government, however, still objects to London as the place for the conference and this point is still in dispute.

NAVAL RESERVES TO 'ATTACK' FORT SHERIDAN TODAY

Final preparations were made yesterday for the holding today of the joint army-navy maneuvers between forces of naval reserves and army units at Fort Sheridan. When the navy's training ships on the Great Lakes "attacks" Fort Sheridan, they will carry officers of not only the Illinois naval reserve, but of the entire ninth district naval reserve.

The ships, before going into attack, will sail down the lake and, in naval terms, counter march under fire. The artillery defense from the shore at Fort Sheridan, the gunfire from the training ships Wilmette, Paducah, Dubuque and Hawk, the launching of whale boats and motor boats from the ships and the landing of naval forces will be among the features of the maneuvers.

Britain and Canada Plan Fight on U. S. Tariffs

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

OTTAWA, Ont., July 10.—Canada is now exchanging communications with Great Britain for the convocation of an empire economic conference to be held in Canada. The conference will discuss ways and means of building up free trade with the empire. It is said that in some measure this will be Canada's answer to the United States for her projected tariff increases against Canada.

VALUE PRODUCTS OF CHICAGO FACTORIES AT THREE BILLIONS

Chicago factories produced goods valued at $3,478,753,623 during the year 1927, a gain of $39,590,237 over the 1925 figures and $190,749,211 over 1923. This was announced yesterday by officials of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, the information having been compiled originally by the United States department of commerce.

Yesterday's announcement, covering only the territory within the city of Chicago, came as a sequel to figures released last Sunday by the manufacturers' organization showing large increases in the value of manufactures over the entire state of Illinois between 1923 and 1927, these gains raising Illinois to third place as a manufacturing state. New York still holds first place and Pennsylvania second.

In addition to the figures for Chicago proper, estimates of the value of products during 1927 for the counties of Cook, Lake, McHenry, Boone, Winnebago, Kane, Will, and Du Page in Illinois and Lake in Indiana were announced. These figures follow:

County	Output
Lake ..	67,457,566	Will ..	88,947,528
McH'y .	5,560,563	Du P..	13,888,620
Boone.	6,352,660	Lake [Ind.]	684,059,858
Winnebago	94,168,833

The number of Chicago's industries has increased 9.2 per cent since 1925.

Many Lives Reported Lost as Persian River Overflows

Support of Nationalists Assures Aug. 1 Signing.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, July 10.—On the very eve of the ticklish chamber debates on ratification of the American and British debt accords, Premier Poincaré secured a signal victory today, when the ultra-nationalist group—which is the strongest opposition to ratification in any form—refused to delegate Louis Marin, hereofore their leader, as their representative in the chamber discussions.

The flat refusal of the nationalists to bank on the traditional foe of ratification means that the party has decided in the last minute to support Premier Poincaré in his fight to persuade the chamber that France has to sign on the dotted line before Aug. 1. Thus the greatest obstacle to ratification is removed, and the premier is assured of obtaining a healthy majority.

Ratification Prospects Good.

The nationalists' right-about however, is only one of several indications that Premier Poincaré is again master of the situation and is going to be able to steer the measure through the chamber safely. The motion voted in the finance commission calling for the reservations being tightly bound up with the ratification bill has now been practically abandoned.

Seeing the premier irrevocably opposed to such suicidal action—which would be bound to bring immediate rejection from Washington—the commission today decided to mend its ways and try to save its face by introducing a new motion, which entails double ratification, the first document being outright ratification, and the second containing the reservations.

Favors Debt O. K. by Decree.

But the government is now sure of itself and intends to squelch the second measure as firmly as it did the first. Premier Poincaré aims at ratification outright by decree, thus maintaining the principle of France's good faith in paying up its debts. Then he hopes to get the chamber's approval for a separate bill embodying the reserves, the principal among which is the famous clause making France's payments to America dependent on Germany's payments to France.

DROPS RAZOR CHARGE AGAINST WIFE.

Charges of assault with a razor brought by Peter Mayo, 44 years old, 604 North State street, against his wife, Elizabeth, a Blackfoot Indian, were dismissed yesterday by Judge Joseph W. Schulman in the Chicago Avenue court at Mayo's request. Mayo admitted he had taunted his wife about her Indian blood.

ARKANSAS' BAR ON EVOLUTION IS INTERPRETED

Little Rock, Ark., July 10.—[Special.]—Prohibition of the teaching that mankind ascended from an order of animals lower than a man, or that man was ever, at any time, under any circumstances, anything else but a man is the interpretation of the antievolution law made by the state's attorney general's office today.

This was the first official opinion handed down concerning the act which prohibits the teaching of the evolution theory in the public school and bans the use of supplementary books which outline the evolution theory.

The ruling was made public after a Baptist preacher, the Rev. O. C. Harvey of the First Baptist church of Stuttgart, Ark., became exercised over the use of a supplementary reader in the Stuttgart public schools, the title of which is "The Tree Dwellers."

Assistant Attorney General John H. Caldwell, who wrote the opinion, hinges the Arkansas law on the words "mankind" and "animals." He says that the book does not violate the law "because, as I understand the book, the author deals with the woman as a woman all the way through and never treats her as anything else but a woman."

The opinion says that reduced to its finality the law simply prohibits the teaching that man was ever, at any time, under any circumstances, anything else but a man.

Attorney Caldwell in closing says that no Arkansas law attempts to prohibit the teacher from telling the child that the giant oak ascended from an acorn or that the butterfly ascended from the caterpillar through a process of evolution, but that the theory is taboo when applied to mankind.

EX-CONVICT SENT BACK TO PRISON FOR GUN TOTING

Given 1 to 10 Year Term Under Unused Law.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Joseph Orchowski, carrying concealed weapons, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary; Harold Walker and Otis Randolph, burglary, sentenced to 1 year to life each in Pontiac reformatory; John Meyer, assault to murder, sentenced to 1 to 14 years in the penitentiary, by Judge Stanley Klarkowski.

Sanford Spears, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary by Judge Harry B. Miller.

Ben Taylor, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary; T. C. Harrington, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life in Pontiac reformatory; R. Nowicki, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell, by Judge John P. McGoorty.

Thomas Talbert, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary by Judge Otto Kerner.

Harry Tgeitis, burglary, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary by Judge Marcus Kavanagh.

Joseph Orchowski, 22 years old, a paroled burglar from the Pontiac reformatory, was convicted yesterday by a jury in Judge Stanley Klarkowski's court on a charge of carrying concealed weapons within five years of the time he was convicted of a felony. He was promptly sentenced by the judge to an indeterminate term of 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary.

Although the law has been on the statute books since July, 1925, it never before has been invoked in the Cook county Criminal courts. It is to be the basis, according to First Assistant State's Attorney John E. Northup and Chief Investigator Patrick Roche, of a vigorous campaign against ex-convicts who carry weapons.

Defense Pleads in Vain.

The jury, however, was nearly swayed by a plea for sympathy made by Attorney Joseph Kolb. He argued that he saw no reason why his client should be made the goat under a forgotten law. In addition he contended that the revolver found in Orchowski's possession was purchased by his client at the instigation of his mother, who wanted it for protection against her second husband.

The jurors stood 7 to 5 for conviction on the first ballot. Some of the jurymen thought the penalty of 1 to 10 years too severe for the crime and some even argued, according to reports, that if Al Capone, Joe Saltis and others of their type were not prosecuted for gun toting under a penitentiary sentence penalty they did not believe Orchowski should be convicted.

Refuses New Trial at Once.

"I believe you were out with the intention of robbing some one," said Judge Klarkowski to the defendant when the verdict was returned. "I know of no reason why any ex-convict should be on the streets after midnight with a loaded pistol, and in view of the fact that there are no mitigating circumstances I will overrule your motion for a new trial at once and sentence you to the penitentiary."

"Your office has an effective weapon against gun toters and it should be used frequently," continued the judge, turning to Assistant State's Attorneys Malachy Coghlan and John Murphy, who prosecuted the case. "Every ex-convict caught with a revolver should be tried directly in the criminal court under this law."

The prosecutors said that an order to this effect has already been issued to the police department.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, July 10.—A diplomatic incident threatens to develop out of the discovery by French police yesterday of nearly a million francs' worth of narcotics in four cases shipped from Germany under diplomatic immunity to Ala Ghoulam Nabi Khan, former Afghan envoy to Paris and now minister to Moscow. The police are working on the theory that the minister is connected with a huge dope ring supplying drugs to Parisian society, whose members are known to purchase large amounts of drugs, the source of which the police have been unable to trace.

C.M.T.C. TO ACCEPT 300 MORE MEN IN 6TH CORPS AREA

Authority was granted yesterday by the war department for an increase of 300 men to be trained in citizens' military training camps in the sixth corps area. Popular enthusiasm for the vacation military training has convinced the war department that the expansion is warranted, according to officials of the Military Training Camps association. In past years applications for admission have far exceeded the original quota.

Fort Sheridan, training center for northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin; Camp Custer for southern Michigan; Fort Brady for northern Michigan and Camp McCoy, for artillery from all three states, are the posts which will participate in the increase.

The camps, which open on July 18, are still receiving applications through the Military Training Camps association, with offices at 6 North Michigan avenue. Young men in the Chicago area may also report to the C. M. T. C. officer at sixth corps area headquarters, 1819 West Pershing road, or to the county chairman of the association in the three states.

FOUND DEAD IN GARAGE.

Peter Anderson, 2148 Waveland avenue, a contractor, was found dead from motor fumes last night in his garage. He apparently had neglected to open the doors after starting the engine of his truck. An inhalator squad failed to revive him.

MOTHER SURE HER WALK TO CAPITAL WILL FREE SON

Back home from Springfield, where she walked to plead for the release of her son from the penitentiary, Mrs. Olive Woolard, 1408 North Western avenue, was confident yesterday that a thorough investigation will be made and hopeful that her son will come home again.

"My son, Lamont, is as innocent of robbing that soft drink parlor at Murphysboro with Leonard Barrass as you or I," Mrs. Woolard said. "It was all a frameup because he had served in dry raids with his father in Williamson county when the disorders were on several years ago. Both Williamson and Jackson counties and all downstate know it is a frameup. Hundreds of business men, lawyers, preachers in that territory signed my petition for him.

"But no one could ask for more attention than I got at the hearing Tuesday before the state board of pardons. I believe that a thorough investigation will be made, because they seemed a fine bunch of men. And if that investigation is made my boy will come home to me."

Mrs. Woolard, the mother of ten children, explained that she hitchhiked to Springfield to save the money needed for her fight for the release of her son. Friends provided funds for her to ride home.

France and Spain Sign Arbitration Agreement

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

The treaty stipulates that all French-Spanish differences which cannot be settled by the ordinary diplomatic machinery be submitted to a permanent conciliation committee which shall arbitrate according to the principles of Locarno and the league of nations.

WOMAN HIT BY STREET CAR DIES.

Mercolized Wax Keeps Skin Young

DO you know that just beneath that soiled, discolored, faded or aged complexion is one fair to look upon? Nature causes the normal skin to peel off in tiny, unseen, flour-like particles, a little each day, renewing the complexion of youth naturally, but there comes a time when this skin shedding slows up. Worry, overwork, sickness, inactivity are reasons that cause the face to be blotchy, discolored, pimply and old looking. The thing to do, if you wish to look your prettiest at all times, is to assist nature in the process of absorption by using pure Mercolized Wax. Get an ounce at any drug store or beauty counter and use as directed. It gently, but surely peels away the outer scarf skin, removing freckles, pimples, blackheads or a muddy complexion. The underneath skin, now in evidence, is clear, pink, fresh and velvety, and the entire face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out the hidden beauty.
To quickly remove wrinkles and other age lines we recommend a face lotion of unusual merit. One ounce powdered saxolite and one-half pint witch hazel.

WOMEN ENVY HER RADIANTLY BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION

Well Over Forty, Yet No One Will Believe It.

WHISKY SUPPLY LOW; MAY OPEN THE DISTILLERIES

U. S. Fears Medicinal Stock Tampered With.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 10.—[Special.]—Early reopening of a limited number of distilleries for the manufacture of medicinal whisky may be one of the direct results of the discovery in Chicago that large quantities of whisky held in the Sibley concentration warehouse had been tampered with and made useless for medical purposes.

This was disclosed today when it was stated that no decision would be reached as to when steps would be taken to reopen distilleries until the results of the annual survey of the government's twenty seven concentration warehouses was completed.

Planned Opening Year Later.

Up until the Sibley warehouse scandal developed, it was believed by prohibition officials that sufficient liquor stocks were on hand to make it unnecessary to manufacture additional whisky for the drug trade before another year.

Discovery that a considerable amount of the Sibley stocks were unfit for medical purposes resulted in the ordering of a survey to determine the condition of liquor supplies in other bonded warehouses.

If these show any great amount of whisky has been tampered with it would reduce the amount of whisky the government believed was available for the drug trade and hasten the day when stocks would need replenishing.

15,000,000 Gallons Stored.

As the survey and tests being conducted this year are far more stringent than any made in previous years, it is possible a big reduction will be found in the amount of whisky available for medical purposes.

It was estimated last year that about 15,000,000 gallons of liquors were stored in bonded warehouses. As the drug trade uses something like 1,500,000 gallons annually it was estimated this would last several years. Should any considerable discrepancy develop between the government estimates and the annual amounts of liquor it might be found necessary to begin the distilling of new whisky this year to avert the sale of green whisky for medical purposes.

Doran Can Order Opening.

About six months ago, Dr. James M. Doran, commissioner of prohibition, advised congress it would be necessary to look into the medicinal liquor situation probably within a year. Under the law the commissioner has the authority to authorize the manufacture of whisky for medical purposes. Such a step has been fought so persistently by the drys that prohibition officials were reluctant to discuss the matter today.

HOW MANY U. S. DRY PRISONERS; NO ONE KNOWS; NO TAB KEPT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 10.—[Special.] — No one knows how many American citizens, accused of violating prohibition padlock injunctions, now are serving prison or jail sentences imposed by federal courts without jury trials.

Inquiries at the department of justice revealed that no record ever has been kept of such cases and no department officials would hazard a guess at the number or take steps to obtain an accurate total.

Federal district attorneys are not required, it was disclosed, to show such convictions separately in monthly repotrs to the justice department, listing every other activity and achievement of the attorneys in detail.

Department officials denied the hiding of facts under other classifications in the reports was deliberate, but declined to order an immediate canvass of federal districts to obtain the information. A request for issuance of such an order would not be considered, it was asserted, unless made in a letter to the attorney general.

Throughout her régime as assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition prosecutions Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt urged district attorneys, especially in metropolitan areas, to use the injunction method of enforcement whenever possible.

U. S. DRY WILL BE PROSECUTED, SAY OFFICIALS

Statement of Washington Officials Disputed.

Shawnee, Okla., July 10.—(AP)—County Attorney Randall Pitman said last night that W. W. Thomason, federal prohibition enforcement agent, will be prosecuted on a murder charge resulting from the slaying of two farmers in a raid near Tecumseh.

Pitman refused to assent to a statement from Washington that the prohibition officer would not be prosecuted on the contention that it was a state raid and that he went along at the request of state officers.

The county attorney declared the raid was staged by the government and that the state had nothing to do with it. Government officials at Washington were "entirely mistaken" about it being a state search, he said.

Thomason, Jeff B. Harris, Tom Little and John D. Williams are charged with the murder of James Harris. Jeff B. Harris also is charged with the murder of Oscar Lowery.

CAROL NAMED AS LEADER OF ROUMANIA PLOT

BUCHAREST, Roumania, July 10.—(AP)—Documents alleged to have been confiscated by the government in its roundup of military conspirators against the present régime have definitely implicated the exiled Prince Carol in a projected coup d'état.

The documents comprised proclamations to the people and to the army, all bearing the signature, "In the name of his majesty, King Carol II." It was said that it appeared the exiled prince was fully aware of the preparations for the plot and gave his consent to it.

Several more arrests were made today and it was said the investigation was proceeding along lines which might implicate various important political personages.

DOGS MAY RACE TILL AUG. 5, AT LEAST, IS RULING

Court Postpones Report of Master on Tracks.

The racing dogs continued last night to chase the electric rabbit around the Hawthorne, Illinois, and Fairview ovals. They will continue the nightly pursuit at least until Aug. 5, while persons inclined to bet may do so under the expedient of making contributions and awaiting reimbursement from the management. This was decided yesterday by Circuit Judge Fisher, who postponed until that date the submission of a final master's report.

Since early last November a petition for a permanent injunction to restrain the state's attorney and other law enforcing agencies from interfering with the racing activities and the betting arrangement at the tracks has been pending before Master in Chancery Max Korshak. Temporary injunctions issued two years ago prevented raids by State's Attorney Crowe and Sheriff Graydon.

Raids Lead to Hearing.

The present officials, State's Attorney Swanson and Sheriff Traeger, face contempt proceedings for raids made last month in disregard of the temporary injunctions. These raids led Judge Fisher to order an immediate hearing before Master Korshak and the submission of his report yesterday. The hearing ended on Saturday.

Yesterday Master Korshak appeared to ask further delay. He said it was impossible to digest the 600 pages of testimony with their many legal citations. He asked that the report be put over until the September term so that he could hear objections to the report by attorneys for the tracks and by Assistant State's Attorney Lee La Rochelle, representing Mr. Swanson. The judge refused to continue the case beyond Aug. 5.

Tracks Closed by Fall.

If the report is made on that date, it will be submitted during the vacation season. In the event of a decision favoring the tracks, the state's attorney's office will not be able to bring an appeal until fall. By that time the tracks will have closed for the season, the prosecutors said.

COLOR BLIND, HIRES ANOTHER TO TAKE HIS NAVAL ACADEMY TEST

Washington, D. C., July 10.—(AP)—Two boys are being held by Washington police today because one of them wanted to gain entrance to Annapolis Naval academy but was found to be color blind.

Henry Sherwinn Rupp, son of a Long Beach [Cal.] business man, was named as a candidate for the academy after he passed examinations given by the United States naval reserve, of which he was a member from California. He was given a high rating on his mental examination, but "flunked out" on his physical examination at the academy two days ago. Color blindness was given as the cause.

Permission for reëxamination was requested of the navy department and was granted. A youth representing himself as Rupp passed this test. Naval officers could not understand how a candidate adjudged color blind 48 hours earlier could pass the examination, so they started questioning.

The boy who was not color blind, they said, readily admitted he was Paul Schooler of Washington, and told police he had been retained to take the examination for $15.

Both boys are 19 years old and are being held pending investigation.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 10.—Four men were brought to the surface dead and six others seriously burned, while four remained below, killed or entrapped in a flaming mine, after an explosion of fire damp today in the Milfraen colliery at Blaenavon in south Wales. Rescue workers who attempted to assist their comrades were separated by dense clouds of smoke and flaming gas. Between 60 and 80 men were in the pit when the fire damp exploded, but most of them succeeded in escaping.

OPPOSE PARDONS FOR WOMEN IN ELECTION FRAUDS

Pardons cannot be legally granted to Mrs. Tina Wortman and Mrs. Leona Coine, two women sentenced to jail for contempt of court in election fraud cases, according to Special State's Attorneys Charles Center Case and Grover C. Neimeyer. They said yesterday that should the board of pardons and paroles recommend to the governor that pardons be issued as a result of a plea for executive clemency made on Tuesday, that they would promptly institute legal proceedings to declare them void.

"We doubt whether any pardon will be recommended or granted," said the prosecutors. "If one should be granted, it will become our duty to institute a proceeding designed to compel service of the sentences.

Cite Legal Precedents.

"This point has been directly decided in this state in the school board cases a few years ago and was more recently decided in Indiana when an official of the Anti-Saloon league was sent to jail for contempt of court. There are similar decisions in numerous other states."

The prosecutors were aroused by the plea of Attorney Paul Holleb, who pointed out that only these women had been made to suffer for the frauds committed in the election in which they served. They asserted that many others have been sentenced for crimes committed at the election, but that most of them are fugitives from justice.

In fact, Mrs. Coine is now a fugitive from justice. Mrs. Wortman, however, is serving her sentence of one year, imposed by Judge Jarecki and upheld by the Appellate and Supreme courts.

Find Bond Missing.

It was also pointed out that these are not the only women convicted of frauds. The case of Mrs. Frances Baroch was recently upheld by the Appellate court. She, too, is a fugitive from justice and it was announced yesterday that the bond which she gave has been stolen from the court files. An investigation is now going on to discover the person or persons responsible for this theft. As a result all other papers pertaining to election fraud cases were ordered impounded yesterday by Judge Jarecki.

A move was started yesterday to collect on the bonds of the convicted election officials who have become fugitives. Suit was started to collect $22,500 on the various bonds, which were signed by such political leaders as Manny Goodman, State Representative Lawrence O'Brien, and William J. Connors.

"Give me liberty to know, to utter and to argue freely according to my conscience, above all other liberties."
—Milton.

THE WASHINGTON GANG AND ITS WORK.

At the convention of the American Medical association in Portland the retiring president, Dr. William S. Thayer of Baltimore, deplored the centralizing tendency of government which was breaking down local control and concentrating regulation and destruction of liberties in Washington. His special reference was to prohibition, which even denies the physician's right to prescribe according to his judgment. Fanaticism is the law above the doctor. It has decreed that no patient may require more than a pint of whisky as a stimulant in any one period of ten days.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson, general secretary of the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition, and public morals in Washington, is in Portland for the summer. He took the opportunity of being on the scene of the convention to attack Dr. Thayer and the physicians who resent the Volstead law's reflection on their professional honor and its interference with their treatment of patients. In published statements he said the Baltimore physician was a tool of the saloons and that the restrictions in the prescribing of liquor were necessary to keep bootleg doctors from carrying on a traffic in intoxicants.

Dr. Wilson is one of the most active of the Washington gang which controls congress by bribery in the form of honoraria and by intimidation and otherwise has influence only with the ignorant and illiterate and because of them. This gang has reduced the country to the condition in which it contemplates the loss of liberties described by the retiring president of the American Medical association. American citizens are insecure in their lives and property and more violence against them is meditated and demanded. More and more of the elongating form of a furious bigotry comes up over the horizon, menacing with threats and attempting further encroachment on the government of the United States and the people living under it.

In the better perspective of elapsed time it can be seen how this revival of the medieval church has stopped the rational development of the American state, which, indeed, it seeks to use merely as the secular arm, the police force, of ecclesiastical authority which itself is the state. A government is sought which will abandon the citizenship to the law of the church organized politically with its dictates as to what is orthodoxy and what is heresy. It will control opinion, destroy conscience and self-determination, and make men walk in moral chain gangs. It has put itself squarely in the way of the development of the democratic theory. A country which was progressing toward the realization of an idea of individual competence in political and social equality, in self-control and free opinion, in adult responsibility and maturity of conduct and opinion has been thrown back into juvenile subjection to a medieval hierarchy.

The inevitable consequence is the disorder of today. As the government, used as a secular police power for repression and coercion, becomes more inquisitorial and savage with its excessive punishments and its disregard even of innocence, the people become either more intolerant of the rights of others or more determined in their defiance of authority so exercised. A people who were headed for the highest levels of competent democracy could not be knocked back into the thirteenth century without feeling that a catastrophe had happened to their laws.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson, Bishop James Cannon Jr., the Rev. John Roach Straton, and the other political clerics whose demands are authoritative in Washington are the agents of this retrogression of democracy. The sentiments expressed in the convention of the American Medical association are the sentiments of intelligent citizens the country over.

MAKING RESERVE SERVICE ATTRACTIVE.

A Tribune News Service dispatch from Cuba tells of the good time enjoyed by the members of the naval R. O. T. C., who under the guidance and instruction of a special staff have been cruising in the Caribbean on a battleship. The young men are having a good time seeing the world as well as in gaining sea knowledge and experience, and the navy department is to be congratulated upon its good judgment in making the acquisition of knowledge palatable.

Young men who go into the reserve are a selected class which is in most cases actuated not only by patriotic motives but by special liking for military things. But this class is inevitably limited and is increased by making service as attractive as possible. They deserve to be given the best time practicable, but beyond that there is public expediency in increasing the inducements to serve. To do this for the naval R. O. T. C. is easier than for the military. Trips abroad well organized with a proper regard for the recruits' comfort and entertainment make a strong inducement, and the navy department seems awake to its opportunities. The war department has a harder task and we are not implying that it is overlooking it. But the more it can do, consistently with the requirements of training, to make the R. O. T. C. camps generally entertaining the better it will serve the ends for which the camps are maintained.

Congress should be more enlightened in its policy toward the reserves and make more liberal provision for them, and the management should be resourceful in making service as attractive as possible. Men with special abilities, like Gen. E. Z. Steever, who before he retired from the army established the training in the Utah schools and later in Chicago, should be given opportunity to bring the element of sport and wholesome entertainment into the training system, which is becoming an effective and important phase of citizenship education.

STREETS FOR THE FUTURE.

Ald. Massen, as chairman of a subcommittee on two-level streets, has submitted a supplementary report in which he presents the case for the elevation of strategic highways through the city. The recommendation that the city proceed promptly with a detailed study of the questions involved is sound and should be approved by the city council.

A profound change in the elements of the problem of circulation through the city has taken place since the Chicago plan was devised by Daniel Burnham. No one recognizes this fact more certainly than the plan commission today. The automobile has created a need for roads which will carry vastly more traffic than was contemplated a generation ago. The problem can be met, it is plain, by building roads which will enable the traffic to speed through the city without interruption. Congestion and loss of time cannot be avoided as long as traffic must be halted every few blocks to permit cross currents of automobiles to pass the main arteries. Mere widening of streets will not solve the difficulty. Michigan boulevard might be five times as wide as at present, but the outer drive would still be preferred by motorists because they know that on it they will not be halted by traffic signals. They can go twice as fast with half the danger and inconvenience.

There is no lake front leading through the west side. The only way to obtain the benefits of uninterrupted boulevards is by separating the grades at these boulevards. This may be done either by depressing the boulevards or raising them, and there are certain advantages to each method. It may well be found desirable to elevate some boulevards and depress others. In either case ramps will be employed to connect the high speed arteries with the other streets, while cross traffic will be carried on bridges if the main road is depressed or through subways if it is elevated.

Ald. Massen's proposal for a survey indicates that his subcommittee, like nearly all other investigators, has reached the conclusion that the present system of level crossings in the city is obsolete. The sooner the city has reliable data on the plans and costs of elevation and its probable effect on property values, the sooner a judgment can be made on the type of grade separation to be adopted in particular cases.

Chicago was the first American city of great size to adopt a city plan, and it was among the first, if not the first, to build a two-level street. Engineers from all parts of the world have come to Chicago to study Wacker drive. It would be regrettable if Chicago, which has pioneered the field, should not be the first to profit from its own experiment.

THE 'UNTIN' BOWLER'S FLIGHT.

The 'Untin' Bowler's voyage of discovery has thus far emphasized the importance of the amphibion type in long flights. If the Bowler had not been a boat as well as a plane its fate would have been disaster. As it was able to land or rather come down on a water surface, no harm has befallen it or its crew. To have found a landing for wheels would have been impossible.

The first part of the flight also has demonstrated some of the weather difficulties encountered in the route under investigation. When studied, with the data obtained during the remainder of the flight, expert judgment will be able to come to some reliable conclusion as to the advantages of this route between the continents. We have seen that a well piloted ship can cross the barriers in the worst of weather. Greenland and three open water flights lie ahead.

MR. WRIGHT SHOULD BE RETAINED.

Following the news that Mr. Ben Wright, insular auditor of the Philippine government, has submitted his resignation to the President, we have report that Mr. Wright will not insist upon retiring if the government indicates its confidence in him. It is indicated that since the death of Gen. Wood Mr. Wright has felt a lack of support and naturally does not wish to continue in an equivocal and unsatisfactory situation.

It is to be hoped no time will be lost in giving him full assurance. Mr. Wright has been a bulwark of administrative honesty and responsibility in the Philippines and his departure would be a serious misfortune, not by any means merely to legitimate American interests but to the Philippine people, except of course the few who wish to graft. It is no special disparagement of Philippine politics or official conduct that it is subject to this weakness. That is an effect of fallible human nature, observable everywhere. But on the threshold of democratic government protection is especially needed and Mr. Wright's integrity and alertness should not be lost to Philippine administration.

GERMANY'S MERCHANT FLEET.

[Honolulu Star Bulletin.]

Here's a lesson for American shippers.

The world war practically wiped out the German merchant marine fleet, once the greatest in the world. After the armistice, merchant ships flying the German flag were scarce.

Now, however, the German merchant fleet is four-fifths as large as it was in its palmy pre-war days. It had in 1914 a tonnage of 5,200,000; now it has more than 4,000,000 and is growing fast.

Only the British and American merchant fleets surpass it in size, and a writer in the current World's Work predicts that Germany's fleet will pass America's in the next few years and press hard on the heels of Britain.

That fact is a high testimonial to German industry and efficiency.

It is also a reminder to the United States to increase its shipping pace.

BODILY CHANGES WITH AGE.

In a most interesting and illuminating book on "Old Age, the Major Involutions," Dr. A. S. Warthin gives the following life pattern for some of the bodily qualities.

Height, or length of trunk, neck, head and legs, increases very rapidly before birth. After birth there is a varying rate of increase until just before age twenty. Between age twenty and age thirty there might be some slight increase. From age thirty-five to age seventy, or just short of that, height is unchanged. From age seventy to age one hundred there is a gradual, moderate decrease in height.

Weight increases at varying speeds up to age twenty-five. Between age twenty-five and age forty there is a moderate increase. From age forty to age seventy weight is at a standstill if there is no overeating, under exercising and no pathology. From age seventy on a progressive loss of weight is normal.

Ossification of the bones progresses with varying rapidity up to age thirty. It progresses slowly between thirty and sixty. On the other hand, the bones begin becoming somewhat more porous at age 38. This process increases more rapidly after age fifty. The bones begin to lose lime after age fifty. This process increases more rapidly after age seventy. Another group of investigators find that the proportion of lime in the blood decreases as age advances in both sexes at about the same rate. The milk teeth are at their best at about age seven. The permanent teeth start at about where the milk teeth leave off and they reach their best at age twenty. In a normal person with a normal mouth the teeth are at their best from age twenty to age sixty. At the latter age they begin to go.

The lymphoid tissue of the body increases to about age twenty-six. At about age twenty-seven it begins to show the physiological decline called senescence. This is progressive until the end of life.

The eye increases in efficiency with some rapidity until age six and more slowly until age fifteen. It begins to show the advent of age at about age forty-eight. From age sixty on presbyopia as an ageing effect is readily recognized. The ears are at their best from near age thirty-five to age fifty. From age fifty to age sixty hearing is slightly less acute and the loss progresses with the years.

The brain increases rapidly in power until age fifteen, and more slowly until age thirty. It is at its best from that age to sixty-eight. The loss is slight until age seventy-five, but more rapid after that. Of all organs the brain holds on at high efficiency longest.

The liver increases in efficiency until age twenty-three. At age sixty-eight it begins to slip. The heart is at its best at age twenty-five. It begins to go back at age sixty and is losing more rapidly at age seventy and beyond. The lungs reach high water mark at age thirty. They start downward at age sixty. The bone marrow is at its peak at age thirty-eight and begins receding at age forty. The sex apparatus is at its best at age twenty-five to thirty. It begins to decline at age forty-five. The more rapid decline is on at age sixty-five.

NO DIFFERENCE—IN HEALTH.

A. P. writes: What is the danger of chewing snuff? I have a very dear friend who uses it constantly. He has trouble with his stomach and I feel certain the snuff chewing is very bad for him. He spits a great deal and has no saliva left to help digest his food.

REPLY.

There is no difference, from the health standpoint, between snuff taking and chewing or smoking.

COMPLAINT.

I could pipe in fancy's vein
To the old melodious strain,—
Tie me to a comet's tail
For an interstellar sail.
  Be right flighty
  In my nightie,—
Lyrically wail.
I could tread the buskined stage
In my tragic equipage,
Lachrymosely make you see
Cause for my propensity,—
  Writing sadly,
  Rhyming badly,
Failing utterly.
Quaint conceit is very pretty;
Some are swayed by doleful ditty.
Caterwaul or lyric flow
Fail to catch your fancy, so
  I can't blame you,—
  Just the same you
Caught mine long ago!

Shin-Plasters.

We got our new shin-plasters yesterday. The one dollar bill with the portrait of George Washington; the two dollar bill with the picture of Jefferson; the five dollar bill with the likeness of Lincoln; the ten dollar bill with the portrait of Hamilton; and the twenty dollar bill with the picture of Jackson. The fifty dollar bill has a picture of Grant, but in spite of the title of the book about him we fear it will be a long time before we "Meet General Grant." We're going to be careful of these cute little new bills. We remember in the long, dead days beyond recall, when we were a small child, we were presented with a twenty-five cent bill. It was the first shin-plaster we had ever owned. We were admiring it in front of the fireplace when the draft whisked it out of our hands and up the flue it went, and we never saw it again. We're going to keep away from fireplaces when we count these new shin-plasters.

NOT YET APPOINTED, BUT STILL HAVE HOPE. Massmeeting yesterday afternoon of people who have not up to the hour of going to press last night been appointed by Dr. Hoover on any of the new federal commissions. The citizens at the massmeeting expressed their deep indignation that while about everybody in the United States had been appointed on a commission to investigate and report on something or other, they alone had been left out. "Why," they demanded of the administration, "why this invidious distinction?" But as more and more commissioners are being appointed each day in Washington it is realized that the next meeting of those left out will be very small, so it will be held in a telephone booth at the Stevens hotel.

Your dark, somber, unsmiling face
With its dim forest fastnesses
Of secret thought

And its darkness
Has the mystic comfort of the night.

Rhodes scholarships are again to be awarded to Germans and the Oxford roll of honor is to be inscribed with the names of German Rhodes scholars who died in the great war. That, in the best of all possible worlds, is the way it should be. Which reminds us, whatever happened to the silly Whitney Warren-President Ladeuze dispute over the proposed Louvain library inscription: "Destroyed by German Fury; Rebuilt by American Generosity"? At least we remember that George Jean Nathan suggested a truly beautiful inscription for that truly beautiful memorial:

Destroyed by German Forgetfulness;;
Rebuilt by American Remembrance.

A WIFE IN CALIFORNIA got a divorce because her husband wouldn't tell where he had been when he came home late at night. A husband who hasn't got enough imagination to think up a pleasant little story about where he had been ought to be divorced. And if he hasn't enough gray matter back in the old bean to make up one he can always fall back on the five classics: "Entertaining a country customer"; "Busted tires"; "Fixing up the accounts at the office"; "Putting a long distance telephone call through to New York"; and "Sitting up with sick friend." Wives like the old reliable, standard stories best, but they enjoy hearing a new one now and then just for a change.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

JULY 11, 1864.

WASHINGTON.—An official dispatch from Maj. Gen. Wallace states that a battle took place between his command and rebels at Monocacy on July 9, lasting from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Our forces were at length overpowered by the superior numbers of the enemy and forced to retreat in disorder. Gen. Wallace reports that the enemy numbered 20,000. He is retreating toward Baltimore.

BALTIMORE.—Late accounts from the front report that our forces have fallen back from Monocacy to the vicinity of Monrovia, burning the bridge across the Monocacy. Rebel cavalry is reported sixteen miles north of Baltimore and is making for the North Central railroad, which has been cut near Cockeysville. Gen. Sigel's train arrived here with a large detachment of infantry and cavalry. One of the officers who was in the fight at Monocacy says that in all his experience in this war he has never seen more desperate fighting and he believes the rebel loss is as heavy as ours. Our loss in prisoners is about 1,000, and there is no estimate on the loss in dead and wounded.

WASHINGTON.—It is ascertained that the main body of the rebels in Maryland is on the direct road for Washington from Frederick, with the advance at Rockville, 19 miles from this city. Movements of troops are taking place which it is hoped will bring the rebels to grief tomorrow. President Lincoln, escorted by Inspector General Hardee of the war department, visited the fortifications and found everything in order and readiness.

LONDON.—The Irish members of parliament are identifying themselves with the Boer cause, and are asking the government difficult questions concerning the situation.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Intimation was received by the state department that the Canadian government will send a force of mounted police into the Porcupine district in British Columbia. If this is done the United States will respond by sending troops to Pyramid Harbor to protect the interests of American citizens. The Porcupine area is part of the territory now in dispute and would be neutral ground if a modus vivendi were agreed upon. The situation is extremely grave.

ST. PETERSBURG.—Grand Duke George, brother of the czar and heir apparent, died at the imperial palace in the Caucasus, where he had gone for his health. He was the second son of the late Emperor Alexander III.

CHICAGO.—The engagement of Miss Margaret Ethel Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blair Robertson, 4213 Drexel boulevard, to Charles Lincoln Ayling of Boston, son of Adjt. Gen. Ayling, is announced.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

JULY 11, 1919.

NEW YORK.—Jeering, hissing, booing, and groaning for fully three minutes, 15,000 persons gathered in Madison Square Garden to hear Eamon de Valera, "president of the Sinn Fein republic of Ireland," bitterly assail British rule, engaged in a remarkable demonstration against the President of the United States. Throughout the meeting every mention of President Wilson's name was a signal for the crowd to let go its feelings.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Presenting to the senate the peace treaty as an enlightened and not seriously imperfect settlement of the world war, and the league of nations covenant as the absolutely indispensable means of carrying the treaty provisions into effect and preventing the recurrence of war, President Wilson voiced an eloquent appeal to the country to accept at whatever cost of national interest the "moral leadership" of the world.

CHICAGO.—Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Alice Freeman, daughter of John B. Freeman of Rockford, Ill., and Warren Pease Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease of Kenilworth.

ARRESTED.

Chicago, July 9.—On the morning of July 9 I was arrested at Michigan boulevard and Madison street for violation of a traffic rule. As I am a resident of Oak Park, the policeman could not issue a summons, but was required to take me to the police station at Roosevelt road and State street to be booked. Upon arrival there I gave my name, address, occupation, date of last serious illness, etc., after which I was locked in a cell which can only be described as filthy. No opportunity was offered me to communicate with any one outside and no information given me as to what I might expect as the next step of the police.

After half an hour, my father, whom I had left in the car, succeeded in reaching me, and brought my wallet, which contained my membership in the Motorists' Association of Illinois. This was accepted as bond, and twenty minutes later I was taken from the cell and conducted through the building in company with two handcuffed prisoners, finally winding up before the desk sergeant, who told me when and where to appear for trial.

Why was I not taken directly to the desk sergeant, booked, my bond accepted and time and place of trial fixed?

I can see no percentage in wasting an hour of my time and my father's, half an hour of the arresting officer's [and heaven alone knows what may have gone on at his corner while he escorted me about town] and whatever clerical time was involved in keeping track of a dangerous criminal like me during my stay in the local bastille.

Purely as a piece of constructive criticism, I wish to say that while my personal knowledge of jails has heretofore been that of a disinterested spectator, I still feel sure that there cannot be any dirtier, more disreputable establishment in the country than the one where I spent an hour this morning. B. A. K.

THE FACTS.

Chicago, July 8.—It seems unbelievable that a great daily newspaper like THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, whose business is to present news to the public fairly and fully, should garble and distort the news about the enforcement of prohibition in such a manner that the reader cannot get the real facts. Not only are your headlines deliberately misleading, but the content of your news columns outside your editorial page, which is notoriously prejudiced against prohibition, is full of venom. You proclaim in bold, front-page headlines that a dry agent has murdered a bootlegger. In an obscure corner of an inner page you herald the news, as if you were glad of it, that a bootlegger has shot a dry agent.

The public is not interested in your opinion of prohibition enforcement. What it wants to know is the facts about enforcement. Give us those facts and let us decide in our own minds whether the bootlegger or the dry agent is the murderer.

THE HACK WILSON INCIDENT.

Chicago, July 9.—I wish to say that I witnessed the fray at the ball park in the afternoon and was among those present at the station prior to and during the time of this so called controversy and either your contributor, Fairplay, is cockeyed or he has been badly misinformed as to the identity of the two men involved.

The newspaper accounts of the affair which appeared in THE TRIBUNE of July 5 were correct in detail. I happened down there to bid a few of the boys a bon trip and was within a few feet of Hack Wilson, who was engaged in a conversation with Jakie May—and both were in a jovial mood—laughing, etc., when Pete Donahue started popping off from over near gate No. [illegible] Words were exchanged and Hack Wilson saw fit to sign off this fellow's broadcast and here is where Hack scored the knockdown with the first punch and drew blood with the second punch which was a right hook to Donahue's nose. If Hack Wilson used Fairplay's handkerchief to wipe off the blood that supposedly flowed so freely I'll push a peanut wagon.

Wilson was urged to go to his sleeper. He entered and got rid of his coat and straw and came out to enjoy a smoke. While doing so Jakie May saw fit to come back and give Hack the glad hand.

STANDARDS OF SPORTSMANSHIP.

Chicago, July 8.—Although the Sox are a losing team, at least they are mostly good sports when it comes to decisions by the umpires, and I have noticed that the fans do not razz and boo the other side. When the opposite side makes a good play they get a hand.

I also have gone to the Cubs park a great deal and used to enjoy it, but no more. The fans are very poor sportsmen and not only that, the team as a whole are far from being good sportsmen. No matter what the umpire decides they are always disputing unless everything is given in their favor, and, of course, always seems to get the [illegible] up in the air. I attended a game with the Pirates on Ladies' day, and to my astonishment the razzing the women gave Burleigh Grimes, for no reason at all, every time he pitched, was really rotten. Are the women fans making their tactics as low as some of the men fans?

ADVICE TO THE FARM BOARD.

Galesburg, Ill., July 9.—In a few days the federal farm board meets to put into motion the new farm relief plan. We are all anxious to hear the plan that Mr. Hoover and Mr. Legge propose to work out. The first crop to consider is wheat. It is a well known fact that the price of wheat is made on the Chicago Board of Trade. If the wheat grower of the United States is to receive a fair price for his product, and the grain speculator is to continue operations, as market makers, it will be very necessary that the board make a minimum price and let the speculator shoot above it.

Who will suggest a better plan?

CHARGES BRITISH PLOT TO KILL U. S. ADMIRAL IN CHINA

Spy Bares Secret Service Activities at Trial.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, July 10.—Six foreign governments, including the United States, have detailed representatives here to watch the proceedings of the local Chinese provisional court in connection with the trial of a Russian adventurer and international secret service agent named Eugene Pick, alias Eugene Kojevnikov, charged with fraud by local British police authorities in connection with his alleged defrauding of a local gambling house of considerable sums of money which the gambling proprietor alleges he paid to the police for protection.

Pick alleges the case is a frameup in order to prevent him from making disclosures pertaining to the activities of the British secret service in the far east in the last three years. During that time, Pick says, he was employed by the British secret service to spy on the activities of the soviet as well as other foreign governments here, including the United States.

Says He Stirred up Reds.

Among Pick's allegations appear the charge that he was responsible for stirring up communistic activities here in 1927 while employed by the British, which caused both the United States and Great Britain to send troops and marines for the protection of foreign residents.

Pick further alleges he was paid a large sum to organize the raid on the local soviet consulate in November, 1927, resulting in two Russian whites being shot and killed by soviet officials guarding the consulate.

The name of Admiral Mark L. Bristol, commander of the Asiatic fleet, was also mentioned in connection with an alleged plot to assassinate him as a means of involving the United States.

Pick also alleges that he was paid a large sum with which he bribed a gang of Chinese to fire on an American gunboat on the Yangtsze river.

Former Soviet Military Attaché.

The evidence presented to the court shows that Pick came to China as a soviet military attaché in 1924, but in 1926 joined the British secret service here. Later he published sensational disclosures pertaining to soviet activities in China.

Evidence produced in court shows that Pick and his associates were prolific forgers of documents. Pick, however, claims that local municipal authorities of the international settlement misused the seal of the United States consulate and forged the name of the American consul to alleged permits to open gambling houses.

FINANCE EXPERT REVEALS RUSSIA AS PROSPERING

Dewey Travels 4,000 Miles on Survey.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WARSAW, Poland, July 10.—Charles S. Dewey of Chicago, financial advisor to the Polish government, returned from Moscow today.

"I have traveled over 4,000 miles in Russia, including Kief, Odessa, Sebastopol, Crimea, Charkov, Leningrad, and Minsk," he said. "I saw good crops, good railroads, clean trains, running on scheduled time, and clean hotels. I visited twenty of the large plants and factories, which I picked out myself, and was received by the leading commissars of the different soviet republics. While in Moscow I discussed the problems of finance with Commissar Bruchanoff and M. Piatakoff, president of the state bank. Mrs. Dewey joined me in Moscow and was very enthusiastic about the Russian art treasures and interesting galleries."

Information from an authoritative source states that Mr. Dewey made the Russian trip in behalf of the Polish government, to facilitate the Polish-Soviet commercial negotiations which are practically at a standstill. Mr. Dewey is contemplating another soviet trip in the very near future.

Poland at present, on account of its difficult economic situation, is especially anxious to conclude a commercial treaty with Russia, as the Polish-German negotiations are trailing indefinitely.

SEE BUMPER CROP

BY DONALD DAY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

RIGA, Latvia, July 10.—The soviet government hopes to export in the neighborhood of 4,000,000 tons of grain during the coming winter, according to officials of the soviet trade delegation in Riga, who report that Russia expects to harvest between 4,000,000 and 6,000,000 more tons of grain than last year.

Commissar Mikojan, interviewed by the Moscow Isvestia, confirms the harvest outlook, but states that the bread card system and rationing of other provisions will be continued until next year, even if a bumper crop is realized, and while the threat of an immediate famine is past, still the "million ton iron bound grain fund," established after the 1921 famine, is depleted, and this reserve must be renewed before the exports begin.

No Higher Price for Grain.

The peasants will not be paid higher prices for grain this harvest, Mikojan continued, but the government is sending larger quantities of manufactured goods to the villages so the peasants can purchase something for the money they receive for their crops.

Th Rabotchaija Moskva reports that Moscow state stores on July 6 began to sell milk, rice, butter, sugar and meal to holders of the recently issued children's provision cards, which were issued only to communist children, government employés and workers, who were privileged to extra rations, and the children of the bourgeoisie do not have the right to purchase from government stores.

Wrecked Craft 300 Feet Below Surface.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 10.—Unusual combination of dense mist and rough sea is preventing divers from descending from the little group of ships' buoys which ring a circle of oil marking the spot where the submarine H-47 sank after colliding with the L-12 yesterday. Fifty fathoms below [about 300 feet] the submarine lies on the floor of the Irish sea with twenty-two men—probably dead, but possibly living—imprisoned inside.

So far it has been impossible to establish any contact with the wrecked submarine. Meanwhile the submarine L-69 dived today, sending out signals in the Morse code with a bell, but there was no answer from the shattered submarine.

Full details of the accident were made known today. The H-47 was unable to keep up the speed of the rest of the division and lagged forty miles behind. The L-12, bringing up the rear of the submarine flotilla, caught up with the smaller craft at 8:10 in the morning. Both ships were cruising on the surface. The L-12 rammed the H-47 at right angles to the port side, the bow penetrating two feet into the control room.

The H-47 sank in a few seconds, dragging the other submersible. Orders were given to close the hatches, but it is not believed that the crew had time. The L-12 succeeded in closing all openings after some water had been shipped, and the H-47 slid off its bow. Natural buoyancy restored it to the surface.

THREE YOUTHS ARE INDICTED IN DOCTOR'S DEATH

Indictments were voted by the grand jury yesterday against three youths accused of slaying Dr. George W. Thilo, 3850 North Kildare avenue, who died last December of injuries he received during a robbery. Al Goldstein, Lawrence Ogden, and Raymond Scott, who are now serving 1 to 20 year sentences in Pontiac reformatory for robbery, are the men charged with the murder.

Assistant State's Attorneys Harry Ditchburne and Charles J. Mueller announced that the youths would be brought back to the Criminal court within the next few months and be placed on trial. The prosecutors said they would ask for the death penalty.

The defendants nearly escaped prosecution for the murder by pleading guilty to the robbery charges. They were allowed to plead guilty several months ago in Judge McGoorty's court because the judge had no knowledge of the fact that they were charged with the Thilo murder. The mittimus in the murder case was lost.

LAY CORNERSTONE OF NEW MARSHALL FIELD STORE IN EVANSTON

Civic, business and social leaders of Evanston and officials of Marshall Field & Co. took part yesterday in ceremonies attending the laying of the cornerstone of the new building which will be occupied by the company's store in the northern suburb this fall.

Mrs. Ronald Boardman of Lake Forest, wife of the manager of the Evanston store, and Mrs. Thomas H. Eddy, wife of the treasurer of the company, spread the mortar for the corner stone. Mayor Bartlett of Evanston, Dean R. E. Heilman of Northwestern university, and Mr. Eddy were the principal speakers.

Copies of Evanston and Chicago newspapers, photographs and historical data were deposited in a metal box which was placed in the cornerstone.

BOOTLEGGERHELD FOR SYNAGOGUE HOLDUP IS SLAIN

Joseph Rossman, 24 years old, 3024 Roosevelt road, well known bootlegger and one of five men under indictment for the spectacular holdup of a synagogue congregation on April 8, was ambushed and shot to death in front of a restaurant at 821 Maxwell street yesterday.

Police believe his death was in retaliation for his attempt three weeks ago to kill Julius Becker, another defendant in the synagogue case, whom he was said to have accused of misappropriating part of the loot of the robbery. Rossman was on his way to court to answer charges growing out of that shooting when he was slain.

Hyman Schwartz, a counterman in the restaurant, through which Rossman's killer fled after the shooting, was held as a material witness.

Becker, who had refused to identify Rossman as his assailant, admitted he was the man to Lieut. Edward Balata yesterday after hearing of his former pal's death.

ABSOLVE SMALL REFRIGERATORS OF FUME DANGER

Kegel Urges Law to Limit Use of Gases.

Recommendations to avoid the dangers resulting from the inhalation of gases used in artificial refrigerators are contained in a bulletin issued yesterday by Health Commissioner Kegel who concluded an investigation of the effect on human beings of methyl chloride, a gas used as a refrigerant. The bulletin virtually absolves the small unit refrigerator, sold for service in single homes. Such refrigerators are pronounced safe because of the enclosure of vital parts and the absence of high pressure in the cooling pipes.

Dr. Kegel recommended that an ordinance be drawn to require all refrigerators to use ingredients in refrigerants that will reveal leaks.

An analysis of twenty-five cases of methyl chloride poisoning, alleged to have occurred in Chicago in the last year, was included in the report which will be sent to 3,500 physicians in the Chicago area. Symptoms, and preventive and curative practices are discussed for the benefit of the medical profession to guard against further fatalities.

Gives Advice on Care.

Advice on the care of the refrigerators warns against chipping frost off the pipes with a sharp instrument, as a coil might be punctured, and against placing the refrigerator in an unventilated room or in a room used for sleeping.

The multiple system, whereby several apartments in a building are served from a central plant is considered at length in the report. Where the multiple system is installed a leak in one apartment may result in the gas charge of the entire system seeping into the room, the report states.

Hear Manufacturers Today.

Manufacturers of artificial refrigerators will appear today before a council subcommittee to present the results of their investigations into the use of gases in cooling plants. The aldermen then will draft an ordinance providing for the supervision of installation and maintenance of refrigerators.

CARSON-PIRIE PILGRIMS VIEW ORIGINAL STORE

Make Trip to Amboy, Ill., on 75th Anniversary.

The second and third generations of the original Carson and Pirie and Scott who founded Carson Pirie Scott & Co., yesterday went back to Amboy, Ill., 100 miles west of Chicago, on a diamond jubilee pilgrimage to the old red brick building facing the Illinois Central tracks, in which the present day enterprise of millions was born seventy-five years ago.

Sam Carson, John T. Pirie and J. E. Scott, the former two arrived from Scotland only a short time before, were the men who founded the store out of which the wholesale and retail businesses of today grew. That was back in 1854, the same year that Amboy was incorporated as a village, and so the big merchandise concern of Chicago and the little town of Amboy, population 1,994, are now celebrating their seventy-fifth birthday together.

An Unostentatious Pilgrimage.

But it was an unostentatious pilgrimage on which S. C. Pirie, chairman of the board and senior member of the firm—the son of John T. Pirie—led his own son, John Thomas Pirie II, and the grandsons and grandnephew of the other founders.

They drove in two automobiles, unannounced, into the town of S. C. Pirie's birth, visited the old store, looked all over it, and chatted with citizens who had known the founders and traded with them. The citizens had wanted to have brass bands and bunting and reception committees and speeches, but S. C. Pirie, a lean and leathery man, who lives on Staten Island, N. Y., would not have it.

But the others, all young men, not one of them 30, went joyously and respectfully to the scene of their families' start in American business.

Grandson Makes Trip.

There was John Taylor Pirie Jr., son of John T. Pirie, and grandson of the founder, now connected with the concern's wholesale business. And there were, besides, young John Thomas Pirie II., now in the retail end of the business—Samuel Pirie Carson, also of the retail business, and the son of the late Samuel Carson, grandnephew of the original Sam Carson; Robert L. Scott Jr., and Frederick H. Scott Jr., both grandsons of the founder, John E. Scott.

Robert L. Scott Jr. is just going into his senior year at Williams college. Frederick H. Scott Jr. is in the sophomore class at Princeton university. Both are expected to take their places in the firm when they are graduated.

After the visit to the store Mr. Pirie and the younger men gathered at the First National bank of Amboy to chat with Pirie's old friends, Fred N. Vaughan, the president, and his brother, Frank Vaughan, the undertaker. Also on hand were W. H. Badger, 82 years old, and Charles Ives, 87 years old, both of whom knew all three of the founders well.

Recalls the Early Days.

"Yes," said Mr. Badger, "I remember how Mr. Carson used to ride into town every day from the farm. He had a white horse and rode old country fashion—up and down, you know—posting, I guess, they call it."

"Right you are, Mr. Badger," said Mr. Pirie. "I'm going out there today to see the old farm."

They got to arguing about where Mike Wright had his saloon over in the old days, and about the mill, "just beyond the creek," and things like that. Said Badger to Mr. Pirie:

"Your mother had a millinery shop up over that store—remember?"

And Pirie, the millionaire, answered without a trace of embarrassment: "Yes, they all worked in those days."

The visit lasted for several hours and then all the young Piries and the Carsons and the Scotts followed Mr. Pirie back into the cars and started back to Chicago.

INTERNATIONAL PAPER TO DROP PRESS HOLDINGS

Negotiations Under Way for Sale.

New York, July 10.—[Special]—The International Paper company is engaged in negotiations to dispose of all its newspaper investments, it was learned today. Confirmation was given by Neil C. Head, assistant to Archibald R. Graustein, president of the International Paper company and the International Paper and Power company.

The company was subjected to widespread criticism last spring when Mr. Graustein revealed in testimony before the federal trade commission that it held large financial interests in thirteen newspapers.

At that time Mr. Graustein insisted he had not the slightest interest in the news or editorial policies of the papers concerned, and that the investments in them by his company had been made solely to obtain a stable market for newsprint for the future through long term contracts, which were assured by these investments.

Will Retain Contracts.

These contracts, it was said today, will be retained by the company under the terms by which its newspaper holdings will be sold.

The total interests of the International Paper company in the thirteen newspapers listed by Mr. Graustein before the commission exceeded $10,000,000. In the midst of the controversy attendant upon the disclosures before the federal trade commission, the company's interest in four of the thirteen, those of the Gannett chain, was sold back to Mr. Gannett for $2,781,158.

List of Holdings.

As listed by Mr. Graustein, the remaining holdings are as follows:

Boston Herald and Boston Traveler, 10,248 shares of common stock at $525 a share.

Chicago Journal, Tampa, Fla., Tribune, and Greensboro, N. C., Record, $1,000,000 of debentures and $600,000 of preferred stock of the Brian-Thomason Newspapers, Inc., owners of the three papers.

Chicago Daily News, $250,000 worth of preferred stock and 5,000 shares of common stock.

Augusta, Ga., Chronicle; Columbia, S. C., Record, and Spartanburg, S. C., Herald-Journal, $855,000 in notes of William LaVarre and Harold Hall, owners of the three papers.

CHINESE OUST SOVIET OFFICIALS IN MANCHURIA

HARBIN, Manchuria, July 10.—(AP)—Chinese authorities have taken over control of the Central Telegraph and also the Eastern Telegraph and Telephone lines. It was reported that this movement was part of a Chinese scheme to gain control of the Chinese Eastern railway from the Russians.

The authorities also closed the soviet railway committee's headquarters and the offices of the trades commission, the trades union council and the naphtha syndicate.

Report 174 Soviets Arrested.

TOKIO, July 10.—(AP)—A dispatch from Harbin said Chinese authorities today arrested 174 soviet officials and employés of the Chinese Eastern railway. The happening was described as a coup aimed at ousting Russia from joint control of the line.

REQUEST PROBE OF ASSESSMENT FIXING CHARGE

William H. Malone, chairman of the state tax commission, addressed a letter to District Attorney Swanson yesterday requesting an investigation of a charge published last Sunday in "The Voice of the People" on the editorial page of THE TRIBUNE. A writer to "The Voice of the People," whose initials were published as "A. K." said that "a north side precinct captain told me that in the last four weeks he had fixed the assessment on over ten parcels of real estate."

"If the author of this leter writes the truth," Mr. Malone said in his note to the prosecutor, "a criminal offense has been committed and the sooner such crime is punished, the better it will be for all honest taxpayers."

Aaron Jones Jr., Theater Man, Is Sued for Divorce

Aaron Jones Jr., manager of the Erlanger theater and the son of Aaron Jones of Jones, Linick & Schaefer, theater owners, was sued for divorce yesterday by Charlotte Jones. The bill charges cruelty. Mrs. Jones asks alimony and the custody of their son, Aaron Jones III. The Joneses were married on June 16, 1926, at Marion, O. Jones is living at the South Shore Country club. Superior Judge Gemmill was asked to suppress the suit and to give a secret hearing. He denied both motions.

Young Mother, Once Thin, Gains 5 lbs.—New Strength

Thin Folks Add 5 to 15 Lbs. Often in Few Weeks With New IRONIZED YEAST. Results Guaranteed — or Pay Nothing

Mrs. George Decker and Daughter

"I gained 5 lbs. while taking IRONIZED YEAST. That means quite a bit, as my parents are both thin. What I prize most is the difference in the way I feel and the pep I have. Before I took IRONIZED YEAST I had to hire a girl to help me with any hard work. But now I do all my housecleaning alone and help my mother with hers too.

"I went through taking care of two cases of whooping-cough in which I lost one of my little girls. I am sure I would have been down sick in bed if I had not been taking IRONIZED YEAST at that time, as I was caring for the baby I lost almost night and day for 3 weeks. IRONIZED YEAST I am sure helped me to be here to write this now."—Mrs. George Decker, Kingsley, Pa.

THE UNKISSED BRIDE

By BERTA RUCK

SYNOPSIS.

Joy Harrison, living in London and working for Dr. Rex Travers in Harley street, is crushed by a letter from her fiancé, Geoffrey Ford, a well known novelist, asking to be released from the engagement. Preoccupied with her own trouble she fails to notice that Dr. Travers seems troubled too. Towards the end of the day he tells Joy that he has just lost a great deal of money through an unscrupulous solicitor and he will be forced to give up his house in Harley street.

Dr. Locke, a partner, tells Rex that he has just been offered a practice with a comfortable villa in the south of France which he cannot take on, and he suggests that he recommend Rex for it. The only hitch to the plan is that they want a married doctor and Rex is a bachelor. To his partner's suggestion that he marry and take up the new post Rex turns a deaf ear.

Joy, who has been listening to the doctor's colloquy, suddenly sees a method of escape for her and she asks Dr. Travers if he will marry her on a business arrangement. The doctor is stunned by her suggestion and finally asks her why she made it. She tells him that she is badly in need of another job, although her real reason is to have Geoffrey read of her engagement to another man.

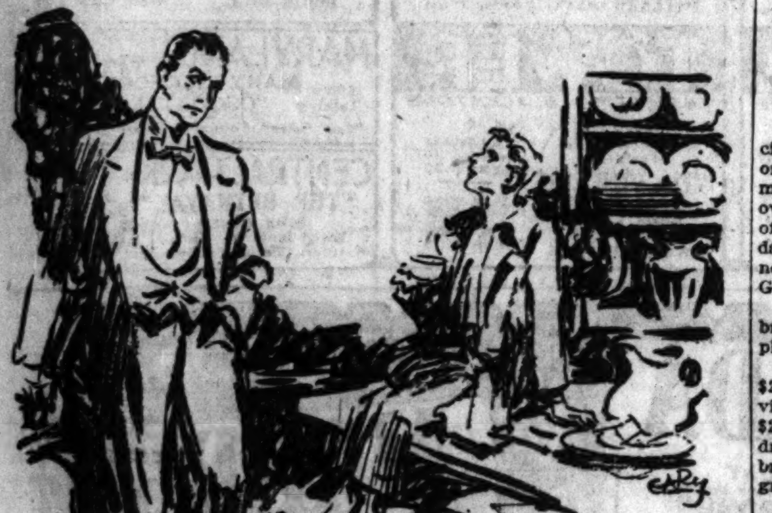
The doctor broods over the change his altered circumstances will have on his young nephew and ward, Percival Arthur Fitzroy. Finally he decides to take Joy at her word and they enter into an agreement to marry on a strictly business basis. Immediately after the ceremony Rex, Joy, and Percival Arthur go to the south of France. Joy enjoys keeping house and Percival Arthur has the time of his life. Joy and Rex become interested in each other. Then the Fords, Geoffrey and his mother, appear on the scene. Joy invites them to her first tea party. She and Rex quarrel as a result of it and she decides to go away with Geoffrey.

INSTALLMENT LXIV.

ON TOWARDS PARIS.

Behind them slipped mile after mile of southern France, of still vineyards and sleeping farms, of silent fields, of tall black screens of cypress, screens of forty foot cannes, a wind threatened country's protection against the mistral; and still Joy slept, and only once she stirred at all. Geoffrey, tucking the rug about her with one hand asked with a tinge of irony if she were sure she was comfortable. Joy, hearing a voice vaguely though other dreams muttered childishly—"thank you, Rex," then sank into deeper sleep. And still Geoffrey did not know whether to be thankful that he did not yet have to discuss matters with her, or irritated. For dash it, here he was, playing the complete knight errant to rescue a girl from married misery! Here he was, behaving like some choice blend of Casanova and Sir Galahad with a dash of Young Lochinvar up to date. Playing up his utter best, for this girl Joy. Knowing all the time that a rechauffée in love is even less successful than a rechauffée out of an English kitchen. All the same prepared to go through with it, even to some tedious "case" to his friends' amusement, and, finally, to marriage. The author of "The Trap," trapped! In the face of which he couldn't help knowing he was behaving well.

Here was the girl, however behaving like—like a baby in a pram. Slept like a baby in a pram, while Geoffrey Ford (who was after all a novelist, not a taxi driver) prepared to drive all night. "I hate these here executions" quoted Geoffrey. "I loathe these here elopements."



"She won't be coming back." What do you mean, gone off with Mr. Ford?"

On they sped through a sleeping world; they had not met a soul.

"As soon as anything's open, I shall have to wire to Paris," thought this Sir Galahad-Casanova. "Wire to the Maurice to reserve rooms. 'No! Not room. Rooms.' Not that, that will make the slightest difference to what the world will say." And, being Geoffrey, he could not for the life of him help visualizing the face of old Miss Annie Simpett when she heard of this terrible scandal. . . . "that delightful young Mr. Ford. . . . Who would have thought it? I always say a thing like that quite takes away your faith in human nature. . . . What are we coming to? . . ."

The tilted stars were paling over the vine country as he drove. . . .

"Feed in the kitchen, shall we?"

English tea, even without milk, remained a heartening thing. Rex, efficient old campaigner, waiting for it to draw, turned again to Percival Arthur and wondered gloomily how the boy would take the . . . well, family news. . . . In some ways he was such an infant; in others growing up over fast. Plenty of people took him for seventeen. Rex regarded that lengthy young figure on the kitchen table, dangling coltish limbs, that head of light rumpled hair, bristling with eucalyptus twigs, that baby face that munched, that sensitive and filthy hand, now fumbling in the biscuit tin.

"I say, those sleeves are half way up to your elbows."

"I know. Joy's going to ask you about a new raincoat for me. Only as it never seems to rain in this place she thought it wouldn't matter until I get back for the Christmas term at Mewborough. And can't I have a posh putty colored 'trench-cot' like the count's? Joy thought it would be rather a turn. It says 'dark blue or gray' . . . but there will be the Christmas holidays here."

"We'll have to see."

Miserably Rex wondered how badly even the boy would feel the draught, now Joy would not be there for holidays? He had plenty of other people to amuse him, of course. Mary could take on his wardrobe as before. By the middle of September he would be off again, back to Mewborough and the routine there, and a good thing, too. Rex wished to Heavens he could be going back anywhere else. . . . But even for the boy there'd be a blank. No more holidays like these. ("Here's your tea, old man.") No more for Percival Arthur the gay humanizing companionship of that "woman of the house," who would pass anywhere for the elder sister, rather than for the young aunt-by-marriage! . . . It would have become a marriage, too, Rex thought; a real and happy marriage, he thought (starting to walk the kitchen, cup in hand, stride, stride and turn), but for that other fellow's cursed reappearance.

Unshaded, the electricity blazed down upon Percival Arthur, who sat just underneath it. Having drunk tea through a mouthful of biscuit and cheese he pierced his uncle's brooding with a sudden question.

"Uncle Rex! When is that blighter going out of this place?"

"Which?"

"That blighter Ford."

Rex forced himself to comment that it might be more polite to say Mr. Ford.

"When's he going? That's what I want to know," demanded the boy peremptorily. "He brought Joy back from the Casino. I saw them come in. He left his car at the gate. I was waiting for him to go. Then he took Joy back after staying up here for absolute hours!"

"He was talking to me," said Travers curtly.

"Well, who wants him? You don't, Uncle Rex. I don't. And I know Joy doesn't."

"If you've finished your tea," said Travers with restraint, "you'd better go to bed."

Percival Arthur sprang up off the kitchen table, brushing the last of the crumbs from his raincoat. But he was not yet for bed. "O, no, none of that," said the curiously decisive shake of that rumpled fair head. Here was something into which he had to inquire. He took a step closer to his uncle. He took a steady look up, not so far up either, into Rex's shut, drawn, and weary face.

"Uncle Rex, I don't see why you should look surprised just because I said Joy didn't want him here? Joy isn't keen," declared the light treble, cracking as the boy ended, "that's what makes it so—so impossible of him to keep on coming here, when Joy's absolutely fed up and finished."

"Finished," took up Travers bitterly. For it might as well come out now. Why wait until tomorrow? The boy would have to know sooner or later what had happened. What was the good of postponing and hedging? He said quickly, curtly, and as he hoped impersonally—"it isn't finished, old man, it's only beginning. I may as well tell you at once that what's happened is that Joy has gone away with Mr. Ford; she won't be coming back."

The boy stared at the man. He stared as though he were going to say "What do you mean? 'She won't be coming back.' What do you mean 'gone off with Mr. Ford?'"

He said, actually, nothing.

In another instant he began to take it in. That? Like in books. Yes. He saw what was meant. Like at the cinema. Couldn't be true? Ford, taking Joy away? Not just back to the Casino to dance again, to keep Joy's people, that she belonged to, hanging about and waiting and getting absolutely fed up with wondering when she was coming back home again and going to bed—not just that? Gone away, for keeps! With——?

Across Percival Arthur's fair irregular face expressions chased each other swiftly as blown cloud shadows across a blonde corn field.

He stared. He opened and shut his mouth. Opened it again. He blurted out finally in angriest amazement. "Gone? With that blighter? You let him?"

"As a matter of fact, I told her she was to go with him."

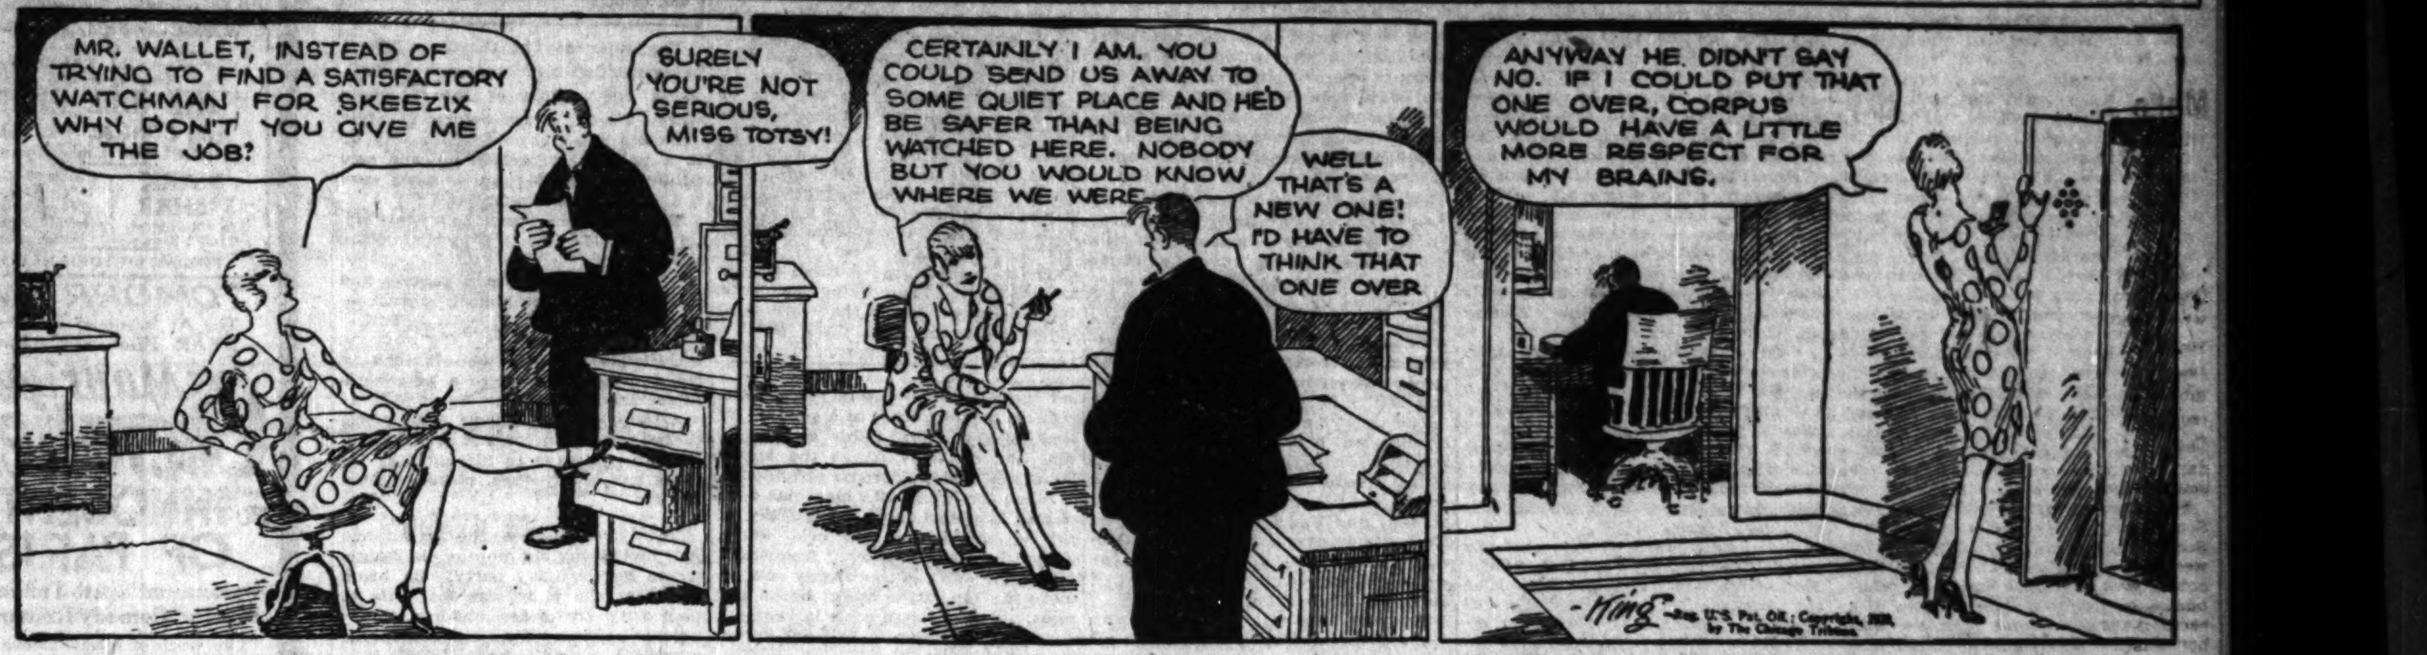
GASOLINE ALLEY—ANOTHER ONE TO PONDER OVER



MR. WALLET, INSTEAD OF TRYING TO FIND A SATISFACTORY WATCHMAN FOR SKEEZIX WHY DON'T YOU GIVE ME THE JOB?
SURELY YOU'RE NOT SERIOUS, MISS TOTSY!
CERTAINLY I AM. YOU COULD SEND US AWAY TO SOME QUIET PLACE AND HE'D BE SAFER THAN BEING WATCHED HERE. NOBODY BUT YOU WOULD KNOW WHERE WE WERE.
WELL THAT'S A NEW ONE! I'D HAVE TO THINK THAT ONE OVER
ANYWAY HE DIDN'T SAY NO. IF I COULD PUT THAT ONE OVER, CORPUS WOULD HAVE A LITTLE MORE RESPECT FOR MY BRAINS.

Marquis' Bride Gets 2 Million, Father Beams

Guests Fill Streets in Which He Peddled.

BY ALFRED ALBELLI.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New Haven, Conn., July 10.—[Special.]—The streets Sylvester Z. Poli once trudged wearily peddling clay models today surged and enthused and overflowed with his crowning triumph of showmanship—the wedding of his daughter, Lillian Madeline, to the noble Florentine, Marquis Lippo Gerini.

This evening the marquis and his bride flew away in a Sikorsky amphibion for Bar Harbor, Me.

Poli, the immigrant boy who made $20,000,000 out of three-a-day vaudeville, gave away his daughter, a $2,000,000 dowery, and tons of food and drink in the grandest outburst of unbridled magnificence that ever has graced a wedding here.

Wild enthusiasm, the collapse, from excitement and the heat of a socially prominent usher, the parade of 3,000 Italian-Americans who knew Poli—when—and even bloodshed were some of the features of the ceremony.

While 900 invited guests jammed St. John's Catholic church for the services at 11 a. m., a guard of 100 police reserves kept order in a crowd of 5,000 outside. The police had plenty of trouble. One militant guest struck a patrolman in the mouth with an umbrella and the policeman, bleeding profusely, was stitched by an ambulance surgeon.

Inside the church, while the crush listened to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, Bill Comins, Yale and Olympic track star of 1924, collapsed while acting as usher. He was taken to a hospital for treatment while other Yale athletes—Ducky Pond, Bill Kline, Windy Neale, and Johnny Garvey—struggled with their ushering.

Miss Poli, a statuesque maid with raven hair, was calm and poised as she faced the three priests for the two ring service with the slender marquis. She wore the old fashioned princess robe in which her aged Italian-American mother recently celebrated the 25th wedding anniversary of the elder Polis. It was a regal garment of old venetian lace with silver cloth. Her veil was of duchess and rose point lace arranged in coronet fashion and the six foot train was ceremonially borne by two tiny pages, Laurina Poli Nolan and Edward Poli Nolan, niece and nephew of the bride. Sylvester Poli Shehan, another child nephew, was ring bearer.

Among the attractions at the reception were Helen Meany and Eileen Riggin, noted swimmers who had served as bridesmaids. Entertainment was directed by Maestro Enrico Batelli, with Sanda Biondo, of the Metropolitan Opera company, and Giuseppe Interrante, of the San Carlos company, among the singers. It was estimated the wedding cost Poli $75,000.

The Duchess Isabelle D'Aragona, sister of the groom, and her husband, and Mrs. Thomas F. Nolan, sister of the bride, acted as matrons of honor. The best man was Marquis Alexandro Gerini, the bridegroom's brother.

Clara Bow Is Engaged to Harry Richman, an Actor

Hollywood, Cal., July 10.—[U. P.]—Clara Bow, screen actress, and Harry Richman, New York musical comedy star, are engaged to marry, it was announced here tonight. The wedding, according to the actress, will take place in about five weeks. The couple met several months ago when Miss Bow went to New York for a visit and renewed their acquaintance in June when Richman came to Hollywood to appear in talking pictures. He confirmed the engagement.

Richman now owns the Club Richman in New York. He was married in 1918 to Yvonne Stevenson when he was an entertainer at the old Vernon Country club in Los Angeles, but later divorced.

Miss Bow never has been married, although her engagement has been rumored a number of times. Her father, Robert Bow, recently was sued for divorce by Tui Lorraine, young Hollywood dancer and singer.

Prince of Wales Bestows Decorations on 860 Persons

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—The prince of Wales held a private investiture in behalf of King George at St. James' palace today. Wearing morning dress, the prince walked from York house to St. James's, where he presented insignias to 860 persons on the list of birthday honors.

Sectarian Wars Called Blow to Religious Work

BY THE REV. JOHN EVANS.

In a plea for religious unity which would ultimately reach around the world, Prof. W. D. Schermerhorn of Garrett Biblical institute, in his third address before a large audience of Methodists at the Des Plaines camp yesterday, pleaded for the time to come when there would be no more Methodists. He indicated that future religion must not be limited to sectarian names.

"In the new program for Christianity, we must be united," Dr. Schermerhorn declared. "We cannot develop that program on a divided basis. It must be a great, unanimous, forward movement. Crazy people never get together, and separation is evidence of a mild form of lunacy. United Christendom means power, divided Christendom means futility."

Dr. Schermerhorn charged that most clergymen are cowards in their teaching and preaching, stating that they feared to restate the terms of religion and use forms with which the average person of today is familiar. The ministers are afraid to think for themselves, he declared.

As Prof. Schermerhon developed the idea of Christian unity, he pointed out that other applications of unity would follow which would reach into economic, social and political fields. He stated that he price of such unity would be great, but that the world may have it as soon as it is willing to pay.

"We need a leveling up, and not a communistic leveling down, and that leveling process must go on until every man has enough," he declared. "Christianity never can be Christianity as long as one human being grinds the face of his brother. Race distinction must be removed. The world cannot be Christ ruled and white ruled at the same time. A new kind of patriotism is needed. Under the Kellogg pact the man who shouts for war is no longer a patriot."

The Rev. Axel Pearson, pastor of Emanuel Methodist church, Evanston, assured his 700 Methodist hearers last night that the "wet press" has an important religion function.

"The world's greatest newspaper is so wet," he declared, "that a single issue would put out the fires of hell for ever and ever."

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "Inquiring Reporter." Chicago Tribune. For today's question Caroline M. Bickel, McGregor, Ia., was awarded $5.

The Question.

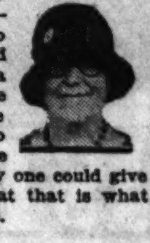
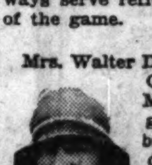
The Answers.



Mrs. J. J. Leveson, 751 North Michigan avenue, saleswoman, Davis company—My favorite way is to take them to a good play, followed by a good dinner at some restaurant where there is good music, and no dancing. That's the best entertainment any one could give me, and it follows that that is what I like to do for others.

Miss Marcelle Mueller, 1322 Cleveland street, Evanston, stenographer—Having them for dinner and then sometimes singing around the piano, or dancing, or conversation. Often conversation reveals much of interest.

Mrs. Minnie Flynn, 2123 South Wesley avenue, Berwyn, Ill., housewife—With us it is cards. Most of our friends like to play cards, and we enjoy the gossip that goes with the game. An evening at cards brings unexpected and often humorous developments. I always serve refreshments at the close of the game.



Mrs. Walter D. Blair, Carleton hotel, Oak Park, housewife—My favorite way is to give a dinner, and bridge afterwards; or, dinner followed by a theater party. That is the way I most appreciate being treated. By the theater, I mean the legitimate stage. Nothing has yet taken its place for substantial entertainment.

Miss Virginia Stoltze, 1650 Hollywood avenue, secretary—I play cards, turn on the radio, and dance; sometimes play games other than cards, have the guests do their share to create diversions for everybody present.

THEATER

GEORGE SIDNEY, who hasn't performed in Chicago since, early in 1924, he and Louis Mann were co-stars in "Give and Take," is to take over the title-part of "Kibitzer," which was something of a success last season in New-York. The play is to be put into the Woods August 25.

Mr. Ziegfeld is to interrupt the New-York run of "Whoopee" after Saturday night's performance, and give to the performers a vacation of three weeks. The run is to be resumed August 6. . . . It is said that the gross receipts of the show in thirty-six weeks have been in excess of $1,500,000.

The 1929 issue of the Grand-Street Follies, which has seemed to the reporters in New-York something of a mess, is to end Saturday night. . . . Both Albert Carroll and Miss Paula Trueman, who were here in an issue last December, are to perform in the Autumn for A. H. Woods.

Miss Betty Starbuck, here and liked in "Peggy-Ann," is to be in "You for Me!"

Patrons of "Pleasure-Bound" who are unable to identify her from the printed playbills are hereby informed that the young woman who clowns mildly and effectively in the dances given by the Donahue-Boyle girls is Miss Lucille Osborne. She makes a success all her own in each performance. Miss Osborne is the "captain" or leader of this unit of dancers. . . . And it may be added that "Pleasure-Bound" is one of the two or three most successful shows in kind so far sent to Chicago by the Messrs. Shubert. It has caught the general fancy; and the Grand Opera-House is filled or all but filled at every performance.

"The Guillotine" is the name of a piece by Harry Hervey and Carleton Hildreth, who joined pens to turn Mr. Hervey's novel of "Congaï" into a play. The new work has to do with what passes for life in a French prison-camp.

Konrad Bercovici is credited with having written a piece about Gypsies for the uses of Miss Mary Ellis and Basil Sydney.

One of the big film-making corporations, the Columbia, hints that it will go heavily into the production of plays for the stage in the hope of finding suitable material for sound-pictures.

William Wayne, an amusing little fellow in two or three shows exhibited in the last four or five years in Chicago theaters, is to be the principal cut-up here in "Follow Thru!" due the end of the month in the Apollo.

George M. Cohan is interested in a piece named "What to Do," by Lewis B. Ely, and is having it tried out in one of the Connecticut towns.

Miss Chrystal Herne is to take part in some experimental performances of a piece named "The Forcing-Bed," by Lawrence Eyre. If they think well of it when they see it in try-out, the junior William A. Brady and his partner, Dwight Deere Wiman, will star Miss Herne in it. . . . Another play in which these young managers are interested is called "Biarritz."

Mrs. Leslie Carter, still eager to perform, is soon to test a new play. . . . Miss Frances Starr,—who, like Mrs. Carter, is a product of Mr. Belasco's laboratory,—is to experiment with a piece by Miss Theresa Helburn, who has a great deal to do with the operations of the Theater Guild of New-York.

Miss Helen Gahagan, last here in Mr. Tyler's revival of "Diplomacy," has cabled him that she recently made her début in opera in the title-rôle of "Tosca" in the Austrian town of Maraitska, and that the habitants thought her to be just immense.

BEG YOUR PARDON

THE TRIBUNE yesterday, in its report of two women being stricken supposedly as the result of fumes from a leaking mechanical refrigerator, quoted Dr. Charles L. Ahner, the physician who attended the women, as identifying the gas as methyl chloride. An investigation yesterday showed that the refrigerator in question, in the basement below a beauty parlor at 1739 West 63d street, does not operate with methyl chloride but with sulphur dioxide.

To Work Better, Learn to Play, Women Warned

Florida Business Group Gets Health Prize.

BY KATHLEEN McLAUGHLIN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Mackinac Island, Mich., July 10.—[Special.]—Over 2,000 working women, at Mackinac Island for the tenth annual meeting of the Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, listened today to Mrs. Rose House of New York, chairman of the national committee on health, as she emphasized that it is necessary to feel fit physically to be efficient, and that too many women fail to realize that for them the shortest route to success in the business world lies through a physician's office. For the last two years she and her associates have conducted a contest among the membership on the basis of the number of working days spent "on the job."

A large silver loving cup, the trophy offered for the best showing by state groups, was carried off amid enthusiastic applause by the Florida delegation, to which its was relinquished by Alabama.

Florida, with a record of 94.82 per cent rolled up by the members in that state, has established a record that it is believed will be difficult to equal in future years. Alabama secured the cup with a percentage of 69.

To retain their trophy next year Florida was warned it will be necessary for them to best their sister states on the basis of 50 per cent for the number of working days on the job, and the other 50 per cent according to the number of positive health examinations passed by their members. Arrangements are being made by some states to conduct these examinations in groups.

"We also want you to remember," Mrs. House warned the convention, "that eight hours in an office or store requires that you get a sufficient amount of recreation to keep the balance even. You need the great outdoors, and so we are recommending that the recreational side of our programs be stressed as it never has been. Learn to play."

The unusually large number of women physicians in attendance at the convention would indicate that the topic of health, scheduled for a round table discussion tomorrow, will be as thoroughly discussed as any topic to come before this body. Women surgeons, medical doctors and doctors of osteopathy are present.

Illinois carried off the loving cup this morning offered to states in the first district, comprising those of populations exceeding 5,000,000, for the largest increase in membership since the last national gathering.

Miss Mary L. Johnston of Trenton, N. J., chairman of membership, presented to Miss Lena Madesin Phillips, as a token of appreciation of the work of the retiring president, a roll of 4,000 names of new members, among which was that of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, secured by the Northampton [Mass.] club. Miss Phillips is one of a quartet that has attended every national convention of the organization to date, since it was founded a decade ago.

Dr. Maria Castellani of Rome, who came to this country as a delegate from the Business and Professional Women's club of Rome, made a plea at the international dinner held here tonight for the extension into Europe of the work of this organization, that opportunities for women may be developed through that medium.

"Women are crippled now," she told her audience, "for want of an international intermediary. Nowadays many business and professional women are directly connected with the international relations field. But thus far the men have all the advantages in such professions. All the most important international positions are held by them. Women hold only the smaller positions in international bodies.

"This could and should be remedied. As women get a wider acquaintance internationally, as they learn more about international affairs, they are going to make themselves felt in all these international organizations. This general federation in the United States is so powerful and well organized that I wish all the world of business and professional women to have relations with you."

Some Mothers Wear Anything But a Halo, If Facts Were Known

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Queer mothers there are in the world, women who are storing up a loveless, lonely old age for themselves when just a touch of human companionship would make their present and their later days so much, much happier!

Take Margie's mother, as one example. A good girl Margie must be. She is 19 years old, works hard all day, turns over the bulk of her salary every week, keeping out just enough for luncheon and carfare. Mother insists upon buying her clothes for her. She arrives home from work about 6 to find the table not set for dinner; sometimes vegetables not prepared, the house in need of sprucing up.

Complaints from mother while Margie dons house apron and set about doing the older woman's duties. Dinner is served eventually, thanks to Margie. Then the dishes stare the girl in the face. While she is doing them and the telephone rings, mother answers. She says to the inquiring male: "Who are you what do you want and please stop bothering my daughter. She isn't interested in you."

Hazel's mother is Exhibit 2. She is a good housekeeper, one of those painfully good ones who can make a home a miserable place to have to inhabit. She scolds and nags. No, Hazel can't bring any company there. They muss up the house. They eat too much. They make too much noise. She doesn't want the polish rubbed off the floor by dancing feet. She worked all morning to get that shine.

"Mother says: "You cannot, and you will not go running around to dances coming in here at all hours of the night. You stay at home. You have a good home. Not many girls have as good a one as you." And so on.

Lina's female parent is like Margie's in expecting her girl to take up her work after Lina's own full day standing behind a counter. Lina admits, herself, she is what might be called a bit flighty. But what young girl who loves a good time, she asks, is not? Over the mother's loud protests Lina steals away for a date with her beau.

She comes home at a reasonable hour for young girls, nowadays. Mother hurls incredible accusations at her, accuses her of things the girl says she couldn't do and wouldn't do. And life at home is just one crowded hour of unpleasantness after another.

Tribune Cook Book

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Out of One Pot.

From a hotel luncheon menu of June 18, sent to me from some distance away, I note the specialty for Mondays is "boiled brisket of beef," specialty for Tuesdays "pot-au-feu," and then, as the total menu was a Tuesday menu, there were in the soup section, besides the pot-au-feu, "consommé vermicelli" and "cold jellied consommé." This interested me for the reason that all of these could come out of one pot, and that pot would be the one in which the brisket of beef was cooked.

On the second day the pot-au-feu would be the same thing as is served under the name "petite marmite" and the liquid around a broiled brisket of beef makes the best of consommés, whether the consommé is jellied or whether it has added to it something like vermicelli, to make it one of the eighty-five varieties of consommé.

Over and over again brisket of beef broth has been recommended in this column because from one pot so many items may be produced, not the least of which is the gravy or the reduced broth in which the meat is cooked, with seasonings, to make it of whatever special sort it is, as well as the unreduced product fixed up for a consommé.

The following small quantity recipe is one we have favored: To two pounds of brisket beef add two quarts of cold water or a little more, one onion, a little parsley, one teaspoon of salt, and other seasonings if you like; and put over a fire so slow—without covering the kettle — that the water will not come to a boil short of an hour. Then skim, if necessary.

The salt was put in to help any scum to rise and not for final seasoning. It is never wise to use much salt until the broth is in final shape, reduced or not. Keep at a simmer for four or five hours, kettle covered so that the fire may be at the lowest point, to get a Parisian bouillon.

When the broth with meat has been cooked long enough, cool it quickly by setting the kettle into cold water, changing this water frequently. When the broth is thoroughly cold remove the top fat, take out bones and meat, strain through a cloth, heat up, and serve, or reduce a half and serve. Garnish to suit.

Weights in Pockets.

In order to work during the summer months, my second oldest son had to obtain a working certificate. He had been at the Jones school and they told him he was underweight.

For a whole week we fed him on fattening things and oatmeal, and he gained weight. Then I went with him down to the school. Before leaving home, I put small metal weights in his pockets. You can imagine my embarrassment when he stepped on the scale and one of the weights fell from his pocket.

The men were good natured enough to give my son his working certificate, but I'll never forget that—my most embarrassing moment. M. C.

The other day at the May fête it happened that only women were seated in one section of the bleachers where I sat. Just before the fête started a small boy edged his way up to a vacant seat beside me and said politely: "Would you womens care if a man sat here with you?"

Thinking some man had sent him up to ask, I said: "Why no, not at all."

"Thank you," he said politely and to my surprise sat himself down contentedly. T. U.

Hawaiian Film Boosts Junior League's Fund

BY THALIA

The prodigious ability displayed ever and anon these days by young society women in their zeal to amass funds for charity should, I think, terrify Big Business.

This is merely an extravagant way of remarking on the accomplishment of Mrs. Paul Winslow, who has been instrumental in accumulating something like ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND dollars for the Honolulu Junior league. When Mrs. Winslow and her husband went to Honolulu a few years ago to live, she became affiliated with the chapter there.

One of their money-making stunts was the taking of a Hawaiian movie. They secured a cameraman from Hollywood, acted and managed the thing mostly themselves, putting in a story, love interest, and loads of local color. They gave the finished movie several times in Honolulu most successfully, and Mrs. Winslow has been embarked on a glorified peddling expedition since she came to the States this spring for a long visit in Chicago, and has sold the film to about half the leagues of this country. The picture has been shown several times in Chicago since Mrs. Winslow's arrival, and is reported to be highly entertaining. One night, it was to be given at a party on the near north side, and the projector provided by the host was discovered to be the wrong kind. Nothing daunted, the party went to a nearby neighborhood movie house, waited until the last show was over, and had the Hawaiian drama reeled off for them. The Honolulu league feels that the interest from their big fund will take care of their charitable contributions forever, and that they will nevermore have to rack their brains over "benefits."

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Eckhart of Lake Forest, whose gift made possible Eckhart hall for mathematics, physics, and astronomy being erected on the University of Chicago campus, will lay the cornerstone for the structure at 11:30 o'clock this morning. Their son, Percy B. Eckhart, of Kenilworth, and their granddaughter, Miss Marion West Eckhart, a junior at the university, will be present at the ceremonies.

The board of directors of the Fort Sheridan horse show to take place tomorrow and Saturday has issued invitations for luncheon at the tea tent to a number of the prominent people who are expected to attend the show. Mrs. Casper H. Conrad Jr., wife of the commandant of the fort, is in charge of the tea tent, and will be assisted by various women of the post. Proceeds of the tent, as well as the show, will go to the Army Relief society.

The first of the series of summer musicals at the Skokie Country club will be given next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt is again in charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Durham of Winnetka plan to present their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Champlin Durham, to society at a tea in the garden of their residence in Hubbard Woods on Sept. 14. Miss Durham will enter her sophomore year at Vassar this fall.

The board of directors of the Fort Sheridan horse show to take place on Friday and Saturday, has issued invitations for luncheon at the tea tent to a number of the prominent people who are expected to attend the show. Mrs. Casper H. Conrad Jr., wife of the commandant of the Fort is in charge of the tea tent. Proceeds of the tent, as well as the show, will go to the Army Relief society.

Mr. and Mrs. Cabot Brown of San Francisco, Cal., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son. Mrs. Brown is the former Margaret Keeley, daughter of James Keeley of the Ambassador.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Hibbard of 2440 Lakeview avenue leave on Sunday for the Wisconsin north woods. They will spend a few weeks at Liberty camp, and then will be at Eagle Knob Lodge until late in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Whitney of Evanston are being congratulated on the birth of a son, Charles Pratt Whitney III, on June 22 at St. Luke's hospital. Mrs. Whitney is the former Lora Colvin.

Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Proxmire of Lake Forest are at Desbarats, Canada, with their three children. Mrs. Proxmire and the children are to remain for the summer and Dr. Proxmire is studying for a short time.

Dr. Stuyvesant Butler, son of Mrs. Hermon B. Butler, was a member of the wedding party of Miss Virginia Clark and Dr. Dick Countryman of Rockford. The wedding took place last week, Dr. Butler has just finished his interneship at the Presbyterian hospital, and is to go to the Peter Bent Brigham hospital in Boston in September.

Mrs. Earle Hambleton and her daughter, Miss Peggy Hambleton of the Ambassador sailed on the Empress of Scotland from Quebec on Tuesday to remain in Europe for the summer.

SHE'S ENGAGED

MISS V. G. RIDDELL.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Van Meter of 5200 Sheridan road announce the engagement of their daughter, Vivian Gene Riddell, to M. Kirk Bransfield, son of I. M. Bransfield of 3730 Sheridan road.

SALLY WARNS GUESTS TO BE PROMPT AT MEETING PLACE TODAY

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Are you as eager as I am, girls and boys, for the hour when today's party starts to meet Buddy Rogers and to see "Cocoanuts" at McVicker's? If you've heard anything like what I have about this fine talking picture, I know you are!

I've told you before how in "Cocoanuts" the Marx brothers are four young men who have become famous for their uproarious nonsense and musical skill. The brothers are "Harpo," "Groucho," "Chico," and "Beppo." Harpo plays the harp like a magician, never says a word but provokes great laughter with his pantomime. Groucho is the "wise cracker." Chico is the "bad boy," tough and rough, until he sits down to play the piano. Beppo is the youngest and the singer of the family.

Their stage play "The Cocoanuts," was the sensation of New York, and now we'll see it in the talking pictures. All this, of course, is what we'll see at McVicker's, but you know that we meet Buddy Rogers in another place—the "Little Chicago theater"—before we go to McVicker's. That means you must be careful about being on time at the meeting place appointed. Be sure, therefore, that you understand the arrangement, and if there's anything you don't understand, telephone me at THE TRIBUNE before the meeting time. And I expect every one who wrote for an invitation to Ravinia is just as anxious for next Sunday to come for I, too, am anxious to see who my guests will be. Well, children, SUNDAY'S TRIBUNE will have the news!

Lets Her Hair Grow, Gets Discouraged; Asks What to Do Next

by Antoinette Donnelly

"I am one of those matrons who has been letting her hair grow for a year because I thought bobbed hair was going out completely, never to return. I knew it would take about two years for mine to grow long. It's about a year old length now, and how I hate it! It is thin and hard to do anything with and never looks neat, no matter how much I fuss with it.

My hats are uncomfortable and not becoming any more. They do not fit close to the neck in the back and have a queer contour. In short, I'm dying to cut my hair again, and, now, shall I? Tell me what you observe, please. I rely on your judgment because it is always safe. BELLE M."

The above is printed because it no doubt represents the stateof mind of numbers of women about their growing or full grown hair. The outcry against the bob when it was universally worn was the sheep-following instinct of our sex which it portrayed. But we find the same sheeplike motive behind many of the longer haired sisters now. Why not, in relation to either bob or long hair, make the decision on the grounds first of greater becomingness, then as to comfort, then as to what is easiest to handle and take care of.

Some women find long hair a godsend, disposing as it does of hairdressing trips for cuts and trims. Too, many of them find it more becoming to their particular shape of face and neck. And it is, of course, smart when it is beautifully brushed and tended.

On the other hand, short hair doesn't relegate any woman to last season's ranks—not by thousands of heads—if the bob is clever. It must not be common looking. That is the rule that stands dictatorially over every short haired head at this moment. This, naturally, is going to call for some expense of upkeep, what with clever trimming, permanent or marcels, or whatever your need is.

However, if I were convinced after a long haired trial that I had done nothing to improve my looks with the experiment, I'd have it clipped off without any compunctions about style or what a next door neighbor was doing about hers.

I can't see that the bob has spent it's life, from my tower of observation, and there's no question that the hatted head is neater with a bob.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

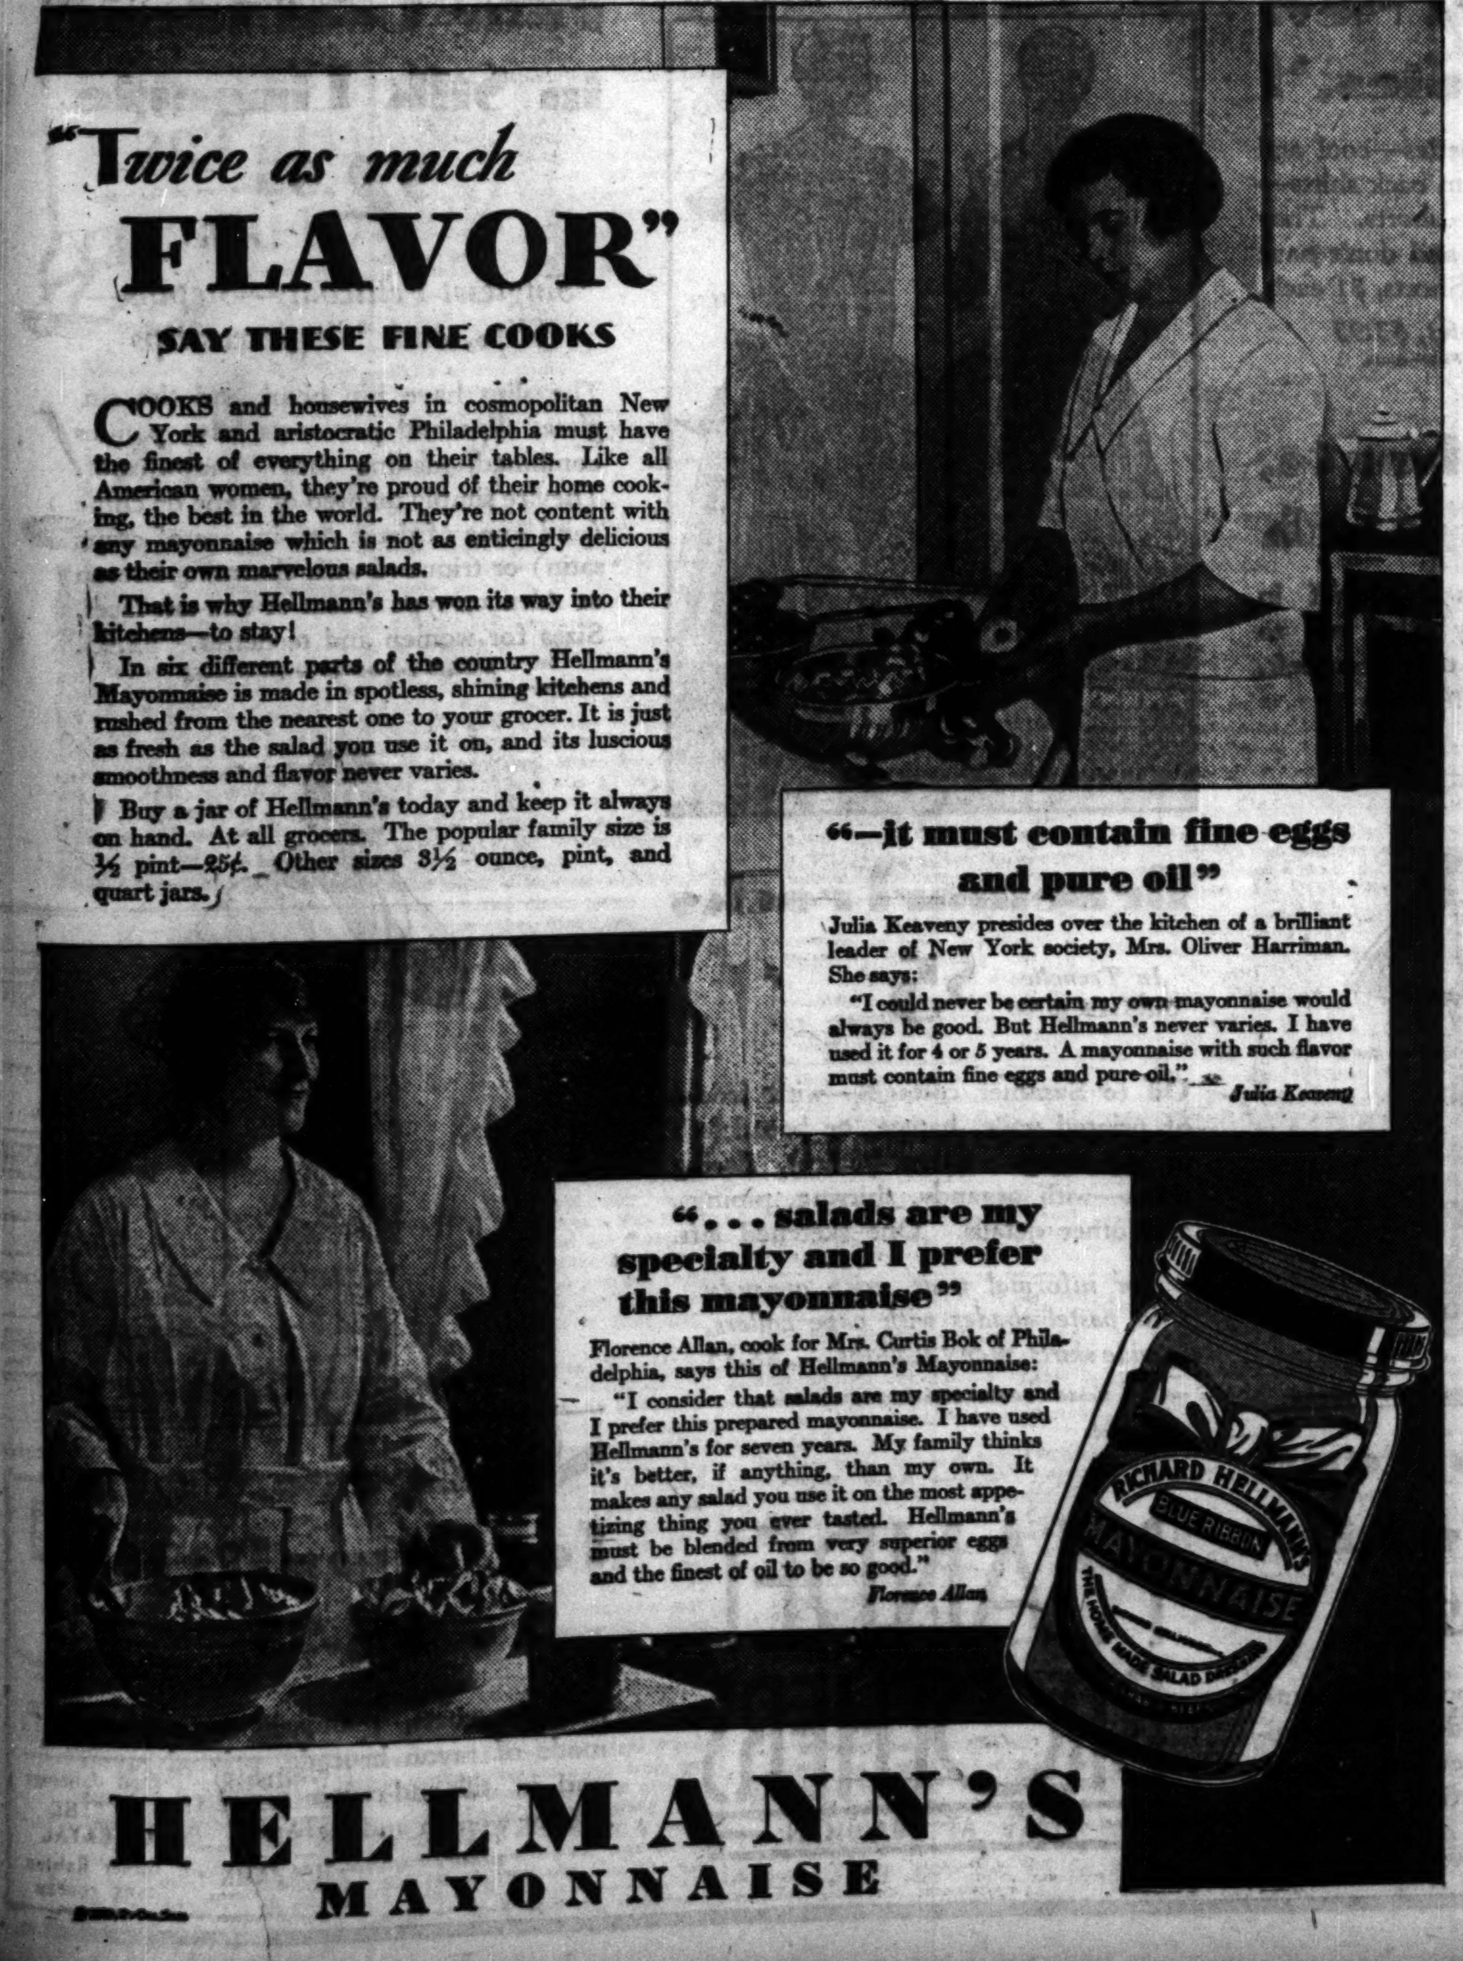
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 10.—Mrs. Hoover left this afternoon for a short visit among her girl scouts in their summer camp near Harrisburg. She is expected to return some time tomorrow. Her sister, Mrs. Large, and her son and daughter returned to the White House yesterday after spending the week-end in the country. Mrs. Large went with Mrs. Hoover to Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gann motored over to Virginia this evening to dine with Mr. and Mrs. Harley Parton Wilson in their historic old place, Hollin Hall, near Alexandria.

Dr. Leonide Pitamic, minister from the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes, who is making a tour of the Jugo-Slav "colonies" in this country, has gone from Cleveland to Chicago. He will be there some days and return here next week.

The president of La Fayette college and former president of the George Washington university, Dr. William Mathew Lewis, who was in Washington recently, will sail tomorrow with Mrs. Lewis and Miss Sally Lewis, who was a debutante a year ago in Washington, for England. They will have a four weeks' motor trip in rural England.



"Twice as much FLAVOR"
SAY THESE FINE COOKS

COOKS and housewives in cosmopolitan New York and aristocratic Philadelphia must have the finest of everything on their tables. Like all American women, they're proud of their home cooking, the best in the world. They're not content with any mayonnaise which is not as enticingly delicious as their own marvelous salads.

That is why Hellmann's has won its way into their kitchens—to stay!

In six different parts of the country Hellmann's Mayonnaise is made in spotless, shining kitchens and rushed from the nearest one to your grocer. It is just as fresh as the salad you use it on, and its luscious smoothness and flavor never varies.

Buy a jar of Hellmann's today and keep it always on hand. At all grocers. The popular family size is ½ pint—25¢. Other sizes 3½ ounce, pint, and quart jars.

Julia Keaveny presides over the kitchen of a brilliant leader of New York society, Mrs. Oliver Harriman. She says:

"I could never be certain my own mayonnaise would always be good. But Hellmann's never varies. I have used it for 4 or 5 years. A mayonnaise with such flavor must contain fine eggs and pure oil."

Julia Keaveny

"... salads are my specialty and I prefer this mayonnaise"

"I consider that salads are my specialty and I prefer this prepared mayonnaise. I have used Hellmann's for seven years. My family thinks it's better, if anything, than my own. It makes any salad you use it on the most appetizing thing you ever tasted. Hellmann's must be blended from very superior eggs and the finest of oil to be so good."

MOTHERS now learn value of MAGNESIA

GENUINE PHILLIPS MILK OF MAGNESIA For Troubles due to Acid INDIGESTION ACID STOMACH HEARTBURN HEADACHE GASES-NAUSEA

Because it is so helpful in keeping babies and children healthy and happy, every mother should know about Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

This harmless, almost tasteless preparation is most effective in relieving those symptoms of babies and children generally caused by souring food in the little digestive tract, such as sour-belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, colic. As a mild laxative, it acts gently, but certainly, to open the little bowels in constipation, colds, children's diseases.

A teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia does the work of half a pint of lime water in neutralizing cow's milk for infant feeding, and preventing hard curds. Its many uses for mother and child are fully explained in the interesting book "Useful Information." It will be sent you, FREE. Write the Phillips Co., 117 Hudson St., New York, N. Y.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 30 years.

Nursery School Teacher Solves Many Problems

Mrs. Gladys Huntington Bevans

A book on the care of babies by Miss Carolyn Conant Van Blarcom, a noted authority on the subject, can be had at The Tribune Public Service office, 1 South Dearborn street, for 50 cents, or by mail for 60 cents. Two booklets by Mrs. Bevans, one on "Prayers and Graces for Children" and another on "Books to Be Read to Children or by Them," will be sent free on receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Is your baby 15 months old?

Is your little girl over 2? Your little boy over 3?

Are you a thoughtful mother and do you often wonder, for instance, in the course of a busy day:

Just how much you should help to feed your small child and how much you should expect him to do himself?

Whether at a certain age he ought to be undressing and dressing himself?

How much you should be on hand for certain daring things he does in walking, climbing, and play?

How much of a knock or accident it is wise to allow and how much will make him timid of an experience or piece of apparatus?

How much of your guidance is necessary in the use of new playthings and how much help is bad for your tiny boy or girl in handling familiar material?

How much you should sugarcoat the routine processes of washing and eating and dressing and toilet, which can have no possible intrinsic interest for a little child?

When you should suggest the beginning of table manners? Do you wonder about these and a thousand other things each day?

If you are a mother whose child has no companionship you need to know the answers. If your child has playmates you need to know the answers. If you are one of several mothers who are deliberately planning for your children to play together every day under the care of one of you in turn, you need to know the answers.

I know of no book in which those answers can be found in more interesting or more enlightening form than in the descriptive report of her nursery school experiment written by Harriet Johnson.

This book contains only eighty pages, of which thirty-eight are devoted to the results of her work with a small group of children up to 3 years of age. But they are the most enlightening and practical thirty-eight pages I know of anywhere for the mother [or teacher] of children of that age.

The latter half of the report is devoted to notes from the daily records kept of the children. These make familiar reading—you will find there many of the things your baby or tiny child does and says, and perhaps profitable suggestions on how to meet them.

This small book really contains the substance of Miss Johnson's later and more detailed book which was reviewed in this column some weeks ago. This report is one more record of the valuable work conducted by the bureau of educational experiments. It is called "A Nursery School Experiment" [descriptive report] by Harriet M. Johnson. The cost is seventy-five cents.

"I wonder if it would be possible for you to obtain a tennis racquet for me. I have a chance to learn to play this summer, but cannot afford to buy a racquet. I would be glad to have an old one repaired. I. K."

If you are a devotee of this game you know what a healthful and enjoyable sport tennis is. Perhaps you have a racquet, too, which this young woman may have so that she may take advantage of this opportunity to play the game.

Yachting Costumes Just as Good on Land

BY LOLITA.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Fashion's diary is commencing to look like Fashion's log. Nothing but the sailor's chronicle of daily events can, in fact, express all these marine activities in the world of sports clothes. Whether our cruise extend no farther than the bend in the old creek, or whether it be taken in a car, yachting and middy trends express the spirit of the hour.

Today we are showing one more evidence of this fact. Here is a "yachting" costume which will probably win its cup on land just as well as at sea. It consists of a jacket of navy blue serge or flannel, set off with brass buttons and worn with a white crêpe frock. Yes, the latter includes as a matter of course a middy blouse, which, like the skirt, is trimmed in red, white, and blue silk. The collar is the sailor type and finishes with a tri-color scarf.

The jacket ensemble of all types seems to grow more conspicuous every day. A number of those being bought for warm weather are in linen, with handkerchief linen tuck-in blouses of contrasting color. In this connection one must speak of the vogue of black linen, as reflected by some of our smartest shops. Eminently chic are such suits developed with the aid of the blouse in charteuse, white, blue, or rose handkerchief linen blouse.

The gingham suit is also still functioning. And, as a matter of fact, gingham is being employed for many of the sports ensembles so characteristic of this season. Among these are the "rompers" with the suntan backs

FARM AND GARDEN

BY FRANK RIDGWAY

Midwest gardeners are having an unusual amount of trouble with insects in both flower and vegetable gardens.

Practically all kinds of flowers are being attacked by aphids, or plant lice, and cut worms, which are the chief offenders, according to reports from growers. Entomologists of the state college of agriculture say that more than the usual number of reports of insect damage to flower gardens are coming in from Illinois growers this year.

C. C. Compton of the college says that cut worms may be dug up and killed but a better way is to sprinkle poison bran bait lightly on the ground just before sunset on successive days until the pests are under control.

Nicotine sulphate spray is generally used to kill plant lice. Compton recommends using this poison at the rate of one tablespoon to a gallon of water to which has been added an inch cube of laundry soap. Nicotine dust may be used. In either case see that the spray or dust hits the lice as they feed on top and bottom side of plant leaves.

For plant lice that feed on the roots of asters and other plants Compton recommends watering the plants with a cupful of the nicotine solution with the soap left out. Another one of his remedies is to mix finely ground tobacco in the soil before the plants are set.

Ants spread plant lice. Two tablespoonfuls of carbon disulphide poured into the ants' nest will help put an end to this coöperation between ants and lice. Compton advises the use of a broom handle in punching holes in the nests before applying the carbon disulphide. A chunk of wet sod put over the hole will help prevent the gas from escaping.

BUSH HURLS CUBS TO VICTORY OVER GIANTS

BLUE LARKSPUR ARRIVES FOR $60,000 CLASSIC

BRADLEY COLT ADDS PRESTIGE TO RICH STAKE

18 Likely Starters on Grounds.

MACK GARNER.

When Blue Larkspur, winner of the Belmont and Withers stakes, arrived at Arlington yesterday to fill his engagement in the American Classic to be run Saturday, it became certain that the $60,000 added event will become the most important 3 year old struggle decided in America this year.

Eighteen starters were on the grounds awaiting the call to battle, and it seemed fairly certain that all but one or two of them will accept the issue. There was a flood of money for Blue Larkspur soon after his arrival, and the Bradley colt no doubt will go to the post as the favorite.

Starter.	Wt.	Owner.
Blue Larkspur	126	E. R. Bradley
Clyde Van Dusen	126	H. P. Gardner
Dr. Freeland	126	W. J. Salmon
Windy City	126	F. M. Grabner
Grey Coat	123	Samuel Ross
Voltear	119	Dixiana Stable
Sun Hatter	119	W. S. Kilmer
Dr. Parrish	119	J. W. Parrish
Live Oak	119	Rosedale Stable
Double Heart	121	Three D Stock Farm
Vermajo	121	Three D Stock Farm
Royal Ford	116	Three D Stock Farm
Rose of Sharon	116	J. N. Camden
Glen Wild	116	J. Fred Adams
Folking	119	H. T. Archibald
Jean Valjean	119	Keeneland Stud
Paul Bunyan	119	L. M. Severson
Frances Milward	114	Mrs. E. Denemark

Expect Capacity Crowd.

With this outstanding race on the program, a crowd that may be the largest ever to go to the races in Chicago appeared in prospect. Offices of the American National Jockey club were besieged yesterday by persons seeking reservations. It indicated the large Arlington plant will be taxed to capacity for the first time.

When Blue Larkspur was unloaded, he appeared to be in perfect physical condition. Despite his rather rugged campaign this season in which he has been just about as much of an in and outer as the others of his age, there wasn't a blemish to mar his almost perfect conformation.

Blue Larkspur arrived in charge of Chappie Hastings, who will saddle him in the Classic. Head Trainer Dick Thompson, after a long illness, decided not to make the trip here from New York. Owner Bradley will arrive today and Jockey Mack Garner, who is to ride the Belmont stakes winner, is due here on Saturday morning.

Accompanying Blue Larkspur on the long trip from New York was Buddy Bauer, the older handicap star in the Bradley barn, which will remain over for the Arlington handicap and the City and Suburban. Both Blue Larkspur and Buddy Bauer looked the part of picture horses as they marched out of their private express car.

Many Van Dusen Backers.

While the Blue Larkspur followers were to be found everywhere in the big crowd at Arlington yesterday and about the loop last night where the crowds were already beginning to assemble for the Classic, there were many Clyde Van Dusen backers around despite the defeat he suffered in the Classic trial on Tuesday. Rose of Sharon also had her backers and when Owner Fred Grabner announced definitely that Windy City will start, this colt also came in for quite a lot of support.

Of the others, Dr. Freeland, the Preakness winner; Grey Coat, which beat Blue Larkspur in the Dwyer stakes; Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Sun Hatter, and Mrs. Emil Denemark's Frances Milward came in for considerable attention.

But as the race nears it gives every promise of being an open affair. The field includes all the largest money winning 3 year olds of the year. The principal ones with their earnings are Blue Larkspur, $93,550; Clyde Van Dusen, $61,919; Dr. Freeland, $53,325, and Windy City, $51,900. Rose of Sharon, victorious in the Ashland Oaks, Kentucky Oaks, Illinois Oaks, and Latonia Oaks, was right behind the leading money winning colts.

Should Blue Larkspur win the Classic he will increase his season's earnings to an amount exceeding $150,000, which will place him far in the lead of the year's winning horses.

Injunction Fails to Protect Cleveland Horse Racing

Cleveland, O., July 10.—(AP)—In the face of an injunction restraining Sheriff E. J. The arrests came as the first attempt was made in Cuyahoga county in the last two years to hold running horse races.

JEAN ARMSTRONG WINS 2 UP FROM VIRGINIA INGRAM

BY HARLAND ROHM.

Matrons and maids each have a bracket to themselves as a result of the quarter final matches in the Chicago championship of the Women's Western Golf association at Butterfield yesterday. In the top bracket of the semi-finals, Mrs. Melvin Jones, four times champion, will play Mrs. John Arends of Kildeer, and in the lower brocket two Indian Hill youngsters will match shots, Miss Jean Armstrong and Miss Helen MacMorran.

The outstanding golf of the day came in Miss Armstrong's defeat of Miss Virginia Ingram, who failed to match her brilliant 83 of the preceding day. Miss Armstrong was out in 48 and four down, but in a sudden reversal of form she came home in 39 one under women's par and won seven of the nine holes to win her match, 2 up.

Match Changes Hands.

Miss Ingram won three of the first four holes and was five up in seven holes before three putts cost her the eighth and they halved the ninth in par three. Three pars and two birdies on the first five holes of the second nine changed four down to one up for Miss Armstrong, as Virginia three-putted four of the five greens and was short with her pitch on a short hole.

A trap cost Jean the fifteenth, squaring the match, but she won the next hole as Miss Ingram blasted from a trap to the rough. They halved the 17th in fours and Miss Ingram missed her approach on the 18th. Miss Armstrong had 48—39—87 and Miss Ingram 44—47—91.

After a bad start Mrs. Arends played good golf with the faculty of hitting all her bad shots on a few holes, to win from Miss Eva May Johnson of Skokie, 3 and 2. She was even par of 42 on the first nine, with three birdies and four pars on her card, and 3 up. Miss Johnson won the first hole and the sixth.

The advantage shifted rapidly at the start of the home nine. Miss Johnson won the first two holes, but Mrs. Arends discarded her poor putting to finish 5 4 5 4 4.

Mrs. Mida Defeated.

Those rivals of years, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Lee Mida of Butterfield, won't meet in this tournament, for Mrs. Mida was eliminated by the steady golf of Helen MacMorran. Mrs. Mida missed a two foot putt for a half on the first hole and while she squared the match on the fourth where Miss MacMorran topped an approach, the Butterfield star never could get an advantage. The only other hole not halved in the first nine was the eighth, on which Mrs. Mida drove to the rough and put her third in the rough. She was out in 44 and one down at the turn to Miss MacMorran's 43.

After the turn Miss MacMorran quickly pushed her advantage to three up with two pars, as Mrs. Mida put her second in a ditch on the tenth and overdrove the green on the eleventh. Then Helen had her troubles on two holes topping a brassie on the twelfth and three putting the thirteenth, Mrs. Mida winning both. They halved the 14th and Mrs. Mida squared the match on the 15th when Miss MacMorran pitched into a trap. The Indian Hill girl won the next with a birdie four while Mrs. Mida stubbed an iron shot and the 17th with a par when Mrs. Mida's second shot hit the green and rolled over.

Mrs. Jones Plays Steadily.

Mrs. Jones played her usual steady game, never being far away from par, to enter the semi-finals for at least the eighth time by defeating Mrs. C. W. Blackwell of Calumet, 5 and 3. The four time champion was out in 45 and one up, but she won the first

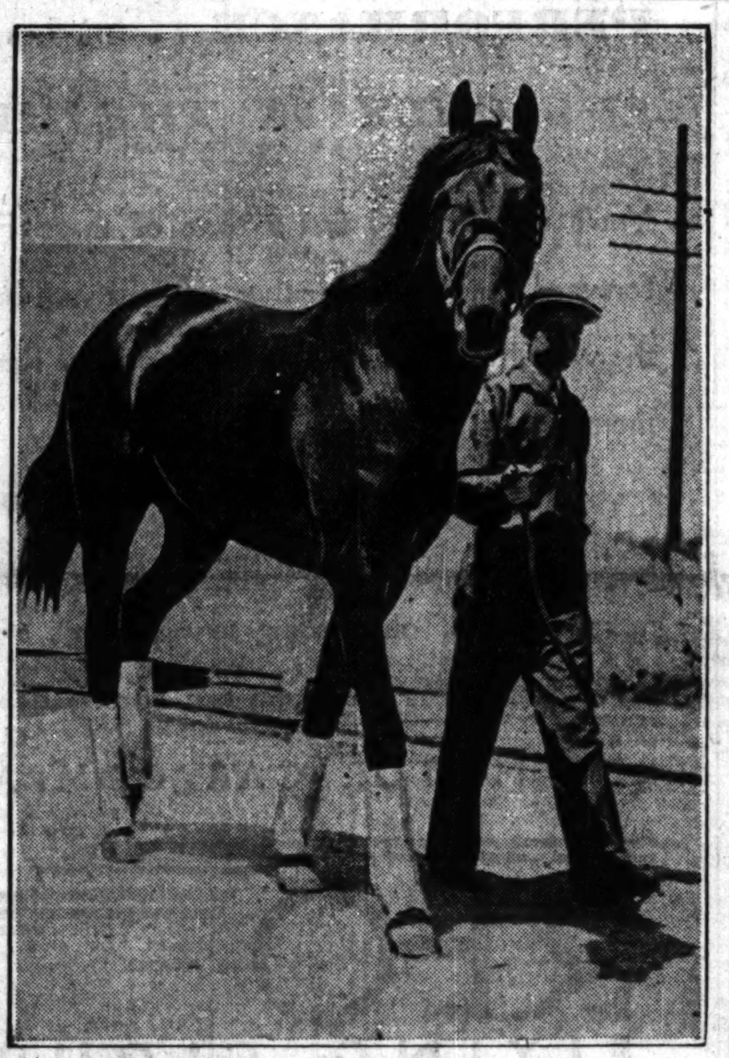
LOOK LIKE A FAVORITE?



E. R. Bradley's Blue Larkspur reached Arlington yesterday for his engagement in the American Classic Saturday. The Belmont and Withers stakes winner probably will be the favorite of the eighteen starters.

In the Wake of the News

LOCKER ROOM REVOLT.

A MEMBER of one of Chicago's most exclusive golf clubs was approaching the ninth green when he heard sounds of singing from the locker room. He stopped in amazement. He knew of nothing this season to cause singing in Chicago's arid locker room district. So, after sinking his putt, he stepped to the clubhouse to investigate.

What he saw there was a sight to his previously sore eyes. About fifty members, apparently by pre-arrangement, had decided to defy club officers, rules and everything else. It was a bonnie party as "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," "Sweet Adeline" and all the former locker room favorites broke in chords or discords to the inspiration of inhibited refreshment.

Asking one of the ringleaders what it was all about, he received the reply, "We're tired of this thing. Chicago is the only district in the whole country where golf clubs are so dry that set-ups are not served. We're not going to stand for it any longer. If the directors want to suspend or expel us, they'll suspend or expel the greater part of the playing membership and the fellows who support the clubhouse. Come on, join our Boston tea party."

The player in question sent for his clubs, dismissed his caddie and played no more golf that day. We have not heard what action, if any, club officers took in the matter.

Razzing—and Its Place.

Dear Harvey: Many sport fans enjoyed Gaar Williams' recent cartoon wherein "A ball fan gets on the wrong lot" and razzes a golfing star. It recalls a similar instance at Detroit that carried as much humor as did the cartoon.

Two summers ago Bill Tilden and Sandy Wiener were battling John Hennessey and Luke Williams in the national clay court finals. Williams made a beautiful smash for which both Tilden and Wiener started, only to stop and watch it go between them for a clean point. Whereupon a ball fan in the crowd in a drawling nasal voice, called "Come on there, you guys, let's have a little teamwork out there! Whassa matter with you?"

The crowd was properly shocked if somewhat amused, but the temperamental Tilden blew up and dropped several points before he recovered. Shortly, Hennessey repeated Wiliams' shot and the same thing happened. Again the nasal voice, "A little coöperation out there, you birds."

Tilden stopped the game and demanded something be done. The referee made a noble appeal for observance of sportsmanship and the ethics of tennis. Williams and Hennessey won. C. S. M.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

Lust to win yesterday continued rampant in the bosoms of our White Sox even though the proud Yanks were in town. Tommy Thomas repudiated the persistent claim he is one of the favorite cousins of the New York crew and calmly thrashed the big brutes as if they never had been his jinx. The score was Sox, 6; Yankees, 3.

The victory was the first for our boys in nine contests played between the two clubs this year; the second for Tommy over the Yanks in the thirteen he has started against them during his major league career; and four out of the last five for the Sox against eastern pennant contenders.

Shires Fools the Boys.

Not content to whip the world champions, Blushing Arthur Shires showed an ornery strain in the seventh inning by making the pompous visitors look clownish. With Arthur on second the Yankee battery and infield assembled in the center of the diamond for a conclave and high powered strategy discouse. Discovering third uncovered Arthur dashed to the bag. The shouting of the crowd awakened the Yank team and Sherid, coming out of the coma, threw the ball away, Arthur proceeding home. It all was very amusing.

The Sox didn't lose much time getting their offensive under way. Reynolds led off the second inning with the first of his three hits, a single through Durocher, and stopped at second when Kamm singled to center. Watwood bunted and the lightning like Mr. Reynolds slid into third well ahead of Heimach's throw to that station, filling the bases with none out. Kerr's sacrifice fly to Meusel moved up all three runners, Reynolds scoring. Kamm scored while Heimach was throwing out Berg, then Thomas got the first of his two hits, scoring Watwood. Metzler flied to Combs.

Watwood Tries the Impossible.

A bit too much zeal on the part of Johnny Watwood resulted in the first Yankee run after one was out in the third. Durocher lined to center, and Johnny made the mistake of diving for it, though he didn't have a chance for the catch. The ball rolled to the flagpole for a spurious triple. Heimach struck out, but Combs rammed a single off Shire's glove which put Durocher over. Robertson then flied to Reynolds.

Yanks Score in Eighth.

In the fourth inning Ruth doubled after Gehrig had grounded out to Kerr, and went to third on Watwood's faulty throw in the relay. He scored on Lazzeri's sacrifice fly to Reynolds. Meusel also flied to Reynolds.

Art singled to center and stopped at second on Reynolds' third hit, a bunt to Gehrig which Carl was able to beat out. The New York outfit, exclusive of the outfielders, then went into a huddle, apparently to decide how to pitch to Kamm. It was while this conference was going on that Art pulled his aforementioned coup which made the Yanks look so bad.

The third and last Yankee run came in the eighth. Thomas' third and last pass went to Robertson, who was forced by Gehrig. Ruth's second double scored Lou from first. Kerr threw out Lazzeri, Ruth taking third, then Meusel fouled to Kamm.

WALLACE WINS DECISION OVER TOMMY GROGAN

Cleveland, O., July 10.—[Special.]—Punch drunk and weary, but determined, Tommy Grogan, Nebraska Wildcat, battered Billy Wallace of Cleveland all over the ring in the tenth and final round of their bout here tonight, but his late spurt was in vain. The decision went to Wallace but the huge crowd's cheers were given to Grogan.

Clipped on the jaw by a crushing right just as the third round terminated, Grogan reeled for several seconds and then fell to the canvas. His seconds worked over him frantically but it was a dazed fighter who came out in the fourth.

Chocolate Wins One-Sided Fight Against Fernandez

Cub Manager Defends Hack, Stephenson

New York, July 10.—[Special.]—President John A. Heydler of the National league, who today completed his examination of Cincinnati players concerning the Wilson-Donahue fracas in a Chicago station last Thursday night, admitted he had been informed that Wilson struck Pete Donohue without provocation.

Wilson, Cuyler and Jonnard will appear before Heydler Friday morning. Wilson will tell what Donohue said that entitled him to a punch in the face. Cuyler and Jonnard who were with Wilson when Donohue walked up, will corroborate Hack's version.

"I was on my way to Buffalo," McCarthy said today, "but I would not squawk about a fight or two.

"Of one thing I am absolutely certain. Riggs Stephenson did not intentionally hurt Hughie Critz. Stevie went into second base to break up the double play. That was baseball and the base belonged to him. He and Hughie went down in a tumble. Critz was not spiked. His knee was hurt in the fall.

"Riggs Stephenson and Hack Wilson are not roughnecks. They are clean cut gentlemen and great players. And you won't hear them or any of the rest of our club crying, no matter where we are in the race."

WHAT HENDRICKS SAYS.

Boston, Mass., July 10.—[Special.]—Manager Jack Hendricks, who brought his Redlegs to town today for a series with the Braves, describes the Wilson-Kolp fight as follows: "Wilson hit a single in the game in question. Kolp, whom I was sitting beside, said: 'You are a lucky hitter, Hack, but you'd be pie for me. You'd be lucky to get a foul off me, because you're a quitter.' That's all; no profanity or abuse. It was 'riding' a relic that might well be eliminated from the game; but that's all. Well, Wilson left his base and rushed at Kolp, while Dressen touched him with the ball and Umpire Charles Rigler came over to stop the trouble. That evening, in the station, Wilson made the threat to several of our players that he would come into the Cincinnati car and make Kolp apologize. Donohue, who never has any trouble and is a mild fellow, said, 'You'd better not, Hack—you might not come out.' Whereupon Hack hit him."

BRUINS SCORE ONE AT A TIME FOR 6-2 SHADE

Battling Hack Gets 20th Homer.

FRED BLAKE.

New York, July 10.—Guy Bush is the real giant killer. He stood before McGraw's men today like the nemesis he is for them, and they swung frantically and ineffectively at what he threw. Meanwhile the Cubs were attacking in a fashion that was deadly in timeliness, and out of it all came a 6 to 2 triumph that kept the second place Chicagoans one and one-half laps behind the pacemaking Pirates. At the same time the chesty Giants were set back to three and one-half games from the second notch.

Bush accomplished this rout of an old foe by making their bats practically useless. His mates gave him a lead in the opening inning, and he buckled into the task of protecting it. With a tally at a time, this lead grew and grew and before reaching the half way mark, when the Giants scored their first run, the struggle was as good as over so far as New York was concerned. But Bush continued the even tenor of his way, and the Cubs continued driving 'em home one at a time right up to the ninth when Battling Hack Wilson capped it all by slipping a homer into the seats.

Homer Silences Booers.

Wilson's homer was a pleasing smash off the third hurler employed in a hopeless cause by McGraw, and it served to silence some of the yokels who had been riding "Hack" from the start. There were other things of importance. Zach Taylor, for instance, made his debut as a Cub backstop and twice singled to start as many runs. Two singles by Cuyler led to the same conclusion. A single and a double by McMillan were similarly helpful. And even Bush, for whom a base hit is a Roman holiday, heaped coals on the fire in the form of two clean clouts. Unhappily for Hornsby, he didn't figure much, but he helped with one scratch blow.

McGraw set his machine in motion with Lefty Hubbell in charge of the pitching mound, but the Cubs erased him in five innings, by which time they had scored three times. Then they nicked Judd for one run in his two round workout and finished with their final two tallies off Henry in the eighth and ninth. If they can do as well against Fitzsimmons and Walker while Blake and Malone are endeavoring to stem the Giant rush in a double header tomorrow, the smile that was knocked off McCarthy's face by the two unexpected defeats in Boston may return.

Cohen's Error Helps.

It was largely because of the generosity of Cohen that the Cubs took a one run advantage in the first chapter. McMillan was out on a fly, but English refused to nibble at anything except perfect pitches and Hubbell couldn't deliver them, so the batter walked. Hornsby annoyed the master minded McGraw with a high bounding single to Lindstrom. In the midst of jeers and cheers from the attending populace, Wilson bounced one to Cohen, who fumbled.

This filled the sacks. The first pitch to Cuyler was sent to right for a sacrifice fly, English scoring after the catch. Stephenson popped out the inning.

An opening of limited proportions was available to the Cubs in the third, but they could drive nothing through it. With one gone, Hornsby smacked one like a rifle shot to center, and Roush flagged it. Then Hubbell passed Wilson and Cuyler, probably out of fear as much as anything else. The opening closed up with Stephenson's grounder to short. In the home half of this frame, the Giants produced their first hit off Bush—a single by Hubbell—but it didn't happen until after two were out, and it meant nothing.

McCarthy's tourists made it 2 to 0 by picking up another run in the fourth. After Grimm had been tossed out, Taylor uncorked a stem winding single through short. Bush was next, and as he had helped himself to a single in the second the Giants naturally weren't expecting another. He slapped a one base drive to right and put Taylor on third. McMillan then hit the right field concrete with a two bagger, scoring Taylor and leaving Bush on third. English then popped out to Jackson, and Hornsby swung in vain at three strikes.

Cubs Pick Up Another Run.

The process of getting 'em one at a time continued in the Cubs' fifth. Wilson started the inning with a sizzling drive that Ott caught with one hand by doing a human fly act on the right field wall. Cuyler hit the same wall for a single. He lost no time stealing second for his twenty-fifth burglary of the season, and continued to third on Hogan's bum throw. Stephenson contributed a fly to right and the fleet hoofed Cuyler had no trouble beating Ott's throw to the plate. This gave the tourists a 3 to 0 advantage.

Bush Escapes Trouble.

Bush had a little trouble on his hands in the fourth when a pass to Ott and single by Terry put men on third and first with two out. The gaunt Mississippian pulled out of this mess by fanning Cohen. The same luck didn't attend Bush in the domestic fifth, however, and the first Giant run resulted. Jackson pried open the chapter with a single and raced to third on a similar smash by Hogan. Crawford was ushered forth to bat for Hubbell, and Bush fanned him. Roush grounded into a force out that let Jackson score, and Leach bounced to Grimm for the third out.

Judd was led to the Giant mound in the sixth, but the Cubs didn't disturb him until the seventh. At this point they constructed their fourth run. After Hornsby's demise, Wilson bounced a liner off the right field wall for two bases. Cuyler scored him with a single over first. Stephenson popped to Jackson after which "Kiki" stole second for No. 26, but he died there when Grimm's fly completed the round.

Wilson Makes Excusable Slip.

An excusable slip by Wilson paved the road for a Giant run in the home seventh. With one out, Hogan hoisted a fly to short center. Hack hustled to the desired spot, but was just a hit late, and the ball slipped off the tip of his glove for a double. Kaufmann was put on to run for slow motion Hogan, and O'Farrell batted for Judd. He spanked a single through short, and Kaufmann crossed the plate. Roush then walked, but the next two batters bounced into force plays.

The eighth caught the Cubs in the act of scoring their fifth run of the matinée. Henry assumed the pitching burden, and Taylor greeted him with a single to right. Bush bunted on the fly to Henry, and the latter made a wild peg trying to double Taylor off base. This blunder permitted Taylor to reach second. McMillan almost removed an ear from Henry with a line single to center, Taylor going home. Then Wilson made it an even half dozen with his home run drive into the right field second floor on the first ball pitched to him in the ninth.

HAWTHORNE WILL USE 2 PONIES IN PARADE TO POST

John C. Schank, president of the Chicago Business Men's Racing association, announced yesterday that two lead ponies instead of one will be used as the fields parade to the post during the summer meeting at Hawthorne next month.

"I believe the extra pony will be the means of preventing many runaways," Mr. Schank said. "One pony will remain with the field of horses during the parade while the other will be some distance in front and will be in a position to grab the bridle of any horse that starts to run away."

BRASSIE FAILS, SO TOON LOSES IN MIDWEST PLAY

Ahlbeck Wins, 10 Up; Semi-Finals Today.

When semi-finalists tee off today in the second annual mid-west public links championship at Lincoln park, George Toon will be back at his accountancy. When his time worn brassie failed him yesterday in the quarter-finals the 19 year old youngster blew so high that he lost ten straight holes to R. A. Ahlbeck, Pickwick veteran, who won the right to meet Sterling Dawson of Lincoln park in the upper bracket today. Roy A. Bowker, also of Lincoln park, plays Guz Fetz, unattached, in the lower bracket. Dawson and Fetz are favorites.

These two played the golf yesterday, Dawson trimming the medalist, E. E. Bones, in better than par figures and Fetz eliminating H. Isacson. But it was Toon, with his four battered irons and the ancient brassie, that made it more than just a round of golf. The closest battle of the day was the one between Bowker and C. W. Stewart, unattached, the two behemoths of the meet. The former won on the 18th when Stewart missed an eight foot putt, Bowker taking the hole and halving the match.

Toon, making his first start before a gallery, after winning the first two rounds in his first tournament appearance, was up in the clouds from the start. He had four penalty strokes on the first three holes. His brassie drove two into the bushes on the first two holes.

In vain he accepted the loan of a brassie from one of his Jackson park clubmates only to put another into the bushes and one in the water. After that it was merely a matter of time for Ahlbeck, who cruised along in one stroke over par, to end the match at the tenth.

Dawson, who spends his days on the golf links and his evenings behind a movie machine, looms as a hot favorite to win his second Chicago public parks championship. His card yesterday and par for the nine holes follow:

Par ....................544 435 354— 37
  Dawson—
Out ....................534 535 344— 36
In .....................644 434 3
```

Results of the championship flight: Sterling Dawson, Lincoln Park, defeated E. E. Bones, Jackson Park, 3 and 2; R. A. Ahlbeck, Pickwick, defeated G. W. Toon, Jackson Park, 10 and 8; Gus Fetz, unattached, defeated H. Isacson, unattached, 4 and 3; Roy A. Bowker, Jackson Park, defeated C. W. Stewart, unattached, 1 up.

Second flight results: R. Bauman defeated P. E. Gridley, 5 and 4; Dr. R. N. Crow defeated F. Andrus, 7 and 5; Jim Mahoney defeated D. Gunther, 5 and 4; E. E. Noell defeated L. C. Youngquist, 1 up.

Kansas City, Mo., July 10.—(AP)—Don Moe, 19 year old University of Oregon student, from the Alderwood Country club at Portland, entered the quarter-finals of the thirtieth annual western amateur tournament, under way on the Mission Hills course, this afternoon, after shooting one under par on the 28 holes he had to play in his first and second round matches.

The major upset of the tournament came in a second round match when Art Sweet, from Chicago, defeated a former champion, Keefe Carter, Oklahoma City, 4 and 2, after Carter had eliminated Chester Jones, University of Kansas student, 4 and 3, in a morning round. Sweet won his morning round from James A. Kennedy, Tulsa, 1 up.

Moe Out in 32.

In his morning round Moe won from W. S. Critchlow, Ardmore, Okla., 6 and 5, and in so doing turned in the lowest nine hole score of the tournament, a 32 on the first nine, on which par is 35.

This afternoon Moe eliminated Clarence Hubby of Dallas, Tex., 4 and 3. Hubby had a qualifying medal of 149 and at the end of the first day was in a four way tie for low score with 71. Hubby won his first round match from Robert McCrary of Des Moines, trans-Mississippi champion.

Moe's cards for his two rounds today, as compared with par:

MORNING.
Par—Out	444	543	443—35
Moe—Out	335	542	334—32
In	364	6
AFTERNOON.
Moe—Out	444	543	443—35
In	553	535

In the Sweet-Carter upset match the fact that Carter was off his game in the second round was not conceded by tournament followers as any discredit to Sweet, who played a steady game and had Carter 3 down at the turn.

Moe Made Favorite.

Despite the fact Moe and Carter drew the largest galleries there were other good matches during the day. Art Ecklund, Wichita, Kas., carried Rudy Knepper, Chicago, to the 19th hole to win his morning match, only to fall a 3 and 2 victim in the afternoon to Gilbert Carter, Nevada, Mo.

Frank Aylward won from Charles D. Hunter, Tacoma, Wash., 1 up on 20 holes, in the morning, and then lost to Lawrence Moller, Quincy, Ill., 3 and 1, in the afternoon, ending his second round match as unsteadily as he had been calm and sure of himself in the morning.

PERLICH, BERG READY FOR BOUT HERE TONIGHT

Jack Berg, English lightweight, and Herman Perlich of Kalamazoo, Mich., will meet in the windup of Promoter Jack Art's boxing show at the Mills' stadium, Kilpatrick avenue and Lake street, tonight. They will box ten rounds to a decision at 135 pounds.

Berg has appeared in Chicago on several occasions and his ability is well known. He is a good boxer and can hit fairly hard with his right hand. His opponent is a stiff right hand puncher. Perlich has defeated Armando Santiago, the Cuban lightweight. Both fighters finished preparation yesterday with light gymnasium workouts.

Hirschie Wilson, Danville, Ill., lightweight, and Del Monte of Oklahoma will meet in the eight round semi-windup. Other bouts, all five rounders, will bring together Larry Johnson and Oscar Battiste, Paul Panteleo and Jake Purtell, Al Keegan and Joe Grab, and Nick Taft and Ray McPeck. The first bout will be staged at 8:15 o'clock.

VIRGINIA WILSON WINS 2D ROUND TILT AT GROTON

Groton, Conn., July 10.—(AP)—Miss Helen Hicks, 18 year old golf star from Hewlett Park, N. Y., served notice that she is an outstanding threat to capture the 11th annual invitation tournament of the Shenecossett Country club by overwhleming Mrs. L. C. Dubois of Ridgewood, N. J., 9 and 7, in the second round.

The favorites continued into the third round with little opposition, except in the case of Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd of Merion, Pa. The former national title holder was forced to the 17th green by Mrs. Ruth M. Reymond of Baton Rouge, La.

Miss Virginia Wilson, Chicago, defeated Mrs. Thomas Hucknall, Connecticut state champion, 5 and 3; Miss Edith Quier, Philadelphia, downed Mrs. A. S. Fenn, New Haven, 6 and 5, and Miss Doris Bryant, Bridgeport, disposed of Mrs. Jay Kee, Hackensack, N. J., in the other lower bracket matches.

Bucs Produce Five Homers; Beat Phils, 15-9

Philadelphia, Pa., July 10.—(AP)—A home run barrage, laid down by the Pittsburgh Pirates wrecked the Phillies today under a 15 to 9 count. Five circuit clouts by the league leaders were all made at opportune moments, with George Grantham leading the attack with two. Pie Traynor, Lloyd Waner, and Fred Fussett also hit for the circuit. The Phillies also were in a hitting mood and slammed out four homers.

The clubs came within one homer of the major league record total for both clubs in a game, but neither team threatened the record for one club, which is seven. The previous mark of ten by two clubs was set in the same park seven years ago when the Phillies hit six homers and the Cardinals four.

J., runner-up for the national clay court tennis singles title, teamed with Fritz Mercur, Bethlehem, Pa., here today to win the clay court doubles crown. They defeated Ben Gorchakoff and Arthur Kussman, Los Angeles, in one of the hardest fought matches of the tourney, 10-12, 3-6, 6-2, 9-7, 6-4.

The Californians, who waited out five rain interruptions to get their chance at the title, had a tough first set, were easily superior in the second, but faded thereafter.

DODGERS SCORE 9 TO 6 VICTORY OVER CARDINALS

Brooklyn, July 10.—(AP)—Brooklyn defeated St. Louis 9 to 6 today in a heavy hitting game, the opener of the series. The Robins rapped out a total of sixteen hits at the expense of Jess Haines and Fred Frankhouse. Watson Clark pitched effectively except in the sixth and the seventh when a homer and a triple by Hafey aided two Cardinal rallies. Frederick hit a home run for Brooklyn. BY FRENCH LANE.

Eskimo the 3 year old son of North Star III-Gentlewoman, accounted for the Cherry Circle claiming stake worth $8,100 in runaway style before a crowd of 14,000 at Arlington yesterday.

At the end of the seven furlongs Eskimo, despite his name, was scorching the track and was three lengths in front of the fast finishing Clog Dance, while Fannie J., after racing in the first flight all the way, took down third money.

It was Eskimo's third straight victory of the Arlington season and from the way the crowd cheered as he came galloping home all the two dollar players in the crowd had a ticket on him. But not withstanding this popularity he was a long shot and paid $17.88 to win, $8.48 to place, and $6.06 to show. Clog Dance rewarded his followers at $23.14 to place and $14.40 to show, while Fannie J. paid $5.62 to show.

Leads All the Way.

From beginning to end it was Eskimo's race, for Jockey Willie Fronk broke in front and immediately sent him out into a two lengths lead. He galloped from there home to be in front never less than two lengths and to run the seven furlongs in 1:25 1-5.

Crofton ran second until the field hit the lower bend where Fannie J. moved up past the Pacific coast flyer. Clog Dance was having trouble finding racing room and didn't get clear until midway in the stretch. Pool shot him forward a sixteenth out and he ran over horses as he fought his way into second place. He was gaining at the windup but his drive got under way too late to worry Eskimo or Jockey Fronk.

Eskimo owned by the Cold Stream Stud of which C. B. Shaffer of Chicago is the proprietor scored his victory so handily that the race as far as the big thrill at the finish was concerned had to take a back seat to the $2,000 Lake View handicap.

In the Lake View, Golden Prince won by a nose from Audley Farm's Bobashela and just a short length back came Black Beetle in third place.

Fans Like Jean Valjean.

Jean Valjean had come in for much support but was away to a bad start. When Jockey Trimble raced him up into a contending position by the time the field hit the clubhouse turn it took all the run out of him. He was a trailer from there home, with Grand Prince in the lead for a time and Black Beetle flying to the front as they came out of the backstretch.

Golden Prince was well back for a time but gradually improved his position until he was ready to take the lead as the stretch run started. Bobashela, in tight quarters all the way, turned in a remarkable performance to be second. Steve O'Donnell took all kinds of chances with the son of Ormondale and if he could have found a little more racing room near the finish might have headed Golden Prince.

Golden Prince came within two-fifths of a second of the track record when he ran the mile and sixteenth in 1:44 2-5 and in the mutuels he paid $9.88.

The Wilmette Purse for 3 year old fillies also brought a thrilling finish in which the even money favorite Erin Queen beat Mrs. John D. Hertz' Nettie Stone by a neck. The latter worked her way up from far back and was gradually wearing Erin Queen down in the late stages.

Steve Donoghue Injured During Parade to Post

Your gear case is as important as your crank case

YOU change the oil in your crank case often. New oil means a smoother running car. New oil reduces friction. New oil means a saving in dollars and cents because it reduces wear.

Change the grease in your gear case often; at least every 5000 miles. Because fresh grease is just as necessary as fresh oil. Use Whiz Gear Grease. It does not "thin" in hot weather. It puts a cushion of pure lubricant between your gears. You'll be doing a lot of driving this summer. Don't forget to use this superior grease. Ask your dealer about other Whiz Products for your car which serve and save.

BECKER OUTLINES BEST FOOD LIST FOR CAMP TRIP

BY BOB BECKER.

How much food should we take for a two weeks' camping trip in the woods and what should the variety be? This question is being shot at us these days by outdoorsmen about to check out for a canoeing and camping cruise in country where grocery stores will be few and far between.

Probably no one feature of a camping trip is as easy to bungle as that involving the commissary. One can almost take a blindfold test on tents, air beds, cooking utensils, clothing, and sleeping bags and come out all right because such a high class, practical group of camp accessories are on the market today.

Here is a list of essential food items for two people for two weeks that we think is pretty near perfect. If you are about to go tenting in the woods with absolutely no opportunity to buy food the following list will steer you right.

It's one we used on a canoeing and camping trip a few years ago and we found it O. K. Only essentials are given. Tomorrow we will list the "preferred necessities" which we took on our trip. The list is as follows:

2 lb. cans of vegetable fat; 8 to 10 pounds of bacon; 4 lbs. flour; 3 lbs. navy beans; 2 to 3 lbs. rice; 5 pounds sugar; 4 to 6 pounds of pancake flour [depending on how much you like pancakes]; 1 pound of salt pork; 2 to 3 pounds of coffee; 8 loaves bread; 1 can powdered milk or 12 small cans evaporated milk; 1 peck potatoes; 2 lbs. salt; 5 pounds dried fruit; 1 can pepper; 1 box matches; 2 lbs. onions; 1 cake sapolio; 3 yds. toweling; 3 candles; 2 pounds butter; ¼ pound baking powder; 1 bar washing soap.

INTERSECTIONAL NET TOURNEY OPENS TODAY

The opening match of the intersectional tennis championships will be played this afternoon at 2:30 on the courts of the Chicago Town and Tennis club.

Teams representing the western, southern, Texas, eastern, Missouri valley, and California sections are entered in the meet, an annual affair. With the exception of the Davis cup squad, now training in Europe, the best racket wielders in the nation will appear today and through Sunday, when the finals will be played.

The Texas representatives take the court against the eastern contingent this afternoon, with James Quick of Dallas meeting Julius Seligson, former National Junior champion and Lehigh university star, and John Barr, the other Texan, matched against McAuliffe of New York. Two and a doubles match comprise series.

The western team, composed of mett Pare, new national clay champion and Chicago's second ing star, and Paul Kunkel of nati, drew a bye and will not until Saturday. Keith Gledhill Ellsworth Vines, the sensational fornia team, also drew a bye and matically pass to the semi-finals.

Can Drunkenness be Cured?

DRUNKENNESS is a disease requiring the most highly skilled medical treatment administered under the direction of specialists. It can be cured. More than 400,000 patients of The Keeley Institute prove it. Likewise, no institution could survive for more than 50 years unless its treatment was successful.

At The Keeley Institute, tonic and nerve foods are given the patient, and the craving for liquor is removed by restoring to the poisoned nerve cells their natural healthy condition before a single drop of alcohol had poisoned them. This craving of the nerve cells for alcohol is so irresistible . . . so powerful . . . that the strongest-willed person is unable to resist it, as medical authorities who have studied the disease will tell you.

By the restoration of the nerve cells to a normal, natural state, the irresistible craving of these cells is eliminated automatically . . . and thereafter, as a famous physician stated: "No will power is needed to prevent drinking."

VINCENT BENDIX PLANS BUDDHIST TEMPLE HERE

Will Furnish Building with Chinese Relics.

Vincent Bendix, president of the Bendix corporation, announced yesterday that he planned to erect a Buddhist temple in Chicago, reproduced from architectural drawings made in China and furnished with decorations, vestments, and musical instruments that have been used in these temples for centuries.

While no definite site was mentioned for the temple it was intimated it will be reproduced on one of the Bendix properties on the near north side. A year ago Mr. Bendix purchased for a reported $3,000,000 the Potter Palmer mansion on Lake Shore drive, between Banks and Schillers streets.

Aids Swedish Expedition.

Simultaneously it was announced that Mr. Bendix had contributed 500,000 Swedish kronen ($135,000) to Dr. Sven Hedin, head of the Sino-Swedish expedition into China. The king of Sweden previously had granted 500,000 kronen for the work.

Dr. Hedin is about to leave again from Stockholm, Sweden, for China to select the furnishings for the temple to be erected in Chicago and another temple of the same character to be erected in Stockholm.

In addition to this, Dr. Hedin will bring to Chicago such parts of the exterior of the Buddhist temple, consisting mainly of wood carvings and figures of metal and wood, as may be removed and shipped conveniently.

It is estimated the total cost of the Chicago Buddhist temple will be near $115,000.

Leave in Few Weeks.

The expedition is expected to leave for northern China and Mongolia within a few weeks. It will be able to deliver the plans and furnishings for the temple in about two years, in ample time for the World's Fair in 1933.

Dr. Hedin is a member of the Academy of Sciences and of the Swedish academy. He has just returned from an expedition in Sinkiang, China, which was backed by the Swedish government. The expedition set out to seek treasures of tools and pottery, some of which date back to the stone age.

HEARST SERVICE APPEALS RADIO CHANNEL GRANT

Washington, D. C., July 10.—(AP)—The Universal Service Wireless, Inc., today filed in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia notice of an appeal from the action of the federal radio commission in assigning to a single corporation 20 transoceanic short wave radio frequencies for handling press communications.

The appellant is a subsidiary corporation formed by the Hearst news services. The suit contends that the formation of one corporation open to all the country's press on an equal basis is a direct negation of a previous order by the commission granting short waves to Universal Service wireless.

Organization of the Press Wireless, Inc., was approved Tuesday by the commission to handle the 20 transoceanic channels, but the Hearst newspapers did not enter this group, which included THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, Chicago Daily News, Los Angeles Times, San Francisco Chronicle, and Christian Science Monitor.

Armin Hand and His Band Play to Suit Elmer

Open Air Concert Proves Good Entertainment.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

First among the many first rate programs on the air last evening was the open air concert of Armin Hand's symphonic band, through WMAQ, 8:15 to 9. "Blue Danube" waltz [J. Strauss], one of the numbers, was representative of the popular nature of the program. The band is to be admired for its rich, sonorous tone, and particularly for the telling effects produced by the use of crescendos and decrescendos.

Jean Goldkette and his W-G-N symphonic dance orchestra, augmented to thirty-five pieces, the 9:30 to 10 hour, performed such pieces as dancers should enjoy and in addition played them in special arrangements, with such coloring and originality as should please and interest the advocates of straight and undiluted symphony music.

The weekly New York orchestral and vocal program, through W-G-N, 8:30 to 9:30, has many good features, including the Revelers' male quartet, which not only enjoys a world-wide reputation, but which devotes its combined talent to worth while quartet numbers, sung in a seemingly faultless manner.

Helen Thomas Bucher, soprano, whose lovely coloratura voice was heard and admired on W-G-N's Tuesday evening 9:30 to 10 program, will, I understand, again be on the air next Sunday.

Read W-G-N's program for tonight; the forecast is most promising.

Former Cashier Tells of $34,000 Shortage.

Stockville, Neb., July 10.—[Special.]—Pleas of not guilty were entered this afternoon by Mrs. Elizabeth Brown Hogoboom, former assistant cashier of the defunct Frontier County bank, and her husband when arraigned before County Judge Seibecker on charges involving the embezzlement of $34,000 of bank funds.

The trial of the couple, returned to Stockville from Detroit, where they have lived since the failure of the bank here, is the outgrowth of examinations of bank records which revealed that a shortage resulting from the embezzlement charged was the cause of the institution's failure.

First to be called as a state witness was George J. Dold, former cashier of the bank, who told of the finding of the discrepancies.

Smartly dressed, Mrs. Hogoboom kept her eyes steadily on the witness and appeared to be little concerned. Her infant daughter was held by Mrs. Lulu Brown, Stockville postmistress and mother of the accused woman.

Testimony of Dold indicated that the shortages in the bank accounts were not discovered until about a month before its closure, October 2, 1928.

Shortly after the failure of the bank, Dold stated, Mrs. Hogoboom announced her marriage and, with her husband, former Moorefield high school instructor, moved to Detroit. Later, he said, it was learned that she had been married during the last three years she worked in the bank.

ITALIAN LEADER GRILLED ABOUT MARLOW DEATH

New York, July 10.—[Special]—"An artichoke merchant," whose limousine is partially armored and has bulletproof windshield and windows, was questioned tonight at headquarters in connection with the murder of Frank Marlow, Broadway racketeer, who was slain on June 24 during a ride from Broadway to Queens.

The dealer in the succulent vegetable was Ciro Terranova, whose brothers, Tony and Nick Morello, were slain in gang feuds several years ago.

Terranova, who is wealthy, owns a $52,000 home at Pelham, N. Y. He explained the reinforced machine by saying that he feared the fate of his two brothers.

Terranova is the leader of a powerful group of Italians. Several days ago police began a hunt for a leader of the group as the instigator of Marlow's murder. The purpose in bringing in Terranova was to question him on an appointment he had with the racketeer for the night of his death.

He was interrogated for five hours and was then permitted to go home. He is to return to headquarters tomorrow and will be confronted with five of the material witnesses held by the police.

"The five witnesses, who dined with Marlow on the night of his death," said a police official, "and who saw him greeted by a man outside the restaurant shortly after the party broke up, will be asked to look at Terranova. All of them have said that they saw only the back of the man outside the restaurant. We shall ask them to tell us whether Terranova's back looks like the one they saw."

LAST OF JAMES GANG DIES IN VETERANS' HOME

J. R. Cummins Started with Quantrill.

Higginsville, Mo., July 10.—[Special.]—James R. Cummins, last of the James-Younger bandits and almost the last of Quantrill's guerrillas, died here in the confederate home today. He was close to 85 years old and had been living in the home for 27 years. Cummins left the Quantrill band before that raider was driven into Kentucky and killed. But he had met Jessie and Frank James, Cole and Jim Younger, Oll Shepherd, and Clell Miller while they were members of the Quantrill band.

After the war Cummins lived near Richmond, in Ray county. This adjoined Clay county in which the James brothers lived. Close by was Jackson county, home of the Youngers. Bank raids began several years before the gang took to train robbery. The first bank holdup was in Liberty, Clay county, in 1867. The James boys, Cole Younger and Jim Cummins were named later as the robbers but sheriffs and prosecutors could not or did not get convicting evidence.

Follow Quantrill's Tactics.

Banks at Russellville, Ky., and Gallatin, Mo., were held up and robbed by raiders who practiced the plan of Quantrill in the raid on Lawrence, Kan. That was to pour volleys of shots up and down the streets while the robbery was in progress. In the Gallatin bank, Cashier Sheets was killed. After his surrender, in 1882, Frank James was tried for this crime and acquitted.

Cummins dropped out of the band four years before the Northfield, Minn., raid that finished Clell Miller and Bob Chiles, and sent the Younger brothers up for life.

Kills Fellow Veteran.

In 1885 Cummins was connected with a Missouri Pacific train robbery near Pacific, Mo. An express safe had been looted of $50,000. Cummins was arrested but he was never convicted for, as usual, masks prevented the state from securing identification.

In 1909, seven years after he had accepted the hospitality of the conferedate soldiers' home, Cummins knocked down a fellow inmate with a blow of his fist. The old colleague died the next day, but no charges were filed against Cummins.

NURSES' LEGACY IN DOCTOR'S WILL ATTACKED BY KIN

A petition to contest the will of Dr. Homer Merrick Thomas, for many years professor at Rush Medical college, who died Dec. 17, leaving the bulk of the income of his $500,000 estate to three nurses, was filed in the Circuit court yesterday by his son, Lester C. Thomas of Denver.

The son, who is to receive the income of a $15,000 trust fund until he reaches the age of 55, charges that his father was mentally incompetent when the will was drawn. A granddaughter, Phoebe Ann Swazey, 12 years old, who is to receive the income of $5,000 until she reaches the age of 45, also petitions to set aside the will.

Under the will, which was filed on April 5, the income of the remainder of the estate was left to Miss Sue Randall, Miss Eliza Lockwood, and Miss Mary Honan, all nurses, "for the valuable services rendered by them in their professional capacity." Miss Honan lives at 4640 Beacon street, and had not seen or heard of the doctor for 20 years. Miss Lockwood lives at 6545 Emerald avenue, and the third is dead.

The nurses are to receive the income on written application which is to be sufficient evidence of their needs. Other nurses may receive help on recommendation of the Y. W. C. A. or the Illinois Training School for Nurses. The will was drawn nine months before Dr. Thomas' death at the age of 70 years.

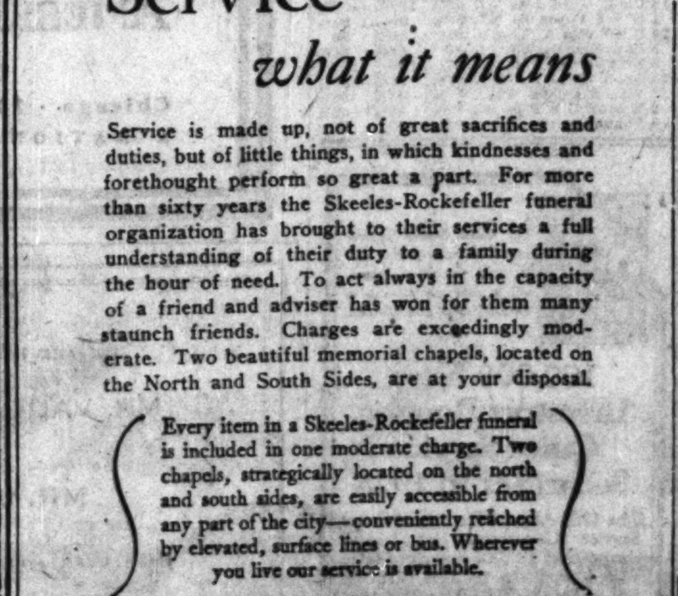
Saturday, to the Little Flower church, 80th and Wood streets. Burial will be in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Hart, 90, Will Be Buried Tomorrow

Mrs. Nancy Jane Hart, a granddaughter of a revolutionary soldier and a member of the Daughters of the Revolution, died Tuesday of heart disease at the Presbyterian home in Evanston. She was 93 years old. Mrs. Hart was the widow of James Potter Hart, president of the Hart Lumber company. Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at Graceland cemetery.



Service— what it means

Service is made up, not of great sacrifices and duties, but of little things, in which kindnesses and forethought perform so great a part. For more than sixty years the Skeeles-Rockefeller funeral organization has brought to their services a full understanding of every detail, a duty to a family during the hour of need. To act always in the capacity of a friend and adviser has won for them many staunch friends. Charges are exceedingly moderate. Two beautiful memorial chapels, located on the North and South Sides, are at your disposal.

Every item in a Skeeles-Rockefeller funeral is included in one moderate charge. Two chapels, strategically located on the north and south sides, are easily accessible from any part of the city—conveniently reached by elevated, surface lines or bus. Wherever you live our service is available.

CHICAGO STOCK PRICES HIGHER; VOLUME GAINS

Local Banks Supply All of Call Loans.

BY GEORGE HAMMOND.

Chicago stocks continued to go higher yesterday as the amount of call money from Chicago banks to local brokers was sufficient to handle the market without resorting to loans from New York. This is the first time in three months that the brokerage houses of Chicago were able to borrow all the money they needed at home.

There was no change, however, in the collateral qualifications, a mixture of Chicago and New York exchange securities still being necessary. The brokers have been changing over to Chicago loans for several days. As New York loans were called with the rising tide of money rates, renewals were effected in Chicago for the full amounts.

A number of shares which soared to new highs in early dealings were subjected to profit taking, but managed to close with substantial gains. Total sales reached 319,000 shares, the highest since March 26, when the total was 385,000.

Public Service no par was a feature of the utility group by shooting up to a new high of 320, a net gain of 24 points on the day. Commonwealth Edison advanced six points to a new top of 311 and Central and Southwest Utilities worked up seven points only to lose all but a point of the advance on profit taking. Middle West Utilities was up 10 points but late selling took off nine of the gain. Insull Utility Investment closed three points higher after a turnover of nearly 46,000 shares.

Plans Expansion.

Commonwealth Utility "B" finished two points higher and National Electric Power "A" moved up 3⅛. Several other utility issues were active, but moved within a narrow range.

Chicago corporation was a feature of the general list with a rise of 2½ points on reports that the company has invested some of its capital in the pool which John Willys in the Willys-Overland company. National Securities allotment certificates gained four points on reports of increased assets behind the stock.

Ground Gripper Shoe advanced to 42 despite the fact that it sold ex-dividend, reflecting reports of additional expansion plans. Art Metal Works sold up 4¼ and Iron Fireman was 1½ higher. Morrell gained a point. John R. Thompson company closed two points up in expectation that the company's sales for six months will show a good increase.

Grigsby-Grunow established a new high of 196 before profit taking caused it to lose the gain and two points in addition as more than 29,000 shares were exchanged. Raytheon was up four points and gains of 1½ to two points were made by Sonatron Tube, Zenith and City Radio Stores. The advance in Sonatron was attributed to the report that the company will make formal announcement of its merger deal this week.

Recovers Twenty Points.

Auburn Automobile recovered twenty points but Borg-Warner, Bendix Aviation, General Spring Bumper "B" and Houdaille-Hershey "A" suffered slight losses.

A. M. Castle was off 1¼, although the company reported net earnings after charges and taxes for June of $87,415, against $75,206 for May and $73,336 for April. Second quarter net was $235,991 or $1.96 a share compared with $193,631 or $1.61 a share in the preceding quarter and $190,534 or $1.59 a share in the corresponding period of 1928. For the six months ending June 30 net totaled $429,621 or $3.58 a share against $325,754 or $2.71 a share in the first half of last year.

Parmelee Transportation was unchanged. E. H. Miller, president, announced that the Yellow Cab company of Pittsburgh has become affiliated with the corporation. Associated Apparel Industries was off 1½. Directors of the company declared a quarterly dividend of $1 a share. Previously the company paid monthly dividends of 33⅓ cents.

The Studebaker Mail Order corporation launched a new store expansion program which will add fifty stores to its present chain of 45.

CHICAGO CORP. SEEN BUYER OF WILLYS STOCK

BY O. A. MATHER.

Purchase of the larger part of the interest of John N. Willys in the Willys-Overland company by a group of Chicago and Toledo capitalists was made as an investment, although with a speculative tinge. There are no thoughts of any imminent merger with other automobile companies, despite rumors in La Salle street that the $25,000,000 deal with Mr. Willys was the forerunner of a big combination which would include the Willys-Overland, Packard Motor Car and Nash Motors companies.

Official confirmation of the deal was given yesterday in an announcement by Field, Glore & Co., the investment banknig firm which recently promoted the Chicago Corporation, a $50,000,000 investment trust.

"Financial interests in Chicago and Toledo, represented by Field, Glore & Co., Chicago, and George M. Jones, president of the Ohio Savings Bank & Trust company, Toledo, have purchased privately from John N. Willys a substantial part of his holdings of common stock in the Willys-Overland company," the statement said. "It is expected that in the near future, Marshall Field and Charles F. Glore, representing the Chicago interests, will become members of the board of directors of the Willys-Overland company."

Prominent in Deal.

It was reported that the Chicago corporation figured largely in the deal. Its directors and large stockholders include a number of Chicago bankers, capitalists and industrial leaders. It was formed for the purpose of seeking investment opportunities, but until recently most of its capital was used in making stock market call loans.

"The Chicago group believes the Willys-Overland company can be made to produce larger earnings and that the value of its stock will enhance," a Chicago banker in touch with the situation explained. "Then there is the possibility that later on the company might prove desirable as a part of another big automobile merger. However, there are no merger negotiations at present."

Once more all signs point to an abnormally active summer for the steel industry. The United States Steel corporation yesterday issued its monthly report on forward business, showing a moderate decline in unfilled orders last month although plants were operated practically at capacity.

Unfilled orders on June 30 totaled 4,256,910 tons, a decline of only 47,257 tons from May 31 but 619,910 tons above the total on June 30, 1928. The current decline was much smaller than the 123,596 ton recession in May, which marked the first contraction in six months.

Renews Assurance.

"Fresh accumulations of steel orders and specifications since the opening of the third quarter give renewed assurance that the steel industry will operate through July and possibly even August at close to maximum capacity," the Iron Age says in its weekly review. "Although the pace of steel buying has slackened in some districts, Chicago sales were the largest for any week this year.

"Over the mid-summer inventory period many customers have permitted their steel stocks to run low and the volume of specifications received so far in July indicates that most buyers now are fairly certain that their summer needs will not be appreciably lower than in the second quarter.

"The slowing down in the demand for steel from the automobile industry probably will be less than summer usually brings. Railroad inquiry for steel is noteworthy."

O'Fallon Case Ruling Seen I.C.C. Rebuke

BY SCRUTATOR.

The decision of the Supreme court in the O'Fallon railway case was interpreted yesterday by Attorney Leslie Craven, addressing several hundred members of the Traffic club of Chicago, as a rebuke to the interstate commerce commission for its failure to obey the law in valuation matters.

"It is essential that we get the right view of the power of commissions," he said. "In this case the interstate commerce commission disregarded congress and the courts and went on a frolic all its own."

Mr. Craven, whose attitude may or may not be biased by the fact that he was of counsel for the carrier in the O'Fallon suit, outlined some of the anomalous conditions under which the railroads are now laboring. They have the right, legal as well as moral, to a fair return on their properties. But they must have freight rates sufficiently low to keep traffic moving and also sufficiently low to meet the competition of other roads.

Asks Less Meddling.

These conditions must be met by the railroads as privately owned corporations. But with the commission "whittling at the rate structure" over a period of years, Mr. Craven said, the roads are victims of a legal theory that their business is monopolistic and are thus subject to government regulation as well as to the stress of competition.

His view was that the commission, fearing that if it followed the law on valuations established thirty years ago in the case of Smyth vs. Ames, there would be rate increases that would be disastrous to industry, decided to overturn the law and follow its own opinions on what railroads were worth.

To this the Supreme court replied that the commission was not set up as an arbiter of economics but as an agency to carry out the commands of congress. Had the court upheld the commission in its failure to give the St. Louis and O'Fallon railroad the benefit of consideration of reproduction cost in fixing its valuation for rate making purposes, Mr. Craven intimated, the government would have to step in and take over the operation of the railroads.

The point at issue in the case was the element of reproduction cost. It was contended by the carrier that if the legal amount of consideration was given this element its valuation would have been much higher than that given by the commission. Because the law allows the government to take away half of a railroad's earnings above 6 per cent on the official valuation, the decision is of intense interest to all railroads that are prosperous enough to come into the recapture class.

Has No Friends.

Business as a whole in the United States has accommodated itself to a level of prices far above those that prevailed in pre-war times. It has also accustomed itself to a level of stock prices that are higher. The railroads, Mr. Craven argued, would have been discriminated against if they had not been given fair valuations, as the law required.

So far as the recapture clause is concerned, he is correct. As he remarked, the clause seems to have no friends anywhere. It is an unwarranted intrusion of governmental agencies in businesses that are at least nominally private. So far as the freight rates go, it is pretty well established that the level of these has advanced just about as much as general price indexes.

In fact, the O'Fallon case can have little effect on rates, which are already as high as the traffic can bear in most instances. If the Supreme court's decision acts to increase the independence of railroad organizations, bring them nearer to the status of competitive rather than over-regulated business, the public may indeed receive some benefits.

CONVERTIBLES AGAIN DOMINATE N. Y. BOND MART

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 10.—Dealing in the popular convertible bonds continued on a large scale on the stock exchange today and prices on several issues forged ahead to new high ground. American Telephone & Telegraph 4½s, which have been the sensation of the market, were far the most active issue in the group, transactions exceeding $2,000,000 by early afternoon.

The quotation advanced 9 points yesterday and several more today to register a new high mark of 162½.

NATIONAL BANK OF REPUBLIC TO BOOST DIVIDENDS

Directors of the National Bank of the Republic yesterday indicated that the dividend rate will be increased from twelve per cent to sixteen per cent annually at their September meeting.

First dividends of four per cent, quarterly will be payable on Oct. 1, it was announced. Stockholders of record June 15 are expected to receive a special cash payment of around $5 a share as a result of the distribution of excess assets prior to the merger with the Chicago Trust company.

The Foreman Securities company, investment subsidiary of the Foreman National bank, has changed its name to the Foreman National corporation together with an increase in capitalization of from $500,000 to $5,000,000. The corporation will begin business with a paid in capital and surplus of $6,000,000.

Morgan Holding Co. Makes Showing.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 10.—The market value of securities held or contracted for by the United corporation, the utilities holding company of the Morgan interests, at the closing bid prices on June 29 amounted to $434,748,370, comparing with a total cost of such securities of $287,919,008, showing a paper profit of $146,829,362 in the company's investments. This was revealed in the listing application of the company approved by the governing committee of the New York stock exchange today.

Vote Stock Increase.

The application was for the listing of 1,344,312 additional common shares and 23,032 additional $3 preference shares, which will be listed by the stock exchange upon notice of issuance. Of the additional shares, 1,153,253 common shares are being offered to stockholders of record as of July 10 for subscription at $37.50 a share until August 15, while 191,059 common and 23,032 preference shares will be used in exchange for certain securities to be acquired by the company.

In another approved application for the listing of 1,197,015 additional common shares of no par value by Montgomery Ward & Co., it was disclosed that employés who have purchased stock under conditions set on June 14, have already profited on paper in excess of $1,300 each. Will Inform Hoover of Europe's Views on Tariff

[Copyright: 1929: By the New York Times.]

AMSTERDAM, July 10.—As all further consideration of the proposed new American tariff has been eliminated from both formal and informal discussions at the congress of the International Chamber of Commerce, great importance now attaches to the impressions gained here by American business leaders. President Hoover is certain to be informed of these impressions, since the congress has presented a unique opportunity to secure the real views of the industrial chiefs of Europe, it is asserted.

One fact which stands forth from the informal American tariff conversations that took place here on Monday and Tuesday between the heads of the European delegation and such American business figures as Thomas W. Lamont, Julius H. Barnes, Willis H. Booth, John H. Fahey, and Silas H. Strawn is the firm conviction of Europeans that the new American tariff is designed absolutely to exclude most of the limited amount of products still flowing from Europe into American markets.

Discussed Privately.

As already explained, tariff conversations have really formed no part in the deliberations of the chamber. But it is natural with so many European business leaders gathered together that matters of such vital moment as the American tariff should have come up for private discussion. Indeed, far sighted business men like Mr. Lamont felt the chance an excellent one to get the true position of Europeans.

The more experienced of these European delegates show no outward feeling in the matter whatever, although it must be admitted there are hotheads who have pressed, and will continue to press, for united European action against American foreign trade. But others have simply raised the whole question on the ground of expediency. Is it worth while, these men have asked the American delegation, for the American congress, in order to gain "trifling advantages" for a few isolated American manufacturers, to bring heavy losses upon European manufacturers?

China's economic reconstruction and the prospect of future loans to her constituted the chief topic at the third day's session of the congress.

Utters Warning.

Thomas W. Lamont, leader of the American delegation, delivered an address in which he thanked the fifteen Chinese delegates for coming half way round the world to participate for the first time in the chamber's deliberations and to enlighten the world delegates on the present day conditions in China.

He warned the Chinese, however, that their country's international credit was at a low ebb, adding that no loans on any scale calculated to be really helpful could be made in New York or European capitals until the Chinese themselves made careful measures for the reëstablishment of China's financial and political stability.

"A great part of China's foreign indebtedness is in default," Mr. Lamont said. "Much of the specific security set aside for such foreign indebtedness and for the service of such loans has been sequestered. Until these conditions are removed there can be no question of further credits on a material scale for any purpose. In this process of restoration the holders of all loans to China, whether American, British, French, or any other nationality, must receive equally fair treatment. Each loan must, in the scheme of things, be treated upon its merits and not upon the grounds of future credit favors to be received."

STANDARD GAS "RIGHTS" MELON IS $5,250,000

A melon in the form of stock purchase rights worth around $5,250,000 to its common stock holders was announced last night by the Standard Gas and Electric company, one of the largest holding concerns in the public utility field. Stockholders of record July 22 may purchase additional common stock at $85 a share in the ratio of one new share for each ten shares held. Payment must be made by Aug. 31.

At yesterday's market price of around 126 for the common stock the rights to buy additional stock would be worth about $3.70 on each present share. As there are 1,418,946 shares outstanding, the total value of the rights would be worth approximately $5,250,000. The issuance of new stock will require 141,894 shares, making 1,560,841 shares outstanding out of a total authorized issue of 3,000,000 shares.

Authorize Reserve Banks to Buy Treasury Notes

Federal reserve banks were authorized last night to purchase $75,000,000 of 3½ per cent treasury notes, series A-1932-'32, at $98 and accrued interest, at the option of holders. The announcement, which was made by Acting Secretary of the Treasury Mills, stated that the purchase is for the account of the sinking fund and the offer will remain open until the close of business Tuesday, July 16, or sooner if the full amount is tendered.

BY FRED HARVEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 10.—Zigzagging through another day, the stock market closed this afternoon as ragged as the teeth of a cross-cut saw. All in all, the buying side appeared to be favored, due to a late rally, and public utility shares were on top of the pile.

However, trading for the day was nothing to bring the tan and sunburn boys back from the beaches, and sales dropped down to 4,201,000. News of the day was without anything greatly affecting sentiment one way or the other, and traders who sweltered through the session for the most part were apparently merely guessing whether to buy or sell.

The tendency to take profits throughout the list was too strong for any widespread sustained advance, and then, too, the banks were not giving money away for the speculators to play with. Call money remained firm at nine per cent, although there was a spell during the afternoon when some of the traders thought it might go lower.

Steels Droop.

The steels did not look so impressive today. There was, however, a nice sized flurry in public utilities that grew stronger as the day grew older. Numerous utility stocks sold at new high levels, and their strength helped to sustain the market during its blue moments. Traders on the selling side have been sitting back for a week or more waiting for some one or something to pull the plug and scuttle the ship. Despite these "optimistic"

This meat packing business is more than 100 years old. The location of its plants in the heart of the corn belt, the Company's special methods of distribution, and its unusually efficient management are the principal factors responsible for its expanding business.

Morrell has an unusually fine earning record and, in our opinion, distinct possibilities of further substantial growth. We recommend its common stock at present levels as an attractive purchase for investment.

We Have Always Recommended

Electric Light and Power Securities

THE marvelous popularity of electric light and power company securities is today the talk of the investment world. No other class of securities ever attained such well founded popularity in so short a period. They are today the elite among investments.

But—"We knew them when—!"

We knew them when they were aspirants only for their present high standing in investment circles. Few believed before the world war that the public utilities would come into their own so soon.

The war demonstrated their economic importance, and they rapidly came into public favor. The tremendous possibilities for the consumption of electrical energy and the close association between electrical development and community welfare, became apparent to all.

The phenomenal growth and expansion of the electrical industry was foreseen by the executives of this organization two decades ago. This business was founded by men with the vision of an electrified America; and it has been upon their concentrated and specialized study and analysis of the public utility field that our business has succeeded. The clients who put their confidence in us a few years ago have profited beyond their expectations. Those who come to us now have, in our opinion, an equal opportunity. Our faith in the future of the electric light and power industry is still unbounded, our knowledge and ability strengthened by our years of experience.

American Ice.

E. P. C.—Reversing the downward trend in earnings of 1926 and 1927, American Ice company showed for 1928 a good gain over the year before. Profits of $3.92 per share on the common stock compare with $2.92 in 1927, covering the regular $2 dividend rate nearly twice.

Further extras such as the $1 paid in January are likely to depend a good deal on weather during the present summer months of large consumption.

After common and preferred dividends there was a surplus for the year of $852,876, against $609,283 for 1927.

There were outstanding in 1928 150,000 shares of 6 per cent preferred [par $100] and 600,000 shares of no par common.

Profit and loss surplus at the close of 1928 was $7,202,943, against $12,772,871 the year before.

Current assets were $6,602,253 and current liabilities were $2,516,553 as of December 31, 1928. This left a net working capital of $4,085,700, which compares with $5,758,180 the previous year.

Profits of the company for the quarter ended March 31, 1929, were $338,007, the largest ever reported for any first quarter. They represent an increase of 18.8 per cent over the first quarter of 1928. Profits during April and May, 1929, showed substantial gain over the corresponding months of 1928.

RAGGED EDGE ON WALL STREET PRICE COLUMN

Taking the market in groups, steels suffered a bit from profit taking with United States Steel common lagging a bit during midafternoon, but coming under the wire at 199 for a fractional gain. Bethlehem, after yesterday's spurt, dropped back to close at 118, off 1 point.

Rails found only moderate demand and played a minor part in the day's turnover. New York Central lost a point, Pennsylvania closed unchanged, Chesapeake and Ohio was up ½ point, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul lost fractionally, and the others were mostly quiet.

Radio Down.

Radio excepted, the amusement issues were generally higher. Radio got nicked early in the afternoon and never did fully recover. At one time this favorite was off 5 points. During the late afternoon rally Radio succeeded in perking up a bit to close at 78⅜, off 3⅛ points.

The oils were fairly easy picking for traders on the downside. However, no one appeared to pay an attention to this corner of the list and they escaped serious buffeting. The Standard Oil issues remained virtually unchanged, Sinclair and Skelly Oils being off fractionally, and Transcontinental Oil gained half a point.

Aside from the utilities the market was largely made up of specialties. Gold Dust was active, climbing to 68½ and closing at 67⅞ for a net gain of 1⅜ points. National Biscuit set a new record and finished up at 213⅜ for a gain of 6⅞ points. Johns Manville rose sharply to close up 4¼ points, and American Rolling Mill gained more than 6 points. Industrial Alcohol was conspicuously strong all day, setting a new record at 193¼ and holding most of its gain to close with a net profit of 5½ points.

Buying in Alcohol.

Buying in Industrial Alcohol was coming from strong quarters on the theory that the organization no longer should be classed as strictly manufacturers of alcohol but that it should be considered a power in the chemical field.

Among the stocks to suffer from profit taking and general inattention were Allied Chemical, which shed 6½ points; American Home Products, which slid down to 72 for a net loss of 2 points; American Telephone and Telegraph, yesterday's leader, which dropped 3½ points, and Bush Terminal, off 3½ points. Others to lose recent profits included Canadian Pacific, off 1½; Colorado Fuel and Iron, off 2⅜; Du Pont, off 2½; General Electric, off 2¼; Goodyear, off 2⅜; Pittsburgh Coal, off 2⅜; Simmons Bed, off 2⅛, and Warren Bros., 3⅜ points.

There was favorable reports on the money situation from banking quarters. Many of the bankers are now of the opinion the strain is virtually over and look for some shading in the rate tomorrow. A number of large corporations, it was pointed out, have recently placed new financing in anticipation of retiring issues at present outstanding. In the meantime they are employing the funds in short term governments, thereby increasing the demand for prime short term investments.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

While the wheat market fluctuated in a most erratic manner, and prices had a range of around 2c for the day, the average yesterday was higher and the finish was at net gains of 1@1⅛c with July, $1.21¼@1.21⅜; September, $1.25⅝@1.25⅞, and December, $1.31⅝@1.31⅜. Winnipeg gained ⅝@1⅛c for the day, while Buenos Ayres was ⅛c higher to ⅛c lower.

Corn showed more activity and closed ⅜@⅞c higher, with July, 94⅛c; September, 97c, and December, 93⅛@93¼c. Oats were unchanged to ⅛c higher, with July 44½c; September, 46c; and December, 49c. Rye finished ⅝@1c higher, July being 93½c; September, 97⅞c, and December, $1.02⅜.

Prospects that the American and Canadian crop reports on wheat would be bullish had considerable influence on that grain, with Winnipeg inclined to advance sharply at times, but the bulges ran into profit taking.

Cut Winter Wheat Acreage.

A striking feature of the July government report is that the acreage in winter wheat, which was given in May and June as 40,467,000 acres, is cut 582,000 acres, making it 39,885,000 acres for harvest. It is said to be the only season that a reduction in acreage has been made in July from that reported in May. The five southwestern winter wheat states have a crop of 283,000,000 bushels, a loss of 42,000,000 bushels in June and compared with a crop of 326,000,000 bushels last year, a singular feature. Kansas has 138,393,000 bushels, while last year it had 177,000,000 bushels. Its loss for the month was 23,000,000 bushels, due mainly to rains at the critical period of blooming and other causes.

Fourteen large corn states have a crop of 2,000,000,000 bushels, or a little less than last year's harvest. Iowa has 419,000,000 bushels, against 476,000,000 bushels at last year's harvest. This loss might be recovered later by the crop holding its present condition for the balance of the season.

Await Crop Reports.

Crop comments from the American and Canadian northwest were generally less favorable than the previous day, with a rather widespread demand for more rain. Crop observer R. O. Cromwell estimated Alberta had a prospective wheat crop of 60,000,000 to 80,000,000 bu, against his report of 100,000,000 bu on July 1 and compared with 149,000,000 bu harvested last year. Snow's comment on Saskatchewan was construed as decidedly bullish. While many operators took the selling side of futures early, they covered later, and general evening up for the American and Canadian crop reports was under way toward the last, resulting in extremely rapid fluctuations.

Reported rains in Argentina on Tuesday proved to be inconsequential, and drought continues over the greater part of that country. Liverpool closed 1⅛@1½d lower, while Buenos Aires was off slightly. There was a marked improvement in the demand for hard winters at the Gulf with sales of 1,600,000 bu made on Tuesday, and the basis was up ½c as compared with the September. It was said that considerable wheat had been bought in the southwest to come here in order to make storage room there. The four leading southwestern markets received 1,849 cars for the day.

December Corn Strong.

There was rather persistent buying of December corn by commission houses on the minor setbacks, and this class of buying has been in evidence for several days with locals the best sellers. Efforts to cover shorts found offerings small, and the new crop month showed more strength than the nearby deliveries. Shipping demand was more active, while country offerings were not large. Government weekly weather crop report said progress of the crop was mostly satisfactory, although conditions remained spotted. American corn for shipment via Montreal was said to be about in line for export, and private cables told of an unpromising feed grain crop outlook in Europe.

BEAR PRESSURE ON LARD

While the lard market is regarded as in good shape to do better a little later, there was fair selling on stop loss orders yesterday, with moderate support and a net decline of 5c on July and 3½c on September, while other deliveries closed unchanged for the day. Expectations are for a better distributing trade in the future with reduction on stocks. Lard prices in Liverpool were 3d lower to unchanged. Exports from the seaboard were 992,630 lbs.

Ribs were unchanged, with a little trading, and bellies 17½ to 20 cents lower. Exports of bacon were 505,000 lbs. Cash trade in the south is reported as fair.

Hogs were steady to 10c lower and receipts at western points larger than a week ago, also than one and two years ago. Prices follow:

WHEAT ON FARMS.

The amount of wheat remaining on farms in the United States on July 1, 1929, is estimated at 4.96 per cent of the crop of 1928, or about 44,741,000 bushels, as compared with 23,555,000 bushels on July 1, 1928, and 28,887,000 bushels, the average stocks of wheat on July 1 for the five years 1923-1927.

TRIO OF LEASES ARE RECORDED IN SUBURBAN AREA

BY AL CHASE.

Oak Park and Evanston leases were the leading features of yesterday's realty maarket. In the western suburb the Benson & Rixon company, Chicago clothiers, signed a lease for twenty years on a two story building to be erected at 1040 Lake street, Oak Park. It will be erected by a syndicate headed by Holmes Forsythe and will be designed by Holabird & Root.

The site is 36½x150. Jack Carpenter of the George R. Hemingway organization was broker. This will be the lessee's 7th store and the first outside of Chicago. The Benson & Rixon company was established fifty-two years ago at Milwaukee avenue and Paullina street.

Two Evanston Leases.

Two one hundred year leases were negotiated in Evanston yesterday with Northwestern university as lessor in both deals. The 70x125 at 818 Noyes street, east of and adjoining the elevated right of way, was leased by the National Tea company for a retail store building. The term rental is reported to be $500,000.

The other lease was with the Mills Building corporation and is on property at 820-22 Noyes street, 100x295. A store and apartment building is planned for this site, which adjoins the property just leased by the National Tea company. The term rental will be $500,000. W. L. Dormand & Co. were brokers in both deals. George P. Merrick was attorney for the lessors. Louis Mintz and Norbert Garrabrandt were attorneys for the lessees in the two deals. Each lease has a set value for a period of forty years, with a revaluation at that time.

South Side Deal.

Edward B. Carson sold the thirty flats at the northeast corner of Kingston avenue and 76th street, lot 124x124 feet, to Donald S. and Carlton D. Engelhart. The buyers gave in trade 75x126 feet of garage space in Greenwood avenue, 300 feet south of 79th street, east front; 25x125 feet of vacant in 63d street, fifty feet east of Ada, north front, and the store and apartment building at 1847 West 107th street. The property on 63d subsequently was sold to Rosalie Erikson. T. H. Saunders and F. W. McGuire of McKey & Poague were brokers.

The State Bank of Chicago has made a loan of $750,000 for ten years at six per cent to James A. Bidderman in connection with the ten story apartment building being erected at the southeast corner of Sheridan road and Galt avenue—described in this department on June 9.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, June 10.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw was easier today, although no business had been reported. Offerings of both Cubas and duty frees were in moderate supply at 3.83c. Neither refiners nor operators appeared inclined to pay this price, however, with the only bids heard at 3.77c. The sugar futures market was also easier, reflecting the absence of demand XR raws at the lower levels. Closing prices were net 1 to 5 points lower, with the day's turnover totaling 46,300 bales. Prices follow:

	Sales tons.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.
July	500	1.96	1.95	1.95	2.00

In the refined sugar market all refiners were firm at the new list quotation of 5.25c. The demand for refined at 5.00c before the advance became effective proved disappointing, however.

NEW HIGH ON EGGS

Small receipts and bullish construction placed on the into storage movement advanced November eggs ¼c to 36¾c, a new high for the season on the Chicago mercantile exchange. The close, however, was at 36⅝c, or the same as on Tuesday. Sales were 65 cars and receipts 8,731 cases. Butter futures closed ¼c higher, due to lighter receipts with the July finishing at 40⅝c and December at 43⅝c. Sales were 39 cars and receipts 11,805 tubs.

GOVT. CROP REPORT BULLISH; 70 MILLION BU. DROP IN WHEAT

A decrease of 70,000,000 bu in the total crop of all wheat for the United States was shown by a bullish government report given to the trade yesterday. The winter wheat estimate of 582,000,000 bu was 40,000,000 bu under the June 1 indication and only 3,000,000 bu in excess of last year's harvest. The spring wheat crop of 251,000,000 bu, including 58,000,000 bu durum and 193,000,000 bu bread wheat, compared with 324,000,000 bu harvested in 1928. Total crop of all wheat this season is 833,000,000 bu, against 903,000,000 bu last year and a 5 year average of 810,000,000 bu.

Estimates were somewhat under trade expectations, especially on winter wheat, and the total of 833,000,000 bu of all wheat was 21,000,000 bu under the average of the private returns, the loss being in the winter wheat.

Total available supplies of wheat for the 1929-'30 season, including the crop of 833,000,000 bu, farm reserves of 45,000,000 bu, visible of 93,000,000 bu, and country mill and elevator stocks of 26,000,000 bu, are 997,000,000 bu, against 984,000,000 bu a year ago. The total North American available supply is around 1,485,000,000 bu, or 115,000,000 bu less than a year ago.

Corn acreage is given by the government report as 98,333,000, as compared with 100,899,000 acres harvested last year. The condition is 77.6, against 74.3 last year and a five year average of 79.2. The estimated crop is 2,662,000,000 bu, as compared with 2,840,000,000 bu harvested last year and a five year average of 2,747,000,000 bu.

The top price on cattle yesterday was raised 10c more, to a new high for the season at $16.50, while hogs and lambs lost part of the recent sharp gain on increased receipts. The cattle supply at 11,000 was nearly double the size of the supply offered the previous Wednesday, but failed to check the steady upward movement of the market for choice steers.

Other classes of cattle, however, proved excessive, and were pounded down 25c, bringing the spread in prices to the widest point of the summer.

Common to top steers cover a $5 range, against $4.50 a year ago and $5.50 two years ago. Butcher stock ruled steady to 25c lower, some heifers showing 25@50c loss. Calves slumped 50c, best vealers selling at $17. Little change was reported in the market for stockers and feeders.

The decline in hog prices at the opening brought larger houses in the trade earlier than usual yesterday, resulting in a stronger close, with many of the 7,000 left being held off of the market on the strength of the 20,000 estimated for today.

Prices were steady to 10c lower, the extreme top and general average prices moving down 10c at $12.05 and $11.30 respectively. Light and underweights showed most weakness, in the absence of urgent shipping orders. Outsiders bought only 2,000. Eight local packers, however, handled a total of 17,000, with larger houses among the best buyers at the close.

Sheep receipts were estimated early at 18,000, and later promised to reach 21,000, which compares with 11,647 the previous Wednesday. Buyers held the advantage again and prices were cut 25c more, bringing top westerns down to $15.10 and best natives to $14.75, with bulk of the supply at $14@15. Aged and yearling sheep were in fair demand and sold steady, top yearlings bringing $12.50 and good ewes $6.75. There was some inquiry for light weight western feeder lambs around $13.50@13.75.

wants to succeed, but unfortunately a great majority don't seem able to find the RIGHT connection. We realize that answering ads is by no means a joke, and it is indeed disheartening to "chase down" the great many unsalable propositions.

We are a sincere and honorable firm seeking the sincere and honest type of man who appreciates the value of permanence and future. Being a young progressive organization, we need more men of brains, ability and vision. And to such men satisfactory arrangements will be made.

You will get a prompt, straightforward interview. Your time will by no means be wasted, as this is the kind of opportunity that is not often found. Not real estate, electric appliances or any overworked lines, but an unusual merchandising plan by a well rated firm. Consumer sales experience unnecessary.

SECOND
LOANS

When we changed our name from the Chicago Morris Plan Bank to Personal Loan & Savings Bank we did not change the method under which we make loans and receive savings. Nor did we change the method under which second mortgage loans have been made.

Because there was nothing we could change to make our plan better.

The method under which we make loans has been well thought out and has been tested over a period of years. It gives to the home owner from one to three years during which he makes monthly installment payments of at least 2% of the principal sum. Interest accrues on the outstanding balance at the rate of 6% per annum and is paid monthly. When the loan is made a straight commission is deducted. This commission is $35 a thousand for one year, $65 a thousand for two years, and $90 a thousand for three years.

If the home owner borrows $2,000 for two years we deduct $130 from the face of the note, giving to the borrower $1,870 in cash. The borrower then pays back $40 a month on principal and interest, which the first month is $10 and reduces 20c each month.

When second mortgage loans can be made on fairer and better terms to the home owner we will most certainly offer such a plan to the public.
